Instructions for an indictment. [1810H7]

Indictment against David Ellis of pa. Llanrhaeadr, labourer, for stealing one piece of oak timber of the value of 2s property of Revd Robert Jones, clerk, on 14 December 1809 from the said parish. Prosecutor & witness: Robert Jones, clerk. Witness: George Humphreys.

Examination-theft. [1810H8, 14]

17 October 1809. The information and complaint of Richard Griffiths, partner with Oliver Jones of the town of Welshpool, grocer, taken before Robert Wilding and Edward Pugh, esqs., J.P.s for the said borough. Says that yesterday morning having received a quantity of teas and sugars in the afternoon he told Stansall Williams, one of informant's apprentices, to unpack the chest of loaves of sugar (there being but one chest of loaf sugar) and at the same time gave him on a piece of paper the number of the loaves and told him to be careful in weighing them. That the said Stansall Williams did unpack the chest and placed the loaves of sugar on a counter but before he had time to weigh them the other apprentices and porters being engaged in serving customers and another customer coming in the said Stansall Williams served him before he had time to weigh the sugar, that shortly after he had served the customer as aforesaid he came and informed examinant, who was in the counting house, that there two loaves short, and asked him examinant if there were any packed in any other chest who said certainly not, there was not another chest of them. Examinant then went into the shop and put all the loaves into the chest that were then on the counter to see if there was any apparent deficiency when it appeared there were two missing, he told one of the porters to take the chest to the warehouse to be weighed who having weighed it and informed examinant of the weight was convinced two loaves had been stolen as it did not correspond with the invoice sent nor with the weight as weighed in the morning. Upon examinant saying that they must have been stolen John Williams, one of the porters, said he recollected seeing Jane Lloyd, a woman of bad character in the shop. That informant ordered the said John Williams to look into the different public shops in the town and see if she was in either, that he frequently returned saying he could not see her. Informant then, on finding the said John Williams knew where she lived desired him and the said Stansall Williams to go after her. That in about half an hour Stansall Williams returned saying that they had found the woman. Some short time afterwards informant went to meet them where Ann Evans commonly called Nancy Waters begged he would forgive them that their lives were in his hands. Richard Griffiths*.

The examination of the said Stansall Williams. Said that yesterday afternoon the said Mr Griffiths gave him a chest of sugars which he desired examinant to open and to see if they were right. That examinant did open the chest and laid the sugar on the counter but before he had time to see if the number was right he was called off to a customer there being many people in the shop. That the sugar was put near the door but that he went to the other end of the shop to serve the customer above mentioned. That when he had done that he went again to the sugar where on comparing the number of the loaves with the number on a piece of paper delivered to him by the said Mr Griffiths he perceived two were missing. He then went and informed the said Mr Griffiths of the circumstance and asked him if there were any packed in any other chest who said they were not. That after the said John Williams had been looking in the different shops to endeavour to find the woman he suspected of stealing the sugar he and examinant went to the road they supposed the said woman (Jane Lloyd) would return home. That near Pwll-y-glo common out of any road either horse or foot they overtook two women. When examinant asked one of them the way to Dolobran when she answered we do not know the way to Dolobran we are strange ourselves. The said John Williams came up took hold of her looked her in the face and said this is the woman and here is the sugar putting his hand on her back and said to her what did you take out of the corner shop just now. "Me take from the corner shop?" says she and dropped a loaf of sugar down and began to cry and speak to the said John Williams in Welsh. That this was Jane Lloyd. That the other woman, Anne Evans who was a few yards from them was going off when examinant went after her and asked her what had she behind her who said "I have nothing but bread you may look". Examinant then put his hand under her cloak, felt the point of a loaf of sugar as he supposed and said here is the sugar. She then threw the sugar and a loaf of bread on the ground saying "here is your goods, here is your sugar and we will pay for them", and fell on her knees and begged that they might be permitted to go home to their children that there was nobody with them and that that they had no meal. That examinant brought the said Anne Evans to the said John Williams while he went to get some assistance the said John Williams not being able to get the other woman off the ground to take her to Welshpool. That examinant went and got three persons to assist to bring the women to Welshpool they showing great reluctance to come. That one of the persons who came to their assistance asked the said Anne Evans how she came to steal the sugar she said she did not steal them. Examinant then asked her how she came by them who said she had it from the other woman. How came the other woman by them. Examinant said Anne Evans said she did not know. Examinant asked if she bought them. Anne Evans said "no". Do you think she found them said examinant. "No" said Anne Evans. "The certainly she must have stolen them". "Well ay" Anne Evans said. Examinant said you must have been as bad as the other woman. Anne Evans then fell on her knees and begged for pardon and said if he would only let her go home they should never see the colour of her again in Welshpool. That they both frequently begged for pardon and said that they never do the like again if they should be permitted to go home. That he verily believes the two loaves of sugar now produced are the same as delivered to him by the said John Williams and that they are the property of the said proprietors Jones and Griffiths as corresponding with the weight and numbers of two that are missing from the chest above mentioned. Stansall Williams*.

