The humble petition of Margaret Jones being a real object of charity and hopes that you will redress her complaint which she is now going to lay before you. Your petitioner belongs to pa. Guilsfield and not being allowed proper support and maintenance was obliged to make my application to Devereux Mytton, esq., who desired that I should tell the overseers to assist me with a little more till a vestry was called, but the said overseers still persists and stand out and will not allow me anything more, and in making of a second application to esquire Mytton his answer was that he concerned himself but little with the parish business as he had been so long from home. My yearly allowance from the parish is 24s out of which I pay for house room 20s so that I have only 4s towards my support, and I am past four score years of age since November last should your worships please to consider my age and think proper to give me an order for relief. Margaret Jones, otherwise I must unavoidably perish for want. 3 July 1783.

Order. [83T/SO/2/302] That the overseers of the poor of pa. Guilsfield pay to Margaret Jones 2s 6d a week till the court shall order to the contrary it appearing that she is legally settled in pa. Account-bridge [83T83]

Whereas by order in this court on 11 April 1782 it is ordered that Francis Lloyd, esq., and we, Clopton Prhys and John Bill should examine and settle the accounts of John Davies, Lloyd

Jones and Thomas Simcocks treasurers of money raised on hd. Deuddwr and hd. Poole, lower division, for building a stone bridge over the river Efyrynwy near Llansanffraid, we, Clopton Prhys and John Bill, in the absence of Francis Lloyd, have examined the accounts and it appears to us that John Davies has received by the voluntary subscriptions of several landholders and others within hd. Deuddwr towards the said rebuilding the sum of £250 15s and, by virtue of three different orders made on 16 July 1776, 30 April 1778 and 6 April 1780 the sum of £450 and for materials of the old bridge £5 14s 6d which several sums amount in the whole to £706 9s 6d. And we also certify that it appears to us from the accounts and vouchers produced by the said John Davies (except for a few charges to a small amount) that he has paid towards the rebuilding the sum of £680 8s 1d so that there remains in his hands a balance of still to be accounted for of £26 1s 5d. And also we do further certify that upon inspecting the accounts of the said Thomas Simcocks it appears to us that he has received by voluntary subscriptions from the landholders and others in the said division of hd. Poole the sum of £106 15s by virtue of an order (the date of which does not appear) the sum of £40 which was paid into the hands of his late father Samuel Simcocks, deceased, towards repairing the old bridge at Llansanffraid by virtue of an order made on 27 April 1773 for repairing Llannerchemrys bridge and rebuilding the said bridge at Llansanffraid £200 of two several orders made on 15 January 1778 and 30 April 1780 £250, and in part of an order (the remainder of which was paid to the said Lloyd Jones) made on 6 April 1780 the sum of £44 4s 8d and for materials of the old bridge the sum of £15 5s 10d which several sums amount in the whole to the sum of £652 5s 6d. and we do further certify that by the said account there appeared to be due to his late father a balance of £16 15s 6d. And we do further certify by the vouchers produced by the said Thomas Simcocks that he has paid towards rebuilding the bridge at Llansanffraid £474 16s 1d and towards repairing Llannerchemrys bridge the sum of £70 and that the sum of £85 9s 4d the proportion of the said orders which ought to have been paid by the inhabitants of that part of the town of Poole which lies in the lower division of the said hd. Poole has not been collected by the high constables notwithstanding the order of this court so that there is a balance of £5 5s 1d due from the said Thomas Simcocks to this account. And we do also certify that upon inspecting the accounts of the said Lloyd Jones it appears that he has received by the voluntary subscriptions from the landholders and others of the said division of hd. Poole the sum £54 12s, by virtue of an order of this court made at Easter Q.S. 1780 £100 and for old materials the sum of £18 14s 6d which several sums amount to £173 6s 6d. And we do also certify that by the accounts and vouchers of the said Lloyd Jones it appears that he has paid towards rebuilding Llansanffraid bridge the sum of £82 12s 8 ½ d; that he has paid to Thomas Simcocks the sum of £40 4s 8d which the said Thomas Simcocks has accounted for as part of the said sum of £100 ordered to be raised at Easter Q.S. 1780 as aforesaid, and that the sum of £17 8s 10d the proportion of the said £100 which the inhabitants of that part of the said town of Poole ought to have paid has not been received by him so that there remains due to the account from the said Lloyd Jones the sum of £33 0s 4 ½ d. It also appears to us that there are some demands still upon the treasurers for work which we cannot at present ascertain and we are particularly requested by the said Lloyd Jones and Thomas Simcocks to represent to this court that is the earnest desire of themselves and other inhabitants of the lower division of hd. Poole that his court would take into consideration the inhabitants of the town of Poole not paying their proportion towards raising the several sums, as by their refusal near a sixth of the money charged is not raised and this court would be pleased to advise them which is the most proper method to recover the arrears of the several orders now amounting to upwards of £100 from the town of Poole. 16 July 1783. Clopton Prhys*, John Bill*.

