Palfrey family

Bryan Palfrey was born in 1860, in Heyope and spent his youth in Cilibyddy, Llanbister Road. He worked as a groom and gardener, who served in the Montgomeryshire Yeomanry. He married Lizzie Humphreys (born 1873), from Newtown, in Penstrowed. They moved to Shropshire, where Mr Palfrey worked for the Merediths (the parents of the novelist Mary Webb). Their son John was born in 1902, and Winifred their daughter in 1908. The family eventually settled in Hopesay, Shropshire.

CD-Rom of photographs of Criggion Radio Station.

1941-2003

The radio station was built during the Second World War, in 1941, and was demolished in 2003.

[The photographs were originally in albums which were scanned to put on a CD-Rom, at Maddley Drawing Office, near Hereford. The albums have since been lost. Mr Barton and Stan Brown are to publish 2 articles in the Montgomeryshire Collections, 2006 on the radio station.]