The examination of John Williams. Says that finding from the said Mr Griffiths and Stansall Williams that two loaves of sugar were supposed to have been stolen out of his master's shop yesterday evening he endeavoured to recollect who had been in it during the time they must have been lost as the said Stansall Williams who had the care of the sugars to unpack out of a chest was not from it for any long time. That he remembered seeing Jane Lloyd and another woman whom he believes to be Anne Evans in the shop during the time the said Stansall Williams was serving a customer, which was at the farthest end of the shop and the sugar was at the end near the door where the said women were. That there were many people in the shop it being market day. That knowing the said Jane Lloyd to be woman of bad character he immediately suspected her and informed Mr Griffiths of his suspicions. That Jane Lloyd purchased a comb which examinant served her with and reaching her hand over the counter pointed to a knife which she wanted to look at. That the loaves of sugar in question and several others were on the counter just before the said Jane Lloyd. That examinant turned his back to the counter to get the knife during which time he supposes the two loaves were taken. That while examinant was endeavouring to reach the knife down Jane Lloyd said never mind now I do not want it now I will call another time. That the other woman bought some knitting needle which Evan Bunner, the other porter, served her with. That having, by Mr Griffiths desire, looked into the different shops in the town to try if he could see the said Jane Lloyd without effect he and Stansall Williams went after her the way he supposed she would go knowing where she lived. That they overtook two women and while Stansall Williams was talking to one of them examinant took hold of Jane Lloyd and putting his hand on her back where he felt as he supposed the sugar he asked her what did she take out of the corner shop, when she said "Me take out of the corner shop? I have not been there yet" said she. "Don't you recollect buying a comb of me?" She then fell on her knees and said here are the goods for God's sake let us go. "Why did you take them from the corner shop?" said he. "Because the devil was too strong for me" she said. This was in Welsh. That both of them frequently said while Stansall Williams was absent in Welsh that if they should be forgiven they would never do so any more. That the two loaves of sugar were in examinant's possession from the time they were taken from the women till he came into Mr Jones's kitchen and when they were laid on the dresser. John Williams*.

Examination of Evan Bunner. Says that yesterday morning he weighed a chest of sugar by Mr Griffiths' desire which was 1cwt-0 qtr-24lbs including the chest. That he also weighed the chest with the sugar in it this morning excepting the two loaves now produces when it was 13lbs short of the above weight. That adding the said two loaves to the others he found by again weighing that they were exactly the original weight. Evan Bynner*.

Examination-theft. [1810H15]

31 October 1809. The examination of Edward Bach of Newtown, mercer, taken before Edward Lewis. Says that this present day the prisoner came into his shop and wished to look at some boy's hats. That examinant showed her two, one at 2s 6d and the other at 2s 3d. pieces that during the time the prisoner was looking at the hats examinant observed a hat screw concealed under her cloak, upon which he took it off her and desired her to leave the shop which she did. That immediately after the prisoner left the shop he missed the half a crown hat and suspecting that the prisoner had taken it he followed her and overtook her upon the street about thirty yards from his shop door, when he accused her of having taken a hat which she denied but which he found upon searching her concealed under safeguard and which hat is his this examinant's property, and which he immediately delivered to William Powell. Edward Bach*.