Order. [83T/SO/2/304v] That the accounts of Lloyd Jones, esq., as one of the treasurers of Llansanffraid bridge in hd. Poole be passed whereupon there is a balance due from the said accountant of £33 0s 4 ½ d.

Order. [83T/SO/2/305] That Lloyd Jones of Ffynnant, esq., pay put of the balance in his hands as one of the treasurers of Llansanffraid bridge to David Richards and Thomas Jervis, treasurers of Pontysgawrhyd bridge the sum of £10 and that £4 10s part thereof be applied in discharge of the balance due to the said David Richards and Thomas Jervis fled this day and that the remainder, after deducting the expenses of this motion, order and copy, be paid to David Tannatt to be by him laid out for the use of the last mentioned bridge.

Robert Hughes of Pwllheli in co. Caernarfon, mariner, master of the sloop or vessel called the Speedwell of Pwllheli, and William Jones of the same, mariner, a hand belonging to the said sloop severally make oath that on or about 1 April 1784 there was put on board the said sloop about 280 bushels of refined salt from the salt works of John Blackburn, esq., at Liverpool to be from there conveyed to Aberdyfi in co. Meirioneth, and they further severally say they believe that his Majesty's duties for the salt were duly paid by the said John Blackburn as appears by a certificate under the hand and seal of Mr. Robert Scott, collector of duties on salt at Liverpool dated 2 April instant. That 160 bushels was shipped by order and on account of David Evans of the town of Machynlleth, grocer; that 80 bushels was shipped by order of Lewis Hughes of the same, grocer; and that 40 bushels thereof was by order of John Edward Jones of Aberystwyth, dealer. That on or about 3 April the said sloop being then tight, firm and staunch and in every respect properly fitted and finished for the performance of her intended voyage from Liverpool to Aberdyfi sailed from Liverpool with the said salt on board. That she proceeded without anything material happening till 9 April these deponents proceeded with a pilot on board from Aberdyfi to Derwenlas in this county. That the sloop being spent and a wind blowing strong to the westward the said sloop (notwithstanding every effort of these deponents and the mariners on board to prevent the same) got upon a rock on the shore near Garreg in co. Cardigan by which means 169 bushels and one gallon of the said salt was spoiled and lost. And these deponents further say that the said owners and proprietors of the said salt lost as aforesaid, viz., the said David Evans and Lewis Hughes and John Edward Jones are all subjects of this realm and that the loss was not occasioned by any leakage of the said vessel before the said accident or by any negligence or default of the master of the vessel or the mariners thereof but only by the accident above set forth. The marks of Robert Hughes and William Jones. Sworn in court 22 April 1784.

Report-bridge. [84T49] [damaged]

