Report-gaol [1800M43] [damaged]

Report of the present state of the prison at Montgomery...

The two old cells one end of which being ... slightly be used with inch boards and the other parts brick walls plastered ... planked on every side with sound oak planks of two inches in thickness properly fastened to the walls.

The angle in the felons court ... in the bathhouse and necessary should be made in a ... form form from the top of the door to the stone sloping on the wall with ... the bathhouse ...

Order. [That the report of Thomas Jones of Lymore, gent, respecting the gaol be read and filed. That such additional repairs as are mentioned in the said report be forthwith done. [M.J.] 1800M/SO/3/140]

The present reservoir being defective ... water and too small to contain a sufficient quantity to supply the prisons particularly in the summer season should be taken down and built with the town hill stone in an oval form and made watertight with clay. To be 12 feet in length, 9 feet wide in the middle and 5 feet deep covered with a brick arch. The lead pipes and watercocks to the different courts are also defective and must be repaired. The two main drains, the one which conveys the water from the old castle road and the other from the prisons to the town sewer should be lengthened about four yards each and a timber frame made and iron gate fixed at the top of the former. The expense of the above repairs and alterations I estimate at £44 10s.

The part of the wall to the women's prison which was built by Maurice Powell and deemed defective with regard to mortar and workmanship has been taken down as far as necessary ... rebuilt with sound stone and good mortar in a workmanlike manner. Thomas Jones*, 1 October 1800.

Report on Act of Parliament-bread. [1801H21]

Whereas in and by the Act of Parliament made and passed on 2 December last past intituled An Act for making better provision for the maintenance of the poor and diminishing the consumption of bread corn by directing the manner of applying parish relief until 6 November 1801 and from thence until the end of six weeks after the meeting of the then next session of Parliament, it is among other things enacted that the respective J.,P.s acting for each division and place in England should as soon as conveniently could be done and so from time to time meet together at special or petty sessions to be held within the division or place for which they respectively act and take into consideration the Act and circumstances of the respective parishes and the nature quality and prices of the different kind of provisions usually consumed by the poor persons who had applied or were likely to apply for parochial relief and also the quality and prices of any other articles of wholesome and nutritious food which might be provided for the use of such persons at reasonable prices and the means of procuring the same whereby the consumption of bread in general might be lessened and the state and condition of the poor bettered. And the respective J.P.s or any two or more of them assembled as aforesaid are required, unless they should see sufficient cause to the contrary upon due consideration by any writing under their hands and seals to direct the Overseers of the Poor within their divisions to provide a sufficient stock of provisions to be administered as parochial relief and to limit and appoint the kind quantity and quality of every article of food to be so provided in manner therein directed. And that wherever the J.P.s assembled at the special or petty sessions for any division should for any cause have deemed it inconvenient or impracticable to carry the said Act into execution in any parish township or place they should without delay draw up in writing under their hands a statement of the cause or causes of such non execution thereof and transmit the same to the Clerk of the Peace of the county before the next G.Q.S. or of any adjournment sessions which statement is thereby directed to be read before such J.P.s who should take into consideration the cause or causes so alleged and adjudged and determine the same according to the best of their judgement and make such order thereto as to them shall seem meet. And it is also enacted that the J.P.s assembled at the G.Q.S. respectively to be holden in the first week after Epiphany 1801 and they are thereby required to adjourn the same to some day not later than the corresponding day in the ensuing calendar month and so from time to time might in the opinion of the said J.P.s the said Act should have been executed throughout their respective jurisdictions as far as circumstances would admit and should cause ... place and whenever the JP.s assembled at the G.Q.S. or any adjournment should see causes not to set the said Act into execution in any parish or places within their respective jurisdictions or should make any order in pursuance of the said Act they should cause a record of their proceedings to be made.

Be it remembered that at the G.Q.S. held in the Guildhall in the town of Montgomery in the first week after the Epiphany, to wit on 15 January 1801 before Thomas Browne, John Winder, Maurice Stephens and John Edwards, esqs., Evan Jones, William Brown and Maurice Edward Lloyd, clerks, J.P.s did adjourn the same to Thursday 12 February and did afterward cause notice of the time and place fixed for such adjourned sessions to be published in the Salopian Journal and the Shrewsbury Chronicle both of which papers are usually circulated in this county and take such other necessary steps as are required by the said Act on Thursday 12 February 1801 before Maurice Stephens, Maurice Edward Lloyd and William Thornes and it appearing that no statement had been transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace from the J.P.s of any division or place as directed by the Act. The J.P.s assembled took into consideration the said Act and the situation in the county and poor therein and do adjudge and declare that they see cause not to carry the said Act into execution in any parish or place for the following reasons.

First, because it will be necessary to lay in a stock of articles proper to be given as substitutes for bread corn and store them up in a place or places at the least possible distance from the respective residences of the J.P.s and Overseers of the Poor and the poor themselves to render the provisions of this Act effective and as many of the parishes are of extent and thinly inhabited the providing and storing those articles for those places would be ... with a most ...

Secondly because in most of the towns and where only so many paupers are near to each other as would make the provisions of the Act beneficial there are private establishments by subscription for similar purposes.

Thirdly because several of the most considerable parishes together with adjoining ones in co. Salop have been incorporated by Act of Parliament for the purpose of maintaining their poor, who by provisions of that Act have been place exclusively under the control of Directors elected by those places which Directors some time before the last harvest began to lessen the consumption of bread in their House of Industry and to adopt rice and other substitutes instead thereof and have ever since continued so to do and appear likely to persevere in taking every proper means in their power to lessen the consumption of bread corn.

Fourthly because the greatest part of the county contain but a very small portion of an articles that can be substituted for bread and is out of the reach of any benefit to be derived from the importation of foreign substitutes.