Examination of William Powell of Newtown, skinner, who says that the hat which he now produces is the hat which Mr Edward Bach took from the prisoner in his this examinant's presence about half an hour ago. William Powell*.

Certificate-rogue and vagabond. [1810E28]

13 April 1810. To the constable of Montgomery and all constables whom it may concern and to the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of pa. Harris in co. Sussex or either of them to receive and obey.

Whereas Anne Hermor was apprehended in pa. Montgomery as a rogue and vagabond and is duly convicted before me, Maurice Edward Lloyd, that she did on 6 April instant wander and beg in the said township and upon examination taken before me, which is hereunto annexed, it appears that his last legal settlement is in pa. Harris, co. Sussex. These are therefore for you to convey Anne Hermor to the town of Bishops Castle in co. Salop being the first town through which he ought to pass in the direct way to Ham and to deliver him to the constable or other officer together with this pass. He is thence to be delivered in like manner to Harris who are to provide for him according to law. And I certify that she has been actually confined in the house of correction at Montgomery for seven days.

Order-removal. [1810E29]

At the G.Q.S. on 11 January 1810. In Cemaes, appellants, and Penegoes, respondents, touching the removal of David Hugh and family, that the hearing be adjourned to the next G.Q.S. Richard Evans swore to the service. On the reverse: 2 April 1810. Delivered a true copy to John Hughes overseer of pa. Penegoes and to Thomas Morgan, churchwarden. Richard Evans*.

Examination-rogue and vagabond. [1810E30]

6 April 1810. Examination of Moses Mott a rogue and vagabond before M.E. Lloyd, J.P.

That he was born in pa. South Manling in co. Sussex as he believes and has his friends say. That he was never hired for a year to any person and that when he was about age fourteen or fifteen he entered into the Sussex Militia and served upwards of five years and then volunteered into the sixth regiment of Artillery and served therein upwards of eight years and was discharged therefrom in 1807 when he hired himself to as a weekly servant to Mr Roberts a surgeon at Portsmouth and served him upwards of a year but did not live in his home. And then, which is about twelve months ago he married his present wife Caroline at Portsmouth and they took a small lodging at Brighton and continued there about eight or nine weeks and then took a house at Worthing at the annual rent of seventy guineas but occupied it only three or four weeks, since which time he has been at Seaforth, Bath and other places but done no act whereby he could gain a settlement. That the two children, Diana and Sophia, that are now with him are his daughters by a former wife. One was born at Woolwich, the other at Portsmouth during the time he was in the Artillery. Moses Mott*.

Examination-rogue and vagabond. [1810E31]

6 April 1810. Examination of Ann Hermor a rogue and vagabond before M.E. Lloyd, J.P.

That she was born at Gibraltar and that her parents died in England before she came over and she knows nothing of their settlement. That she has never been hired for a year nor done any act whereby she could gain a settlement in her own right. That about fourteen years ago she was married in the parish church of Harris near Lewis in co. Sussex to her late husband William Hesmor who enlisted into the 62nd regiment of foot the day before their marriage at which time he was living with Mr Knight of Harris as a hired servant in husbandry and examinant further says that she lived with her husband only about six weeks during which time she heard him say that his settlement was in pa. Harris and that they never did any act whereby they could gain a settlement after their marriage. The mark of Ann Hermor.

Report-gaol. [1810T30]

12 July 1810.

1. The justices have resolved that the courts and apartments of the present prison are sufficient for county purposes except the outer wall of the prison which wants some repair and to be raised two feet.
2. The ceiling laths and boards over the male felons bath is very much decayed and that any prisoner may break through and there is nothing but slates afterwards to stop them from making their escape.
The defects of the walls I have reported to the visiting magistrate who has ordered it to be remedied and which will be done as expeditious as the scarcity of workmen will admit.
John Davies*, gaoler.