To the J.P.s at the G.Q.S. We, whose names are hereto subscribed having at the request of Thomas Sturkey and Humphrey Jones, gent, treasurers appointed for the repair of Brynydderwen bridge over the river Severn in hd. Newtown met several times to view the present state of repair and the situation of the said bridge and having considered the great breadth of the river at that place and the annual average expense of keeping the said bridge with the weir thereof and also a timber fence against the west bank in repair and being of opinion that a narrower part of the river might be found to make a new bridge whereby the future expense of repairing the said weir and fence would be wholly saved and the additional expenses of making such new bridge on account ... would be ... considerable of the great deficiency of repairs of the present bridge and having ... upon a place of such breadth and situation as in our judgement to ... the said proposed about 150 feet lower down the said river than the present bridge and having sufficiently ascertained the depth and breadth of the river and other particulars necessary to be known concerning the said proposed place we are all of opinion and do humbly recommend unto you that a new bridge be erected at the aforesaid place and we do further acquaint you that having considered the advanced season of the year and the manifest disadvantage and increase of expense which will attend the building of a bridge at this time and having examined the state of the repair of the highway leading from the finger post near Bryn-y-dderwen to Caerhowell which we think with a small expense might be made sufficient as to carriages and travellers might pass over the river at Caerhowell bridge and come that road during such times as the ford at Bryn-y-dderwen shall be rendered impassable and recommend that the building of the new bridge may be deferred until next summer to be completed by Michaelmas 1785 and a committee in the meantime assemble to advertise for and receive proposals and contract with such person and persons as shall offer to build such new bridge and to all other things as them shall seem meet in the premises. Thomas Colley*, Thomas Jones*, Edward Davies. Attended by Charles Gardiner Humphreys, junior.

At the foot: Move that a committee to consist of John Harris Barrington, Revd Bishop Humphreys, Messrs. William Pugh, Pryce Buckley and Charles Thomas Jones, gent, and that they advertise for and receive proposals contract for the building a new bridge as recommended in this report and that Messrs. Thomas Jones and Thomas Colley be appointed to assist them in transacting this business. Move that Thomas Sturkey one of the treasurers reimburse himself out of the monies raised or to be received by him on account of Brynydderwen bridge as he has already expended or shall hereafter necessarily expend in repair of that part of Newtown bridge which is liable to be repaired by hd. Newtown only, the monies for the repair of both bridges being to arise from the same fund. ~~Move that an attachment be issued against Thomas Meredith and Edward Holl high constables of hd. Newtown for not raising and paying unto the treasurer of Bryn-y-dderwen bridge £120 ordered to be raised on hd. Newtown they having served with the order of the court for that purpose unless they show cause to the contrary.~~

Case and opinion-removal. [85M107] [damaged]

Case. Churchwardens and overseers of the poor of the lower division of pa. Poole, appellants, and churchwardens and overseers of the poor of pa. Guilsfield, respondents. Thomas Spicer and Elizabeth his wife were removed by an order from pa. Guilsfield to the lower division of pa. Poole to which order the said lower division appealed. Two witnesses only were examined on the appeal, both produced by the appellants. Viz. Margaret Shelley sister of the pauper and daughter of Henry Spicer and Sarah his wife mentioned in a certificate herewith sent, says she was removed by an order from the said lower division to pa. Flint where she was received and provided for by them. Says she knew her father had a certificate from Flint to Poole, her father having often told her so. That Thomas Evans and Arthur Pierce, then overseers of the lower division of Poole conveyed her to Flint ... her to the overseer there who kept a public house known by the sign of the Royal Oak. Says she never heard of any parish meeting at Flint in consequence of her being sent there and says that she was placed by the officers of Flint in a house under the castle to lie in being with child and provided with necessaries at that house. That her removal from Poole to Flint under the said order was about 44 years ago.

Thomas Spicer the pauper the son of the said Henry Spicer and Sarah his wife mentioned in the certificate or instrument herewith sent says that he was born in pa. Poole and that he gained a settlement in his own right. That he has frequently heard his father say he had a certificate from Flint to Poole signed by two J.P.s of Flint town. That his father paid all parish rates and taxes in the lower division of Poole. The respondents about 10 p.m. the night preceding the Q.S. served the appellants with notice to produce the assessments on the appeal but no assessment or rate was produced. On the hearing of the appeal the justices being divided in their opinion, it was proposed and agreed to state this case and to abide by your opinion to save the parties the heavy expenses they must incur by starting a special case for the determination of the court of King's Bench. The exhibits herewith sent marked A,B,C,D, were produced and read in evidence on the appeal on the part of the respondents.

The parish of Poole is divided into [three] divisions and each division maintains its ... and you are desired to peruse the parol evidence before stated and exhibits herewith sent and the acts of Parliament respecting certificates and advise.