Fifthly because most part of the county has sufficient of its native growth for house consumption and cannot be supplied with any substitute wither so cheap or more nutritious for the poor, than the different preparations from oats and the course flour made doe its own mixed grain. Jones, Clerk of the Peace.

Ordered that the clerk file the reasons of the magistrates assembled at this adjournment [12 February 1801] for not carrying out the above Act, and that a copy be by him forthwith transmitted to his Majesty's principal Secretary of State. [1801H/SO/3/161]

Says that last night he left home (in Forden) and went on horseback towards Betws to look for sheep of William Beswick of Birmingham that were lost upon returning from Newtown fair, and to gather (buy) ashes. That near Henfron on the road he fell asleep and his horse carried him along a lane towards Henfron. That when he awoke he did not know exactly where he was, but continued on and got into Mr. James's wainhouse and being tired he went to the peasrick there and took a handful of peas for it. That while his horse was eating the peas he went to look for a road towards Betws and returning he was seen by John Bembridge. That the little bag and one of the others are his property and that he had the other bag and ducks near Hendomen – found them in a new made ditch there. That when he was apprehended he was affrighted and does not know what he said last night. That Mr. James's ducks are now all about his house at this time and that the ducks he had in the bag he really found by Hendomen. The mark of Edward Edwards.

6 October 1800. Allowed, M.E. Lloyd. Deduct 6d from John Jones.

Remark. The unusual amount of this bill is partly owing to the great number of prisoners, but chiefly to the advance in the price of grain, in consequence of which the justices ordered the allowance to be advanced from 4d to 6d each at the last Easter Q.S. and a further addition of 3d at Midsummer Q.S., making the present allowance of 9d. Upon comparing the present assize of bread with that of Midsummer I find that in consequence of the reduced price of grain, nearly the same quarter of bread can now be bought for 6d and would then cost 9d and do therefore recommend it to the justices to reduce the gaol allowance to 6d for the present. M. E. Lloyd, a visitor to the gaol.

Report-gaol. [1801T11]

The report of John Davies, keeper of His Majesty's Gaol to J.P.s at the G.Q.S. on 18 July 1801 in obedience of the statute of 31 George III c.46.

I report that the said gaol is insufficient for the purposes required by the statute of 24 George III c. 54 in the following particulars.

1. In the two old cells for felons being insecure for want of being planked.
2. In that there is no separate ward for prisoners committed for misdemeanours only, and therefore such persons must be kept in the same ward – with the felons or the debtors.
3. The like as those committed to give evidence on any indictment for felony.
4. There is no infirmary or sick ward but I suppose the old chapel room in the attic story on the debtors' side or the room lately erected over the debtors common day room may be appropriated to that use for the debtors.

All which I have reported to the Judges at the Great Session; and to your worships at former Q.S.

I do also report that the wall of the court for female felons, though of the same height as those of the other courts on the outside, is about 18 inches less (being only 13 feet) in height on the inside which difference I think arises from the floor of that court being on a higher level than the others. And I am apprehensive that any one may easily escape thereout, by assistance from another person from without; and therefore I deem it unsafe to suffer any prisoners to be therein.

I do further report that the two new cells on the north side of the female felons ward do let the wet through upon the prisoners in rainy weather; and that the necessary in the same ward is quite out of repair, and the floor entirely decayed; and the rain beat through the tiles of the cover.

I also report that the tiles upon the roof of the old buildings in the same ward are most all loose, and several of them have fallen in the felons yard. And if the roof be not immediately repaired it may be attended with serious consequence to the prisoners. John Davies*.

And afterwards, on 29 May 1800 the said Evan Stephens is brought before me to make his defence in the said information. And because he had nothing to say in his own defence and confessed all the said premises it appears to me that he is guilty and is accordingly convicted of the offence.

defendant, for his stock of sheep upon Bugeilyn farm in pa. Penegoes and that the defendant not delivering them to him according to the contract several applications were made to him by the prosecutor that being at Machynlleth on 14 February Anne Griffith wife of the said Howell, came to him the defendant at the Unicorn Inn in Machynlleth and desired him to come to her husband. That this deponent said to her if your husband wants me let him come to me. That the defendant soon after came there cursing and swearing and said to this deponent do you want any sheep. That this deponent answered not without paying for them. That the defendant then said he did not want to sell them and he, this deponent, answered you have sold them to me and I will have my bargain. That thereupon the defendant took him, the deponent, by both his ears, drew his head down and kicked him and in consequence thereof he fell upon his head against the grate of the kitchen fire and this deponent further says that the deponent also kicked him upon several other parts of his body with so much violence that he this deponent was obliged to stay at Machynlleth all that night and was unable to hold up his head fr several days. And this deponent further says that he was violently bruised by the said defendant. The mark of Rowland Edward. Sworn in court.

Examinaton-assault. [1802H8]

King on the prosecution of Rowland Edward against Howell Griffith for an assault. Lewis Jones of Cwmricket in pa. Llangurig, yeoman, makes oath that he was at Machynlleth on 14 February last past and that as he was going by the door of the Unicorn Inn between seven and eight o'clock that evening he heard the prosecutor and defendant talking about some sheep and that he heard the prosecutor say to the defendant he did not want his sheep without paying for them. That he, this deponent, went into the house and soon after he saw the defendant Howell Griffith take the prosecutor by his ears, drew his head down and kicked him several times on his breast in consequence of which he fell upon his head against the grate of the kitchen fire and that the defendant kicked him when he was on the ground. He, this deponent, took defendant by his coat and said to him, Howell, don't kill him. That the defendant replied, what harm is there if I kill him. That this deponent then desired Mrs Pugh of the Unicorn Inn to part them as he was afraid the defendant would kill the prosecutor if she did not part them. This deponent further says that the prosecutor was very much bruised and the prosecutor's face was all blood from the bruises he had received and that a considerable amount of blood was on the ground. The mark of Lewis Jones. At the foot: Sworn in court 14 January 1802.