Order-removal. [1810M3]

31 August 1810. Whereas complaint has been made to us, J.P.s, one of us of the quorum, by pa. Churchstoke that Mary Williams and Elizabeth aged eleven, Richard eight, William four, James and Charles aged two, her children, have come to inhabit their said parish not having gained any legal settlement there. We, upon examination of Mary Williams do adjudge the complaint to be true. We also adjudge the last place of legal settlement of the said Mary Williams and family is in pa. Mainstone. Order to remove and to receive. John Davies, A.D. Owen. On the reverse: Delivered this duplicate to Mr Phillips overseer of pa. Mainstone 1 September 1810.

Order. That the hearing of this appeal be adjourned to the next G.Q.S. [1810M/SO/3/629]

Order. By the consent of the parties the further hearing be adjourned to the next G.Q.S. and that on the further hearing Mainstone shall admit that the said Thomas Williams, the late husband of the said Mary Williams, gained a legal settlement in pa. Mainstone by a hiring and service for a year therein with Charles Dyke, deceased. And that the parties their counsel and solicitors be allowed to give evidence only on the question of whether the said Thomas Williams afterwards gained a legal settlement in pa. Hopton co. Salop or not by a hiring and service for a year with Richard Roberts. And in case the said court shall be of opinion that the said Thomas Williams did so gain a settlement there that then the order of removal will be reversed, but if otherwise then that the order be confirmed. And that also on the further hearing the parties be allowed only to examine Mary Williams, John Williams, William Beaumont, Richard Roberts, John Nicholls, James Williams and Benjamin Williams being the same witnesses who are respectively produced and examined by the said parties on the hearing this day. Letter-lunatic criminals. [1811H21]

16 January 1811. J.D. Johnson, Montgomery, Physician in Shrewsbury and Keeper of a House licensed for the reception of lunatics near that town, to clerk of the peace?

Sir, I will receive the two criminal lunatics in the county gaol for one guinea and a half entrance and 17s per week (quarterly in advance) for board, lodging, care attendance etc. I think with submission to the opinion of magistrates that I should be allowed 4s more per week for Bywater who has an annuity of £30 per annum, in consideration of the great care that must be taken of him. If the magistrates would appoint me to receive and care their pauper lunatics I would take them for 15s per week (quarterly in advance) and find lodging, care, maintenance and medicines and by their being immediately placed under my care many persons might be restored who would otherwise be burdensome to their respective parishes for life. After you apprehend this before the magistrates you will be pleased to forward their answer. I have the honour to be your obedient service.

Order-verdict and sentence. [1811H22, 24]

At the G.Q.S. by adjournment at the Oak Inn in the town of Welshpool on 24 October 1809. King on the prosecution of James Harris against William Evans for larceny. That the prisoner be conveyed to the common gaol and there to remain until the next G.Q.S. unless he shall in the meantime consent to serve in his Majesty's Marines and shall be approved accepted and taken into such service. That upon his being taken into the service he shall be immediately discharged from prison.

Order. It appearing to this court that he has consented to serve but he was not approved of and the justices having considered his long confinement a sufficient punishment for the said offence it is ordered that he be discharged from prison. [1811H/SP/3/642]

Motion-bridge. [1811H23]

The inhabitants of pa. Llangurig were some time ago presented for not repairing the bridge over the river Wye. A fine was imposed and part raised. The treasurer has purchased timber and other materials and preparing to build a new bridge, intended to begin early in the spring. Please move to respite issues to next G.Q.S. T.E. Marsh, for the inhabitants.

Commitment-gaol. [1811H24]

5 September 1809. To the keeper of the gaol and to sergeants at mace and petty constables.

To command you to convey and deliver into the custody of the said keeper the body of William Evans of pa. Guilsfield, labourer, charged on the oath of Richard Goolding of Welshpool, boatbuilder, with the felonious taking of five copper plates or indexes, property of James Harris which he has confessed on his examination and the keeper to safely keep him until he be thence delivered by course of law. William Owen, Thomas Morgan. At the foot: Please let the said William Evans have the daily allowance, William Owen.