Query: Whether the pauper Thomas Spicer and his wife are settled in pa. Flint or in the lower division of pa. Poole.

Opinion. Thomas Spicer having gained no settlement in his own right is settled where he was born, unless his father's settlement can be discovered; of which there is no evidence unless pa. Flint is bound by the certificate. Upon this certificate the whole case turns. The objections to it are that it does not appear to be signed by two justices of attested by two witnesses as the act requires. As to the first, I should certainly presume from all the circumstances that the names of the justices were written upon the part torn off, especially after so long a time, but I see no ground whatever to presume that it was attested by two witnesses, and as I see there is no attestation in the usual place before the allowance of the justices, not any reason to suppose there was any attestation in the part torn off, there is the strongest presumption that the execution by the officers never was attested. If so, though one should be strongly inclined to support an instrument of so old a date, I'm afraid the want of this ceremony directed by the ac cannot be dispensed with and that the authority of the case of King against the inhabitants of Wootton St. Lawrence Bott. P. 128 the certificate can be of no avail, nor be made use of even as evidence or presumption, exclusion of this certificate there is no evidence of the father's settlement at Flint and we must resort to the pauper's birth which was at Poole and the father paid the parish rates in the lower division of Poole. Indeed this payment, if he was rated too, (the certificate being out of the question) would have gained the father himself a settlement; and notice having been given to produce the rates, I should presume a great deal as to the ... rating against the parties who neither produced the rate nor were any reason why they did not, though the notice was late, there was time enough to have produced it. Upon the whole therefore I am of opinion that the order of removal should be confirmed, though there was sufficient doubt to justify the appeal. 21 September. On the reverse: For Mr. Leycester's opinion. Dispatch is prayed.

Examinations.-theft [85M108]

Examinations of witnesses taken 16 September 1785. at the borough of Montgomery before Charles Jones, one of the bailiffs of the borough and Thomas Browne, J.P. touching a quantity of honey stolen by Lewis Ellis, farmer, at Lymore garden in the borough the property of Mrs. Elizabeth Sadler in the night of Thursday 15 September 1785. Thomas Davies says that on Thursday 15 September about 9 p.m. he went out of Lymore house towards the stable and when he came there a bitch which followed him out barked very much and went towards a back door which leads from the stables into the garden where the examinant followed her and finding that the bitch barked and bayed very much he examined the place all round to see there was a cat or any vermin which caused her to be so restless. But finding nothing he unlocked the door and went into the garden where he saw a quantity of honey and the combs lying down on the walk near to the garden door which surprised him very much. The bitch then ran from the place where the honey and bees were lying to the bottom of the garden which is all walled round and examinant followed her but could see nothing. This examinant went immediately out of the garden into the house and informed Mrs. E. Sadler what had happened and she consulted with Mr. Thomas Jones, Lord Powis's agent who lived in the further end of the house what was proper to be done when it was determined to send for one Thomas Price another servant of Lord Powis and examinant set out for him. When Thomas Price came to Lymore he, together with the examinant, Mrs. Sadler and Mr. Jones examined the garden and saw the tracks of some person going out of the garden near the place where the bitch had run at first when the door was opened, and it was afterwards thought advisable for examinant and Thomas Price to sit up that night and see if any person would come and for greater safety to be assured examinant went with Thomas Price to his house about a mile distant and there each supplied himself with a gun which were loaded with small shot by Thomas Price before they set out for Lymore

When Thomas Price and examinant returned and were come near to the garden door which he had gone there at first he, the examinant, heard some noise and desired Thomas Price would listen when Thomas Price said he hear a noise too and on coming nearer the door they both heard the noise as of some person attempting to force open the door put back the lock, Examinant and Thomas Price stayed some time at the door during which time the door was attempted to be forced open and on examinant unlocking the door again both rushed in when examinant saw a man running down the garden and on Thomas Price calling out to examinant he fired and Thomas Price passing by examinant he fired also. Examinant then went towards the place where he had seen the mark of some person going over the wall expecting the man to come that way but he found the man take another direction and that Thomas Price had secured him on which examinant went to Thomas Price's assistance and did not then know who the man was. Examinant on going back found a quantity of honey on a small wheelbarrow in the garden near the door. Thomas Davies*.