Examination-assault. [1802H9]

8 January 1802. King on the prosecution of Rowland Edward against Howell Griffith for an assault. Howell Griffith of Rhosygarreg in pa. Penegoes, yeoman, the defendant above, and David Robert of Dyffryn in the same parish, yeoman, severally made oath. Howell Griffith first said that a bill of indictment was at last summer's Q.S. preferred against him by Rowland Edward the prosecutor for an assault, to which this deponent had by his attorney appeared and intends at the next Q.S. to plead guilty thereto and to submit to any fine as the court shall direct. That the indictment was so preferred on account of what happened at the Unicorn Inn at Machynlleth on Wednesday night in or about the month of March last past. That this deponent was leading his horse in company with his wife in Machynlleth street and on the said Wednesday night about ten o'clock with an intention of going immediately towards home when the other deponent David Robert came and informed this deponent that the prosecutor and one Griffith Jones of Brynaire Isaf in pa. Llanbryn-mair wished to see this deponent at the Unicorn Inn. That his deponent having £1 19s remaining due to him from the said Rowland Edward for tithe he this deponent accordingly went to the prosecutor and the said Griffith Jones with a view of having the same paid. That when he went there he asked the prosecutor what he wanted with him and asked him if he would pay him the tithe which he owed him upon which the prosecutor immediately got upon his feet and held a large stick up in his hand and deponent thought he would have struck him and made no answer to the question put to him by this deponent but said he owned all the Bugeilyn sheep meaning the sheep of this deponent which depastured at that place and said that he had thirty guineas then in his pocket to pay for the same to which this deponent said pay first for what you have had to which the prosecutor said he was the owner of the rest meaning the sheep upon which this deponent said that he was not the owner of the property and this deponent being apprehensive least the prosecutor should strike him with the stick which he held up in his hand and with which he struck the table several times, pushed him with his hand from him upon the settle which was in the kitchen and laid hold of him and squaze [sic] him a little but did not strike him a single blow to the best of his recollections. That the prosecutor was not at all as this deponent believes hurt by what this deponent did to him. That upon this deponent loosing the prosecutor Evan Pughe the landlord of the Unicorn Inn with some other persons turned the prosecutor out of the house on account of his bad conduct and the prosecutor and one Lewis Jones in company with several other persons waited at the door of the inn for this deponent to come out for the purpose as this deponent believes on insulting and illtreating him and this deponent's wife having gone to the door viewed them and informed this deponent that they were there and that it was in vain for him to go out then. That one Mr Edward Pritchard being in company with this deponent immediately got up and said he would make them go from there and upon the said Edward Pritchard going to the door they all went away and this deponent was by that means suffered to go home in a peaceable manner. And this deponent Howell Griffith says that the prosecutor is a very quarrelsome troublesome person and is frequently engaged in quarrels and disputes and that he has heard that the prosecutor on the said Wednesday night after this deponent had left his company quarrelled and wished to fight with one Richard Evans of Esgirllin. And this deponent David Robert for himself says that he was in the kitchen of the Unicorn Inn on a Wednesday night in or about the month of March last past about ten o'clock at night when Rowland Edward the prosecutor and one Griffith Jones of Brynaire Isaf were together drinking that the said Griffith Jones requested this deponent to go in search of the other deponent Howell Griffith and to desire he would come to them at the Unicorn Inn. That this deponent met with the said Howell Griffith in Mchynlleth street at some distance from the Unicorn Inn leading horse in company with his wife just going to set off towards home as this deponent believes when this deponent delivered the message he so received from the said prosecutor and the said Griffith Jones and the other deponent Howell Griffith in consequence thereof he went to them and they entered into some conversation together. That his deponent soon after went away and was since informed that a quarrel ensued between the prosecutor and the other deponent in the course of that night. Howell Griffith*, the mark of David Robert. John Edwards, J.P.

13 January 1802. King on the prosecution of Rowland Edward against Howell Griffith for an assault. Humphrey Humphrey of the town of Machynlleth, gent, makes oath that on a Wednesday night in or about the month of March last past he happened to go into the kitchen of the Unicorn Inn and upon entering the room he saw the prosecutor and defendant above named sitting down upon a settle near the fire and one Griffith Jones sitting between them. That they were disputing very warmly about some sheep that the prosecutor said he had bought of the defendant and the defendant asked the prosecutor several times to pay him some money which he owed him. That the prosecutor made use of very abusive language to the defendant and at length they took hold of each other and they continued in hold for about a minute or two when some of the rest of the company who were in the kitchen parted them. That this deponent can't tell whether it was the prosecutor or the defendant that laid hold first, that very few blows if any passed between them, they having only shook each other. That the prosecutor did not appear to this deponent to be at all injured in any other respect that that there was some little blood upon his face which came from his nose or a scratch on the face. That this deponent has known the prosecutor and defendant for several years. That when the prosecutor has drank a little he is always abusive and frequently engaged in fighting and the defendant on the contrary is a very peaceable and well behaved person. Humphrey Humphreys*. John Edwards, J.P.