Order-road. [1811H25]

3 April 1806. We whose names are subscribed being J.P.s have viewed a certain part of a highway in tp. Cil in hd. Newtown between the Pinfold and Pen-y-bank for the length of 638 yards and made an order for diverting the same and being satisfied that the new highway through the lands of Arthur Davies Owen, esq. and Evan Jones, clerk, of the length of 242 yards is properly made and fit for the reception of travellers do hereby order that the old highway be stopped up and the land and soil thereof to be sold by the said surveyor to Arthur Davies Owen whose lands adjoined therewith if he should be willing to purchase the same for the full value thereof if not to some other person or persons for the full value reserving nevertheless to the occupation of a certain messuage and lands in tp. Ffridd called Burdir and also the occupier of another messuage called Samwells in tp. Cil a free passage for persons horses carts and carriages through the land and soil of the sad old highway to and from the land belonging to them adjoining the said old highway according to the ancient usage thereof.

being of the length of 672 yards and of the breadth of 30 feet upon a medium as appears by John Williams. Edward Lewis.

Instructions for an indictment. [1811H26]

Indictment against Mary Howell of pa. Forden, single woman, for feloniously taking ~~one sheep skin of the value of 12d~~, one wooden costrel, value 12, one man's cotton nightcap value 12d, two pieces of cloth value 12d, two quarts of ale value 12d, one lb of ham value 12, one lb of bacon value 12d, one partridge value 12d, two cakes of chocolate value 12d, two ounces of tea value 12d, four ounces of sugar value 3d, and two candles value 2d, property of Richard Pryce, esq. Examination-rogue and vagabond, and conviction. [1811H27]

8 January 1811, at Machynlleth. William Pughe brings before me, John Edwards, J.P., committed the body of Robert Jones and gives me to understand that on 7 January instant at pa. Darowen he, William Pughe, apprehended the said Robert Jones having run away and left his wife and children whereby they are become chargeable to pa. Darowen, and prays me to deal with the said Robert Jones according to law for his offence. When asked if he had anything to say for himself Robert Jones pleads not guilty whereupon I now proceed to examine into the truth of the complaint. William Pughe and Hugh Evans, overseer of pa. Darowen, two credible witnesses, deposed that the said Robert Jones upwards of eighteen months ago did run away and leave his wife and children chargeable as above. The said Robert Jones does not produce any evidence to gainsay the same and it appears to me that he is guilty of the said offence, and is thereby a rogue and vagabond within the true meaning of the statute. I order him to be sent to the house of correction and there to remain until next G.Q.S.

Order. The court does adjudge him to be a rogue and vagabond. Ordered to be kept at the house of correction at hard labour for six months unless he in the meantime reimburse the churchwardens and overseers of pa. Darowen the money advanced for the support and maintenance of his wife and children and that he will henceforth support them according to his ability. [1811H/SP/3/642]

Examination-rogue and vagabond, and conviction. [1811H30]

7 November 1810. To the constable of Montgomery and all constables whom it may concern and to the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of pa. Ince in pa. Chester or either of them to receive and obey. Whereas John Evans was apprehended in tp. Munlyn as a rogue and vagabond and is duly convicted before me, Maurice Edward Lloyd, that she did on 30 October instant wander and beg in the said township and upon examination taken before me, which is hereunto annexed, it appears that his last legal settlement is in pa. Ince, co. Cheshire. These are therefore for you to convey John Evans to the town of Llanymynech in co. Salop being the first town through which he ought to pass in the direct way to Ince and to deliver him to the constable or other officer together with this pass. He is thence to be delivered in like manner to Ince who are to provide for him according to law. And I certify that she has been actually confined in the house of correction at Montgomery for seven days.

31 October 1810. Examination of John Evans, rogue and vagabond, taken before M.E. Lloyd. Says that he was born in pa. Gresford in co. Denbigh or Flint. That he was about 30 years old and when he was age sixteen he hired himself to one John Jackson of pa. Ince, co. Chester for a year and received his year's wages and soon after he went to sea in the Hopewell travelling to Liverpool and continued at sea until about seven years ago when he was wounded and soon afterwards returned on shore and married his present wife Susannah at Mold in Flintshire and has since gained his livelihood by selling cutlery and things of that sort about the country but has done no act whereby he could gain a settlement since he left the service of Mr Jackson. The mark of John Evans.