Thomas Price says that on 15 September instant the other witness came to his house and informed him what had happened and that he went with him to Lymore and afterwards returned to his own house for guns as is above stated and on coming back to Lymore he heard the noise with Thomas Davies at the garden door. On the door being opened he saw the man in the garden and called him to stop or he would be fired at and as the man did not stop examinant called to Davies to fire which he did and the man not stopping then he fired also the man still running on towards the wall where examinant stopped him as he was going over and Davies coming to his assistance they secured him but did not know who he was at that time. Examinant also saw the honey and combs near the garden door in the wheelbarrow. Thomas Price*. Charles Jones*.

Examinations/Information-theft. [87H78]

19 December 1786. The examination of Thomas Butler of tp. Wolstan Mynd in pa. Worthen taken before Devereux Mytton, J.P. Says that on Friday night between 1 and 2 December he lost from out of a calf kit near his dwelling house in Wolstan Mynd two old geese and from out of the woodpile one axe, and two check handkerchiefs from off a hedge near to the said house. That next morning he went and applied to Devereux Mytton, esq., J.P. for a warrant to search such houses and other places as this informant suspected whereon he obtained one and went along with the constable and searched the house of one Richard Evans of tp. Leighton in pa. Worthen, labourer, and there found ten standing goose pies and mutton intermixed, and one in an earthen dish and part of another being 12 in whole. That in coming from the house of the said Richard Evans he met him on the common and told him what had happened whereon he made answer that he did not value (meaning this informant) any more than the dirt that was under his shoe and promised to come about 12 o'clock to meet this informant to go before the said justice to be examined and accordingly went whereupon the said justice examined him and ordered him to be kept in custody till next day but the prisoner to excuse himself said that he bought the goose in Poole market and brought it in a basket over Riders Boat and was sure that the boatman must have seen him but upon enquiry made at the boatman's house the prisoner was not seen by any one belonging to the boat with a basket or goose or anything like one but by going home from the said justice the prisoner Richard Evans wanted this informant to make it up with him and that he would pay for the geese and the trouble that he had been at and that it was of no use for this informant to go to enquire at the boat as that he had them but by going next day with the prisoner to the said justice according to order he made his escape and outrun the constable and was not retaken till yesterday morning whereupon he was brought to the constable's house and then endeavoured to make his escape again by slipping out of the house and ran for a considerable way before he was again taken and this informant has been informed. Thomas Butler*.

The information of Morris Jones of tp. Leighton in pa. Worthen, being constable. Says that in consequence of a warrant granted against Richard Evans he was brought to the house of the said Morris Jones yesterday morning about 8 o'clock along with several persons in order to carry him before a justice and there sat down and when the family went to breakfast the prisoner and his wife were standing by the window in the kitchen whereupon she went and opened the door and the prisoner immediately slipped out to endeavour to make his escape but was pursued by three or four people that was then in the house and was retaken after running about two miles or more and he was informed. Morris Jones*. Devereux Mytton.

Repossession order. [87H79]

30 September 1786 at Llangadfan. John Jones of Stonehouse, gent, complained unto us, two J.P.s, that the Revd. John Williams late of Llangadfan, deceased, did demise unto Lewis Williams late of Parkyrewig in the said parish, yeoman, two messuages or tenements called Parkyrewig and Penisa Cyffin consisting of one dwelling house, barns, low house, stables and other outhouses with pasture, meadow and other arable lands with a sheepwalk adjoining situate in Llangadfan, to hold to him the said Lewis Williams and his heirs for a term not yet expired and that on 30 September 1786 there was in arrear and due unto him the said John Jones in right of his wife who is executor of the last will and testament of the Revd Henry Williams, deceased, who was executor of the said John Williams from David Williams son and executor of the last will and testament of the said Lewis Williams, deceased, tenant of the said demised premises one whole year's rent thereof and that he the said David Williams had deserted the said demised premises and left the same uncultivated and unoccupied so as no sufficient distress could be had to counterweight the said arrears of rent whereupon the said John Jones then and there to wit on 30 September 1786 at Llangadfan requested of us that a due remedy should be provided according to the form of the statute in that case made which complaint and request by us being heard we, having no interest in the said demised premises on 30 September 1786 did personally go upon and view the said demised premises and then and there upon our own view did find the said complaint to be true and did then and there affix upon the most notorious part of the said demised premises to wit on the outdoor of the mansion house a notice in writing under our hands and seals that we on 14 October next ensuing would return to take a second view thereof upon which 14 October we do now return and take a second view, and there upon our own proper view do find that he the said David Williams does not appear nor any person on his behalf and pay the said rent in arrear and that there is no sufficient distress upon the said premises nor upon any part thereof to counterweight the said arrears of rent therefore we do put the said John Jones into the possession of the said demised premises according to the form of the statute aforesaid. 21 July 1787. Of Mr. Humphreys 9s 8d which he received for my use. Richard Shuker*.