18 October 1803. The examination of Thomas Turner of pa. Llandinam, weaver before me, Edward Lewis, J.P. That he has weaved flannels for Richard Williams of Newtown, woollen manufacturer about March last till lately that about a fortnight before May last Richard Williams brought two flannels in a bag to examinant to weave the one clayed and half dry and the other not clayed and told examinant they were twenty-eight slays each but examinant when he put the flannels into the loom found the flannel that was half dry to be thirty slays. Examinant then told Williams it was thirty slays who said it must be a mistake in the warping, that Williams said the two flannels were 110 yards each but examinant when weaving it found the flannel that was half dry to be 120 yards of which examinant informed Williams who paid him for weaving 120 yards and examinant took the flannel by his directions to Watkin the dyer of Mochdre to be dressed. That about a fortnight ago he this examinant having been informed by Edward Stephens's wife that a piece of flannel of the same kind had been lost by one Maurice Bebb informed her that he had woven one of the kind for Richard Williams and on Thursday last one John Stanley came to this examinant's house to enquire whether he had the 'thynn' [?] or ends of the flannel that this examinant having no 'thenn' [?] in the house but that of the half dried flannel brought to him by Richard Williams immediately produced it and gave it to the said John Stanley and which is the same as is now produced by the said John Stanley. 24 October 1803. We, Charles Hanbury Tracy and Evan Lewis, J.P.s, acting within hd. Newtown having upon view found a certain part of the highway between the village of Betws and the town of Montgomery in tps. Llifior and Trwst Llewelyn in pa. Berriew from the turnpike gate in tp. Llifior upon the turnpike road between Betws and the village of Berriew into the turnpike road between Berriew and Newtown for the length of 1252 yards or thereabouts. And also a certain other part in tp. Llandinier leading from Betws over Cefnuppul in pa. Berriew from a certain place near Little Llandinier to the junction of the said highway with the said road from Berriew to Newtown for the length of 590 yards which said roads are for the greatest part thereof narrow and cannot be conveniently enlarged and made commodious for travelling without diverting and turning the same. And having viewed a course proposed for a new highway in lieu thereof through the lands of Arthur Davies Owen, John Winder, Joseph Lyon and Humphrey Jones, esqs., for the length of 1085 yards and of the breadth of 35 feet and also through the lands of the Trustees of the free school of Shrewsbury of the length of 512 yards and the breadth of 30 feet, particularly described in the plan hereunto annexed which we think will be much more commodious to the public. We do hereby order that the said highway from near the said turnpike gate to the said turnpike road leading from Berriew to Newtown be directed through the lands of Arthur Davies Owen, John Winder, Joseph Lyon and Humphrey Jones, and that a branch be made from and out of the said intended highway at or near a place called the Bath in tp. Llifior to fall into and communicate with the old road leading to the Bath House and Llifior Farm. And we also order that the said highway over Cefnuppul from a certain place near Little Llandinier in tp. Llandinier to the junction of the said highway with the said road from Berriew to Newtown be diverted and turned through the lands of the Trustees of the free school of Shrewsbury in the respective directions described in the said annexed plan. And also that the surveyors of the highways in tps. Llifior, Landinier and Trwst Llewelyn forthwith proceed to treat and make agreement with the said landowners for the recompense to be made for the said ground and for the making such ditches and fences as shall be necessary in such matters with such approbation and by pursuing such measures and directions in all respects as are warranted and prescribed by the statute made in 13 George III for the amendment and preservation of the highways. And in case such agreement shall ... aforesaid, we do order an equal ... the rate of 6d in the £ to be levied and collected upon all three townships, and the money arising therefrom be paid and applied in making such recompense and satisfaction as aforesaid pursuant to the directions of the said Act. Examinatio-theft. [1804M58]

27 August 1804, before Robert Griffiths, esq., J.P. for the borough of Welshpool. The examination of Samuel Pierce, shopman to Morris Jones & Company, mercers of the town of Welshpool. Says that about 3 p.m. this afternoon a person calling herself Catherine Lewis came to the shop and asked Morris Jones for some cloth, the same that she had sometime ago. That Morris Jones showed her a piece which the said Catherine said was whiter than the one she had before and that while the said Morris Jones was looking for another piece the said Catherine Lewis took a piece of Russia Duck out of a chest which was in the shop and near her and put the same under her cloak and concealed it there for some minutes when this examinant put his hand towards where the cloth was and asked the said Catherine Lewis what she had got there to which she made no answer. Examinant then took the cloth from her and asked her what she meant. Did you mean to take away the piece of cloth? Did you want to steal it? To which she gave no answer. Examinant's master then spoke to her but what he said this examinant cannot positively say but saw her go on her knees and ask pardon as he believes the said Mr Jones saying also that she would pay for the cloth or make some recompense. Samuel Pierce*.

Morris Jones says that Catherine Lewis came to his shop this afternoon about 3 p.m. and asked him for some cloth the same she had some time ago. That he showed her a piece which the said Catherine Lewis said was not the same sort as before. That examinant went to look for another piece and that while he was so doing the said Catherine Lewis took and concealed under her cloak part of a piece of Russia Duck out of a linen chest which was in the middle of the shop. That Samuel Pierce took it from her and examinant asked her how she came to steal the cloth to which she said two or three different times the devil tempted her to it. Examinant then said he would prosecute her upon which she fell on her knees twice and begged examinant would forgive her, that the said piece of cloth so stolen contained three yards and that he sold the same at 2s per yard. Morris Jones*.

Recognizances to prosecute and give evidence. Morris Jones in £20; Samuel Pierce in £10.

14 April 1804. We, Arthur Davies Owen, esq., and Evan Jones, clerk, J.P.s having upon view found that a certain part of the highway leading from the village of Llandinam to the town of Llanidloes in tp. Gwerneirin for a length of 1280 yards and particularly described in the plan annexed is for the greatest part narrow and deep and cannot be conveniently enlarged and made commodious for travellers without diverting and turning the same and having viewed a course proposed for a new highway through the lands and grounds of Bagot Read, esq., and Hope Gwynne Eaton, clerk, of the length of 800 yards, particularly described in the plan annexed which we think will be much more commodious to the public. We do hereby order that the said highway be diverted and that the surveyor for tp. Gwerneirin do forthwith treat and make agreement with the said owners for recompense to be made for the old ground and for making ditches and fences as shall be necessary. And in case such payment shall be made we order an equal assessment not exceeding 6d in the £ to be levied in the said township and applied accordingly. See plan.