Order. The order be read and filed. [1811H/SP/3/643]

Order-removal. [1811H31]

24 October 1810. To the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of middle division, pa. Welshpool and to the churchwardens and overseers of pa. Llanfair. Whereas complaint has been made to us, J.P.s, one of us of the quorum, by pa. the said middle division that Margaret Davies, single woman, has come to inhabit their said parish not having gained any legal settlement there and become chargeable to the said parish, we, upon examination of Margaret Davies do adjudge the complaint to be true. We also adjudge the last place of legal settlement of the said Margaret Davies is in pa. Llanfair. Order to remove and to receive. William Owen, Thomas Morgan.

Order. That the hearing and determining of the appeal be adjourned to the next G.Q.S.

Recognizance-peace. [1811H32]

10 December 1810. John Davies of the town of Newtown, shoemaker, and John Williams of the same, shopkeeper, each in £5. For safety.

1. Aaron Bywater aged 49. Tried on an indictment for murder but acquitted on the ground of insanity ordered to be detained in strict custody, at spring assize 1799.

Report-gaol. [1811H41]

The report of me, John Davies, gaoler at the G.Q.S. on 17 January 1811.

1. The justices have resolved that the courts and apartments of the present prison are sufficient for county purposes except the outer wall of the prison which wants some repair and to be raised two feet.
2. There is a great scarcity of water for want of the reservoir being made larger for often in the winter we are obliged to carry water from without and half the water that is used in the summer season we carry from different parts of the town

2. The ceiling laths and boards over the male felons bath is very much out of repair and boards rotted and that any prisoner may easily get through and make their escape through the slates above.

The defects of the walls I have reported to the visiting magistrate who has ordered it to be remedied and which will be done as expeditious as the scarcity of workmen will admit.

John Davies*, gaoler.

Motion-bridge. [1811E17]

King v. hds. Welshpool and Llanfyllin (except the town and borough of Llanfyllin) and pa. Llangyniew for not repairing New bridge over river Caereinion. The bridge was presented at Easter Q.S. 1809 and a fine imposed of £100. Order at Midsummer Q.S. to raise £60 but this was a mistake as hd. Llanfyllin and pa. Llangyniew are not inserted in the order [in the margin: these places are not mentioned in the presentment] and the treasurer, Richard Pugh, only on that account received £30 instead of £60 – I think the £30 came from hd. Welshpool. You'll be pleased then to move that original order may extend to hd. Llanfyllin and pa. Llangyniew and that an order to that effect may be accordingly made, the bridge being still out of repair and the treasurer being called upon to pay various demands you'll be pleased to move for an order for the £40 remainder.

Pontnewydd on river Mechain

Presented Epiphany Q.S. 1810 & a fine imposed of £60. Order made to raise £40. To move that the remainder of this fine be also raised. Mr Pugh, treasurer, will be in court to answer any questions which they may think proper to put to him.

Recognizance-assault. [1811E18]

23 April 1811. John Elias of pa. Cemaes, shoemaker, in £20; John Jones of the same, farmer, in £10. Taken before Robert Davies for the said John Elias to appear at the next G.Q.S. to plead, quash or submit to an indictment preferred against him at the last G.Q.S. for an assault on Catherine, wife of Francis Pinney, merchant.

Recognizance-assault. [1811E19]

23 April 1811. John Jones of pa. Cemaes, farmer, in £20; Hugh Richard of the same, farmer, in £10. Taken before Robert Davies for Margaret wife of the said John Jones to appear at the next G.Q.S. to plead, quash or submit to an indictment preferred against him at the last G.Q.S. for an assault on Jane Lewis.