Account. [87M51]

Account of damage sustained by Charles Gardiner Humphreys, late county treasurer, in falling timber to repair the gaol which was not used afterwards and the timber or part thereof now lies unconverted.

1784. Falling 7 trees according to the scantlings directed by Edward George's plans which Mr. Justice Barrington approved and directed the materials for executing it to be prepared the same being about six tons of timber. Damage of the same on the ground for a long time four of the said trees remaining on the ground unconverted. The trees are calculated to be worth ten guineas and I am of the opinion that the loss sustained amounts to one third at least. Edward George*.

Letter-gaol. [87M203]

11 November 1786. Robert Edwards, Machynlleth, to [county treasurer]
I wrote you lately top desire you would give the county allowance to Humphreys Roberts of this town, a prisoner in the gaol for violently assaulting and beating John Morris. I was then informed that Roberts was very poor and the creditors in possession of his small estate; but I now find that is not the case, and therefore I desire you stop the county allowance.

Letter-gaol. [87M204]

7 February 1787. Samuel D'Edwards, Pentre, to the county treasurer.
I've lately been obliged to commit one Henry Vaughan, blacksmith, to the house of correction and was in hopes he would be there kept to hard labour agreeable to his deserts and the true intent of the place he was sent to. But am sorry to be informed by the keeper that he has nothing to employ his people in any method to support them, but by an allowance from the county. I must therefore, though with regret, desire you will let Vaughan have the usual allowance from this date while he remains confined, which I think was lately agreed to be two pence a day.

Letter-gaol. [87M205]

13 November 1786. To the county treasurer. The right honourable Mr. Burghes with his kind favour came to gaol and acquainted the poor prisoners that you would pay them 4d per day in money for their allowance which before since they were confined in prison but 2 ½ d per day till the last quarter they ... it since then until now to 3d per day and that will not satisfy us instead of 4d per day. This is to acquaint you if you please to come as far as the gaol and pay us money for we are in great necessity, there is many without bread or money since the right honourable Mr. Burghes was here and we will obey his orders let it be good or bad but we have confidence and we have no ... of a fair reckoning with you no more at present, so take this for your ... you would pay without ... delay

Petition-gaol. [87M206]

We whose names are hereunder written being poor prisoners now at the county gaol at Montgomery have taken this liberty to petition and acquaint you that we have been for two days last week deprived for the county allowance for bread and we are all most perished with hunger hoping that you will grant us immediate relief or else we shall be lost by or must apply to some of the justices for our relief witness our hands, 24 July 1782. We are 17 in number whose names you have. And we have been very well supplied hitherto but from henceforth our governess does make her complaints that she cannot carry it on no further without cash for to carry it on.

To the poor prisoners. Desire to have the names of the prisoners on the county allowance sent to me by the bearer. Sir, there is in the county gaol several which has not signed their name and I am confined here in the gaol where I have not friend to get money and carriage. I refer it to their Majesty justices of peace whether are the ... is to ... for the county allowance. I have to add my name to the same that they are not allowed for the county allowance and your favour to grant the same shall esteem it as a favour. Owen Griffiths*, for Mr. Charles Gardener Humphreys, treasurer. The names hereby subscribed: the marks of Lewis Phillips, Humphrey Morris, Richard Phillips, John Evan.