15 November 1804. Examination of Joseph Weaver of the borough of Montgomery, taken before M.E. Lloyd. Says that the carpentry part of the repairs at the Dragon Inn belonging to the devisees of the late Earl of Powis is carried out under his direction. That on Thursday night, 1 November, about 9 p.m. he went in search of his nephew George Clutton and proceeded up Kerry Street and round through the Dragon yard and when he was opposite the stable door he heard the Dragon kitchen door open and not wishing to be seen, stood against the door leading into the Dragon garden and saw a man come from the house door round the new projection of building and make a short stand in the angle adjoining the new kitchen, and immediately pass him by with a piece of timber on his left shoulder. That the person had nothing with him when he came from the Dragon door round the projection. That when he passed examinant he knew that the person was John Corfield as he got between him and the light and could see that the timber he carried was about four feet long. That examinant followed Corfield keeping with about four yards of him till he got close to the back door of his house, when he addressed him by saying, Corfield, if you are drunk you can steal timber yet, bring that back again. Corfield answered yes and carried the piece of timber back to opposite the stable door and there threw it down and made an assault upon the examinant and pursued him through the Market Hall towards his own house. That at the time Corfield turned round at his back door examinant took hold of the piece of timber and found it to be about four inches square and converted timber, and has no doubt but it was taken up in the angle between the projection and the new kitchen, Joseph Weaver*.

Examination of John Corfield, the prisoner being charged with stealing the timber. Says that on the night Mr Weaver charged him with stealing the piece of timber in the Dragon yard in Montgomery...[end]

Examination-theft. [1806E66]

1 February 1806. Examination of William Brown of Montgomery taken before M.E. Lloyd. Says that on Tuesday about a fortnight or three weeks ago his master (Mr Bostock) sent for him to watch to detect a person who had laid straw in a field occupied by John Middleton supposed to be the property of Mr Bostock. The the examinant lay in the field adjoining Mr Bostock's building and Mr Bostock was in the field occupied by John Middleton on the opposite side the road from Montgomery to Chirbury. That soon after it became dark he observed a person passing along the road towards Montgomery with a burden of straw on his back and immediately after Mr Bostock came to examinant and they proceeded along the road behind the person for some distance when examinant passed him and waited at the turnpike till he came up, when he spoke to him and found the person to be John Hughes of Montgomery. That he, the examinant, said "Hallo, where had you this straw?". That they proceeded towards Montgomery and Mr Bostock overtook him and asked Hughes where he had the straw, who answered "It was a bit that Jack gave him" meaning a boy of Mr Bostock's. That when they arrived opposite John Hughes' house he was unwilling to come any further but they obliged him to come up to Mr Bostock's, when Mr Bostock ordered Hughes to put down the straw which he did and went into the shop, when Mr Bostock asked Hughes how he came to go to the hovel, to which he answered he had never been there before and it was a bit that Jack gave him. That Mr Bostock then ordered examinant to fetch the stick in that was in the bundle of straw when he went and took the piece of ash now produced out of the bundle of straw and brought it into the shop when Mr Bostock said that it was his and asked Hughes how he came to take it, to which Hughes answered he never was there before and never would go again. That Mr Bostock ordered examinant to go for the sergeant-at-mace to take Hughes into custody when he begged him to let him go when after some further conversation Mr Bostock told Hughes if he would leave Montgomery he would let him go but if he continued he should be protected and then suffered him to report. William Brown*.

Examination of John Hughes of Montgomery, labourer, who being charged with stealing a bundle of wheat straw and a piece of cleft ash timber and an ash slab now produced says that he did take the said straw and cleft ash timber and oak slab from the building belonging to Mr Bostock situate in Montgomery, but that he never took anything from thence before.

1 February 1806. The complaint and information of Thomas Bostock of Montgomery taken before M.E. Lloyd. Says that about three months ago straw and boards have at different times been stolen from his buildings in pa. Montgomery near the road from Montgomery to Chirbury. That in consequence of these losses and being informed that some straw was hid under a hedge in the field near his building occupied by John Middleton on 14 January last he and his servant William Brown watched to detect the offender and about 7 p.m. when it was dark a man came from towards his building along the road into the turnpike road near this informant and William Brown and had a burden of loose wheat straw on his back and proceeded towards Montgomery. That this informant directed William Brown to overtake the person so carrying the straw which he did at the turnpike gate and this informant came up to him soon after and found that the person was John Hughes of Montgomery, labourer, and enquired where he had the straw from and received the answer "From your hovel". That this informant forced the said John Hughes to carry the straw up to his house to see what wood was tied up in the middle of the straw, who thereupon brought a piece of cleft ash out of the straw which this informant knew to be his property and which the said John Hughes confessed to have taken from his building with the straw. This complainant charges the said John Hughes with feloniously stealing the said straw and piece of cleft ash timber. Thomas Bostock*.

21 June 1806. The information and complaint of Thomas Groom the younger, bendman, taken before William Owen and Edward Jones, J.P.s for the borough of Welshpool. That he has been working for James Harris of Welshpool, timber merchant, for eleven months last past and upwards in making hoops for coopers and different kinds of bindware. That a lading bucket which Robert Groom his brother who also works for James Harris made for the use of the shop which they were in the constant habit of using was about seven weeks ago lost from off his master's premises, the informant having this day seven weeks seen it there for the last time. That on Sunday last he saw a nephew of Mary Morris of Welshpool, washerwoman, wife of Richard Morris now serving in the Montgomeryshire Militia (who lives with his aunt) with a bucket at the brook which runs behind the town. That informant thinking it was his master's bucket that was lost went up to the boy to look at it and asked him where he had it who said "Why". Informant then said that he thought it belonged to him, the boy said look at the mark and the name on it. Informant then said after looking at it "very well", and went away. That in the afternoon of the same day as the informant was passing the house of the said Mary Morris she called him but going on an errand for his master he did not stop or say anything to her. That about 10 p.m. the same evening as he was again passing the house she called informant a second time who then went into her house. She said to him "What noise was that about the bucket". That informant then said he though it belonged to him. Mary Davies then said she bought it of Robert Davies and gave him 8d for it and bought another the same time and had got a bill for the two in the house. That informant asked her to let him look at the bucket who went and showed it him. That he then said it was the same his brother had made and the same they had lost. That the said Mary Morris denied it was their bucket and that he then came away. That he is positive it is the bucket made by his brother. That it is the property of James Harris. Thomas Groom*.