Appeal-removal. [1811E20]

Upon an appeal of pa. Mainstone, pa. Salop against an order of 31 August last past signed by John Davies and A.D. Owen, J.P.s, for the removal of Mary Williams, widow, and Elizabeth, Richard, William, James and Charles her children by Thomas Williams, deceased from pa. Churchstoke to pa. Mainstone as the place of their last legal settlement it appears to this court that the said Thomas Williams gained a legal settlement by a hiring and service for a year in pa. Mainstone. That he afterwards, on the first Friday after Mayday about 26 years ago, when unmarried and not having a child was legally hired to Richard Roberts of pa. Hopton, co. Salop, to serve him for one year in husbandry from that day. That the said Thomas Williams entered into the said service accordingly and was seen there at different times in the course of the year, to wit, in the corn harvest, in January and the last time on the second or third day after Easter Monday. The appellants produced the said Richard Roberts as a witness and he swore that he had no recollection as to the precise duration of the said Thomas Williams' service with him and that he could not at this distance of time say when it was or was not for the whole of the year. It also appeared that the said Robert Roberts was married to his present wife before and during the said service and that she was able to attend this court but was not produced. That the said Richard Roberts had two other menservants during the former part of the said service. That those servants left his service in the spring and whilst the said Thomas Williams remained therein. But no evidence is given whether the said two menservants were succeeded in the said service by any other nor were there any persons produce who might have given evidence as to the remainder of the service ... persons or not. It was intended on the part of the appellants that the court may and ought to presume and infer from the facts of the yearly hiring and also from the actual service proved to have been done under it. That the years service was complicated.

Certificate-sacrament. [1811E21]

We the minister and churchwardens of the parish church of Montgomery hereby certify that John Williams Strickles on Sunday 14 April 1811, did receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper immediately after divine service and sermon according to the usage of the Church of England. Examination-theft. [1812T2]

6 June 1812. The information and complaint of Thomas Jones the younger of Welshpool, clothier, taken before George Gould and Edward Pugh, esq., J.P.s of the borough. Says that yesterday afternoon being Fair Day and several people in his and his father's shop two women were by the counter on the same side of the shop informant was and who were looking at a piece of calico. Informant asked one of them is now present and who says her name is Jane wife of David Richard of pa. Llanfair, weaver, what she wanted who said she wanted something directly as well as he can recollect and seemed a little confused at the time. Informant spoke to her, gave him a suspicion of her then went to the other woman and during the time he was serving her he perceived the said Jane Richard give a kind of shuffle which in his mind confirmed him of his opinion that she had stole something. That having served the first woman he returned to the said Jane Richard and having served her with a remnant of calico which came to two pence she paid him and went out of the shop. Informant went after her and asked her if she had not got something that belonged to him who said she had not. He then told her to go down the yard with him and took a person who attends the shop on fair days for the sole purpose of watching the same along with him. That they all went down the yard into informant's father's kitchen and having searched her they found a piece of printed cotton that dropped from under some part of her clothes. That when informant asked her how she came to take it she said she had it not in her pocket but after having been further interrogated by informant said it was the first she ever did, and went on her knees saying God bless you leave me go. Thomas Jones*.

Examination-road. [1812T35]

King on the prosecution of M.E. Lloyd against the inhabitants of tps. Churchstoke, Hurdley, Hyssington and Snead for not repairing Churchstoke bridge.

Thomas Southall of tp. Churchstoke, grocer, surveyor of highways in the said township, Thomas Smith of tp. Hurdley, gent, surveyor of highways in the said township, Michael Hotchkiss of tp. Snead, yeoman, constable of the highways in the said township being three of the defendants and Edmund Edye of Montgomery, their solicitor severally make oath and each speaking for himself say that since the last G.Q.S. and not before they have been informed and do believe that they are not liable by law to maintain or repair of Churchstoke bridge and are advised and do believe that they have good legal grounds for traverse the said presentment. The said Edmynd Eye says that he was retained and employed on part of the defendants in the defence of the prosecution since the last Q.S. And that he has thereupon examined into and believes he has ascertained and informed himself of the facts respecting the repair of the said bridge, and that the said defendants are not liable, and have a good defence in law. Thomas Smith*, Thomas Southall*, Michale Hotchkiss*, Edmund Edye*.

At the foot: Order to withdraw the plea of guilty and that the presentment may be quashed by the consent of the prosecutor.