Letter-gaol. [87M207]

23 December 1786. Sir, In consequence of your inquiry about the county allowance for the bread to the prisoners I find the usual and only allowance that is made to them in Presteigne Jail is three half pence a day both to debtor and criminals without deduction but to criminals after conviction I find that 4d is usual allowed but we never had an instance (according to the best information I can get) of more that 1d being allowed to debtor or criminal. If I can be of any further service about anything I beg you'll command me. I declined answering your former letter till I could go to Presteigne thinking I could get a more satisfactory account than by letter. As to Mr. Marsh's mortgage deed and the bond I always understood I had sent it you as I can't find it and am pretty certain I sent it by somebody soon after I had it but know not by whom. My compliments to all on the Bank, I remain, your most humble servant, ...? Price. The county of Hereford allow 2d a day only to criminals but nothing to debtors.

Public notice having been given that the treasurers would meet at Llanwddyn in order to contract with any person for rebuilding Pont Dolwenith and John Richards and William Pugh offering to rebuild the same for the sum of £130 which was less by £10 than any other persons would undertake to do it, and the security they proposed the only one they could give being that half the money they had contracted to build the bridge for should remain in the treasurers hands for the space of seven years as from the time the bridge should be completed. And that they should occasionally during the time the bridge was under rebuilding be paid and allowed money sufficient to pay the workmen they employed. The were accepted of and several sums of money paid them on account, and the bridge after the first arch was completed being carried away by a flood and there being much more due for the work they had done than the money they had received Pugh Richards being very poor were unable to perform and finish their contracts

Edward Bearcroft*.
To county treasurer. Be pleased to send me per bearer the contents of the above order. I have sent you two of Miss Lucy's puppies. You'll find one much larger than the other because a hound bitch that lately pupped in the neighbourhood stole it from the dam and fed it to the size you see, Yours sincerely, Ambrose Gethyn*.

Case for opinion-removal. [88M70]

Pa. Guilsfield, appellants, and pa. Betws, respondents. Case stated by the Q.S. Mary Pugh, single woman, settled in pa. Betws resided as a hired servant in pa. Guilsfield in November last and being with child gave notice thereof in that month to the overseer of the poor who on 15 December following conveyed her before two magistrates who committed her and made an order for her removal to Betws. It was 4 o'clock in the afternoon of 15 December before the overseers and the pauper arrived at the magistrates and near 5 before her examination was closed by candlelight, an order was made and signed that night by the magistrates before the overseer and pauper left the house for the removal of the pauper to Betws but such order was not delivered to the overseers of Guilsfield till 2 o'clock on Sunday morning. The pauper and the overseer of Guilsfield returned to Guilsfield that night but the overseer went to his own house and the pauper to her father's having travelled together about three measured miles and a half. The pauper had some labour symptoms on the road that night and it was with difficulty she reached her father's house, she was delivered some time the following night. One of the overseers of Guilsfield on Sunday evening soon after the receipt of the order of removal sent to the pauper to come to his dwelling house that night in order to be ready to be removed the next morning for Betws. The pauper sent for answer that she was in labour and not able to go and was some time that night delivered and consequently was not in a condition to be removed till the 16 January following, when the mother was under the said order removed to Betws and the child delivered to one of the overseers of the poor there in Betws is eight measured miles from the dwelling house of the magistrates where the pauper was examined and the order made and that part of pa. Guilsfield to which the pauper returned on the night of her examination is distant there from six measured miles. The pauper quitted pa. Betws leaving the child behind her and on 29 March 1788 the child was removed from Betws to Guilsfield by order of two magistrates on the presumption that as she is a bastard her settlement is in Guilsfield where she was born. To this order Guilsfield has appealed. You'll observe it is admitted on both sides that the order of removal was not delivered to the overseers of Guilsfield till 2 o'clock on Sunday evening. You are desired to peruse the foregoing case and advise whether under the circumstances before mentioned the bastard child is settled in Guilsfield or in Betws.

I am of the opinion that under the circumstances stated this illegitimate child is settled in Betws. This case appears to me to fall within the third resolution of the court of King's Bench made in Easter term 1711 in Jane Gray's case reported fo. 40 Ca. of settlements and removals and is an exception to the general rule that a bastard is settled where born. Edward Bearcroft, Lincoln's Inn, 12 September 1788.