The examination of Robert Groom, bendman. That he came to work with the said Mr Harris the same time as his brother. That about three or four months ago he made a small lading bucket for the use of his father, brother and himself in the shop at Mr Harris's. That about ten weeks ago as he believes they lent it to Richard Bennett who saws for Mr Harris and that he never returned it but that examinant used to see it frequently till the said Richard Bennett about seven weeks ago went to a fall of timber which Mr Harris had. That examinant never saw it after that till today. That he is positive that it is the same he made as aforesaid, marked with the letters RM but which were not on it at the time it was lost. Robert Groom*.

James Harris in £10; Thomas Groom and Robert Groom, each in £5 to give evidence.

Mary Morris in £20; Richard Pugh of Welshpool, carrier, in £10.

21 June 1806. The examination of Mary Morris of Welshpool, washerwoman, wife of Richard Morris now serving in the Montgomeryshire Militia, taken before William Owen and Edward Jones, J.P.s for the borough. That her husband near four years ago bought a pail and the bucket which Thomas Groom and Robert Groom said was lost off Mr Harris's premises and which they say is his property into his, the said Richard Morris's house. That examinant asked him what he gave for them who said that he gave 2s 4d for the pail and 8d for the bucket. That the bucket has been in her possession and used by her ever since. That examinant does not know from whom he bought the same but that he said I have now settled with Mr Harris and Robert Davies. Examinant then said "have you" and went upstairs for the file upon which he used to put his bills and receipts and saw him looking at the papers on them but examinant did not see him put anything on the file. The mark of Mary Morris.

That he has never done anything to gain a settlement in his won right and in January last the was conveyed from Devizes to Charlton Horethorne by a vagrant pass at which time he was received and acknowledged to be a parishioner there. The mark of George Weeks.

To the constable of Montgomery and to all constables and other officers whom it may concern to receive and convey and to the churchwardens and overseers of pa. Charlton Horethorne in co. Somerset.

Whereas George Weeks was apprehended at Montgomery as a rogue and vagabond and is duly convicted before Thomas Jones, J.P., on 21 April did wander and beg at Montgomery and upon examination taken before me, which examination is hereby annexed that his place of legal settlement is pa. Charlton Horethorne in co. Somerset. These are therefore to require you the said master to convey him to the town of Bishops Castle, co. Salop, this being the first town in the next precinct through which he ought to pass in the direct way to pa. Bromyard to which he is to be sent, and to deliver him to the constable and other such officers of such town in such next precinct together with this pass and the duplicate of the examination and in like manner to Charlton Horethorne in co. Somerset there to be delivered to the churchwarden or overseer of the poor to be there provided for. Charles Thomas Jones.

Presentment-bridge. [1806M64]

At the G.Q.S. on 9 October 1806 William Brown, J.P., presents a bridge on the highway leading from Llanfair to Machynlleth called Llanerfyl bridge lying in pa. Examination-theft. [1806M65]

2 October 1806. The examination of Owen Lodwick, farmer, Ellis Morris, labourer, Elizabeth Daniel, widow, all of Llanfyllin and Anne Owen of pa. that part of pa. Llanrhaeadr-ym-Mochnant in co. Denbigh, widow, taken before Richard Griffiths, J.P. for the borough of Llanfyllin. Owen Lodwick says that on Wednesday morning 1 October he found that six of his geese which were in the fold yard the night before were missing. That he tracked them to a small distance from his house where they appeared to have been secured and where he also found the tracks of an ass and also the marks of a man's feet. That suspecting the geese to be stolen and finding from a particular mark in one of the hind shoes of the ass that he might be able to follow it he, with Ellis Morris, a neighbour of his, immediately endeavoured to trace and follow it. That they from this mark finally traced the ass from that place to Oswestry and from thence by the back way to about three miles beyond on the road leading to Chirk where they at length overtook a man (the prisoner in custody) with two asses, the one which had the mark in it ... hampers upon it laden and the geese and the other with only ... And the examinant further says that the geese so found upon the prisoner and marked as before stated as well as the four other also found upon the prisoner are the property of the examinant and were stolen from him (as he verily believes) by the prisoner who said his name is William Jones. And this examinant further says that he found in the said hampers four other geese (besides the six before noticed) which were not his property. The mark of Owen Lodwick. Ellis Morris says that he accompanied the above examinant in pursuit of the prisoner, that he was present when he was taken and when the geese to the number of ten were found upon him. The mark of Ellis Morris.

Elizabeth Daniel says that on the morning of Wednesday last found that two of her geese had been stolen the night before or early upon that day, and being informed that the prisoner was in custody charged with stealing geese she went to Llanfyllin and upon examining the geese which were taken in the possession of the prisoner she found the two geese which she lost.

The said Anne Owen says that on Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning also lost two geese and hearing that the prisoner was in custody at Llanfyllin charged with stealing geese which were in the prisoner's possession she found the two geese which she had lost and which she verily believes were stolen by the prisoner. The mark of Anne Owen.

Committed on same day for having stolen and carried away from the fold yard of certain premises in the occupation of Owen Lodwick, situate in pa. Llanfyllin, six geese of the value of 10s the property of Owen Lodwick. Recognizance of Owen Lodwick in £20; Ellis Morris to give evidence in £10.

Examination-theft. [1807H52]

19 December 1806. Information and complaint of Elizabeth Williams of the town of Welshpool, widow, before George Ross, esq., J.P. for the borough. Says that she lodges at Mr Sparrow's in Welshpool where she has been a month last Monday. That previous to her coming there she lodged with Mary Morris, washerwoman, wife of Richard Morris, now a soldier in the Montgomeryshire Militia. That about a week before she left the said Mary Morris in looking over some things she had in a box there she particularly recollects seeing a pair of woman's leather gloves, a pair of scissors, a silk purse, three pair of white cotton stockings, two cambric muslin half handkerchiefs, one muslin half handkerchief, one cravat, a man's nightcap and a velvet stock, the property of this informant. That near a fortnight after she came to Mr Sparrow's she perceived the above things were gone, that as this informant never went out of the house at Mr Sparrow's without locking the door she has very reason to believe the said property was lost before she came there, she therefore suspects they were stolen by the said Mary Morris (as there was no other person at her house excepting her niece, a child about eight or nine years old, this informant and her daughter) and that they are now concealed in her house or in the premises adjoining, and that the above goods are of the value of 15s. The mark of Elizabeth Williams.

Affidavit-returns by petty constables. [1807H55]

Evan Owen of Nanthir in pa. Cemaes, farmer, petty constable of tp. Tafolog in the upper division of hd. Machynlleth, and Rowland Roberts of Glyntwymyn in the same division and constable of tp. Gwern-y-bwlch severally make oath and say that, first the said Evan Owen, for himself, says that he on 25 September last past caused the paper, writing of return hereunto annexed marked with the letter A to be made that there was no freeholder resident in tp. Tafolog qualified to serve on juries and that he was on 25 September sworn to the truth of the such return before John Davies, clerk, J.P. And the other deponent says that on 3 October last past he caused the paper, writing of return hereunto annexed marked with the letter B containing a true list of all persons with the said tp. Gwern-y-Bwlch qualified to serve on juries and that he was on 3 October sworn to the truth of the such return before John Davies, clerk, J.P. And they both severally say they fully intended to send such returns to Peter Hugh, high constable of the said upper division in due time before the G.Q.S. but these deponents were deceived as to the time of holding of the Q.S. in consequence of erroneous statement in the Welsh almanack circulated and used in the said parish from which these deponents were induced to believe that the Q.S. were to be held on 16 October instead of the ninth which was the sole reason that these deponents did not send their return so made and verified to the said high constable in due time to be taken to the said Q.S. And these deponents further severally say that the said Peter Hugh informed them since the Q.S. that he was also deceived by the said almanack and did not understand that the said Q.S. was to be held on the ninth October last until ten o'clock the preceding night or that he would have sent to these deponents and the rest of the petty constables for their several returns so as to take them to the Q.S. The marks of Evan and Rowland Roberts. The before written affidavit was read over and explained to the said deponents and they perfectly understood the content of the same and were afterwards severally duly sworn to the truth hereof at Machynlleth on 31 December 1806, before John Hughes, J.P.

Order. Discharged, having shown cause. [1807H/SO/3/492]

Certificate of conviction-trees. [1807H56]

8 January 1807. John Evans of pa. Churchstoke, yeoman, is by Charles Ellis, constable of tp. Churchstoke brought before me Maurice Edward Lloyd, J.P., and charged by Myddleton Downes of pa. Churchstoke with cutting spoiling and carrying away alder trees his property on and since 1 December last. And the said Myddleton Downes, a credible witness, deposes that he on 6 January in the garden and other places belonging to the said John Evans did find 33 alder trees which Myddleton Downes believes to be his property. John Evans is asked by me if he has anything to say why he should not be convicted but could not give a good account of them and is hereby convicted.

I adjudge him guilty

Affidavit-return by petty constable. [1807H57]

Morgan Lewis of Clawddycoed in pa. Llanbryn-mair, petty constable of tp. Tirymynach in the upper division of hd. Machynlleth, makes oath and says that, on 27 September last past caused the of return hereunto annexed of the name of John Williams being the only person within the township qualified to serve on juries and that he fully intended to send such return properly signed to Peter Hugh, high constable of the said upper division in due time before the G.Q.S. but this deponent was deceived as to the time of holding of the Q.S. in consequence of erroneous statement in the Welsh almanack circulated and used in the said parish from which these deponents were induced to believe that the Q.S. were to be held on 16 October instead of the ninth which was the sole reason that he did not send his return so made and verified to the said high constable in due time to be taken to the said Q.S.

The before written affidavit was read over and explained to the said deponent and he perfectly understood the content of the same and was afterwards duly sworn to the truth hereof at Penegoes on 10 January 1807, before John Hughes, J.P.

Examination-theft. [1808T10]

11 June 1808. Examination of John Allen of the West in pa. Llandysilio, gent, taken before John Humffreys, J.P. Says that on Saturday last he had a wagon loaded with 13 bags of wheat containing about 40 measures that he ordered his wagoner to take the wheat to Pentreheilyn Mill. That the water being too high the wagoner returned with the load and put it in the driving house. That it remained there on account of the high water until Tuesday morning when he sent his wagoner to deliver the wheat and to see it weighed. Says that upon his wagoner's return he informed him that there was one bag short. And this deponent further says that suspecting the same to have been stolen by William Jasper of pa. Llandysilio, labourer, he applied to the above named John Humffreys, esq., for a warrant to search the dwelling house of the said William Jasper. That he yesterday went to William Jasper's dwelling house with a constable and proper assistants to search for the bag and wheat but did not find either, and they quitted the house. That deponent and the constable returned to the house about eleven at night when they found the said William Jasper in bed and threatened to take him before a magistrate as they had a warrant for that purpose. That Jasper owned he had taken the bag and the corn and that it was buried in the garden and showed them the place where it was. And deponent says the bag is his and believes the corn to be also his property. John Allen*.

11 June 1808. Examination of John Allen of the West in pa. Llandysilio, gent, Richard Bromley of Llandrinio, farmer, and John Haycock of Pentreheilyn Mill taken before John Humffreys, J.P. John Allen says that on Saturday last he had a wagon loaded with 13 bags of wheat containing about 40 measures that he ordered his wagoner to take the wheat to Pentreheilyn Mill. That the water being too high the wagoner returned with the load and put it in the driving house. That it remained there on account of the high water until Tuesday morning when he sent his wagoner to deliver the wheat and to see it weighed. Says that upon his wagoner's return he informed him that there was one bag short. And this deponent further says that he had reason to suspect and does suspect that William Jasper of pa. Llandysilio, labourer, did steal the said wheat. John Allen*.

John Haycock says that he is a servant to Mr Thomas Haycock at Pentreheilyn Mill. That about Tuesday last William Jasper brought half a measure of wheat sprinkled with a little barley to be ground. That Mr Allen having lost a bag of wheat and having desired Mr Haycock's servant to take notice of any wheat that might be brought to the mill to be ground and to let him know if the corn brought there was like that which he had lost. He kept the toll and upon examining the wheat brought to the mill with that brought from Mr Allen the corn is very much alike. And this deponent says he asked Jasper from whom he bought the corn and he answered from Mr Bromley of Llandrinio. The mark of John Haycock.

Richard Bromley says that he has heard the examination of John Haycock read over to him, and deposes that neither he nor any of his family sold any wheat or other corn to the said William Jasper upon Tuesday last and further says he had not any wheat threshed at that time to sell to any person. 5 September 1809. Examination of William Evans of pa. Guilsfield, labourer, before William Owen and Thomas Morgan, J.P.s for the borough of Welshpool. Says that last Friday morning having been turned away by his master Evan Powell of Burgedin, boatman, because there was no work in the canal and therefore did not want the services of this examinant who used to attend his boat he went into several farm houses to enquire for work but not being able to get any and being just clemmed he went into Mr Guilding's dockyard and saw four plates under the side of a boat and took two of them to Mr Evans the glazier in Welshpool the same morning and asked his wife if she bought any old copper when she said she did let us see what sort they are . After looking at them she said these belong to a boat and asked one of the children where is your father who came into the shop. The said Mrs Evans asked examinant how he came by those things who said they were his master's as they belonged to them when a boat was repaired. Mr Evans then weighed them and said here is 2s 6d for you which examinant took and went away. That about three or four o'clock that afternoon he went to the dockyard again and took away the other two plates which he also carried to Mr Evans's. That he was out but came in very soon and asked examinant his name and where he got the plates who told him his name and also told him that the plates belonged to his master as he had done in the morning. That the said Mr Evans took it down on a slate. He then weighed the plates as before and gave examinant 2s 6d. That Mrs Evans was in the shop and co-interrogated him. That yesterday afternoon he went again to the said dockyard and got one plate which he took to Mr Hopkins to sell who would not buy it and afterwards went to the said Mr Evans who after looking at it said he would not buy it. #### Examination-theft. [1809M84]

5 September 1809. The information and complaint of John Clayton, workman to Richard Goulding of the town of Welshpool, boat builder, taken before William Owen and Thomas Morgan, J.P.s for the borough of Welshpool. Says that James Harris of Welshpool, timber merchant, having a boat repairing in Mr Goulding's wharf he took five pieces of copper called indexes off it, four of them last week and the other yesterday morning. That when he came to his work yesterday he discovered that the four pieces were lost upon which he informed Mr Goulding of it. That about five or 6 o'clock in the afternoon Mr Goulding came to the wharf and brought an index with him and asked informant whether it was one of those that was lost. Informant said it was like them, that upon fitting it to the place from whence it was supposed to have been fastened to the boat he discovered it was the fifth piece he took off and which he did slot precise before was gone. That he is sure it came from Mr Harris's boat and is the same that is now produced. That Mr Goulding brought boy William Evans with him to the dock where informant was and asked the boy where he got the plate (meaning the index) from. That the boy said he found it in the Bellan dock, that it was about eleven o'clock yesterday morning when he informant took it off the boat. That tools have frequently been taken away from the dock. That the pieces of copper produced this day are the property of the said James Harris. John Clayton*.

Examination of Richard Goulding. Says that in consequence of John Clayton having informed him that four plates or indexes were taken out of the dockyard that came from off Mr Harris's boat he went round the town yesterday in the morning to those places that he understood bought old copper and inquiring whether any person had bought any to sell. Mr Hopkins the tinman came to him in the afternoon and said that a boy had bought a plate of the description examinant had given him in the morning for sale and describing the boy. Examinant went to the place where Mr Hopkins told him he would be likely to meet him and finding him asked him what he had got in his bosom. The boy said he had nothing. Examinant then unbuttoning his waistcoat took a piece of an index from there and asked if that was all he had. The boy said no, here is another piece which he gave the examinant, who then asked where the rest of the plates were. The boy then said he had no more nor had seen any more. Examinant then took him down to the dock and gave the pieces to John Clayton who tried them on the boat and said they were those he had taken off the boat in the morning. That between six and seven o'clock yesterday evening Mr Evans the glazier told examinant that his wife had bought a quantity of plates from a boy who called himself William Evans. That the boy told examinant he found the two plates in the Bellan dock. That examinant called amongst other places at Mr Evans the glaziers yesterday morning about ten o'clock and asked him whether any person had called to sell old copper plates, said they were as thick as a penny piece and about an inch and a half broad and were numbered with figures. He said he had not seen any such a thing. Examinant then desired him if any person should bring such things for sale that he would let him know which he promised to do. That about a little before seven o'clock yesterday evening as examinant was going down the street Mr Evans the glazier called him into the shop and told him the plates he had been enquiring after were there. That Mrs Evans or his wife does not recollect which he said had bought them last Friday. That this was about an hour after the boy had been taken by the examinant. But Mr Evans did not say anything that the boy had called again that evening to offer more. Richard Golden*.