Examination-road. [1812T36]

King on the prosecution of M.E. Lloyd against the inhabitants of tps. Churchstoke, Hurdley, Hyssington and Snead for not repairing Churchstoke bridge.

Thomas Smith of tp. Hurdley, gent, Edward Smith of tp. Churchstoke, gent, and Francis Allen of the town of Montgomery, gent, severally make oath and say, the said Thomas Smith for himself that he is one of the defendants in this prosecution and being informed by Maurice Jones, esq., of tp. Hurdley and Thomas Southall of tp. Churchstoke and thereupon believing that he and the other defendants were liable for the repair of Churchstoke bridge for the non-repair of which they were presented at the last Easter Q.S. did at the said session employ the said Francis Allen to take the proper steps for obtaining the necessary power from this court for repairing the said. And that he, this deponent spoke to and prevailed upon his brother Edward Smith, another of the defendants who happened to be then in the town of Montgomery to attend the court with him this deponent and enter onto the usual recognizance in order thereto. And that they both attended there and entered into recognizance accordingly. And this deponent further says that he does not know or believe that any other of the said defendants were or consulted on or informed of the said proceedings or that the said presentment had been made until after the said proceedings had taken place. And the said Edward Smith says for himself that he also is one of the defendants and that he attended and entered into recognizance at the last Q.S. as above deposed to by his brother and at his brother's request and without having consulted ... the other defendants thereon and having been acquainted with the ... or ... of any of them respecting the same ... was then informed by his said brother. And both these deponents severally further say that there are and ... before the time of the last Q.S. there were in the said tps. of Churchstoke, Hurdley, Hyssington and Snead a considerable number of inhabitants besides and more in number than these deponents and the said Maurice Jones Thomas Southall and that the inhabitants then were and yet are occupiers of lands in the said townships to a much greater amount in value than what are respectively occupied therein by these deponents and the said Maurice John and Thomas Southal. And these two deponents further say that in doing as above deposed they were activated by a desire to have the said bridge repaired as speedily as possible and to lessen the expense of such repairs and of defending this prosecution. And the said Francis Allen for himself says that he being employed by the said Thomas Smith as above deposed to and understanding that the said defendants were liable to the repairs of the said bridge and not apprehending there was any doubt about the same he, as attorney for the said defendants did cause an appearance and a plea of guilty to the said presentment to be entered for the said Defendants by the clerk of the peace in the minute book of the proceedings of this court, but that he was employed or authorised by no other of the said defendants than the said Thomas Smith so to do. Thomas Smith*, Edward Smith*, Francis Allen*.

Presentments-roads. [1812T37]

A certain public highway in tp. Llwydiarth beginning at Pontbrenycie proceeding from thence by a certain house called Efail Llwydiarth and ending where the said township adjoins tp. Fachwen at or near a place called Nant Cynant, containing in length 2300 yards and in breadth 6 yards.

Examination-theft. [1812T38]

5 June 1812. Examination of Richard Pugh the younger of Bryn-y-groes in pa. Meifod, farmer, taken before Edward Pugh. Says that this afternoon being in the shop of Messrs Jones & Son in Welshpool he heard one of the daughters of Mr Jones tell her mother that there was a woman that stole something out of his shop. "There she is". "Who is she", her father said. The daughter then pointed her out to her father. The woman soon afterwards went out of the shop and Mr Jones followed her, laid hold of her, took her into the kitchen but before he got there she dropped a piece of cheque [sic] from under her cloak and her cloak at the same time that when they took her into the kitchen she said God knows I took nothing. But examinant is confident it dropped from under her cloak who then threw her cloak over it, and is sure the woman present who says her name is Margaret the wife of John Clark of pa. Castle Caereinion, labourer, is the same who dropped the said piece of cheque. Richard Pugh*. At the foot: Recognizance taken same time £20.

Examination-theft. [1812T39]

5 June 1812. The information and complaint of Mary daughter of Thomas Jones of Welshpool taken before Edward Pugh, J.P. for the borough of Welshpool. Says that this afternoon serving some customers in her father and brother's shop she perceived a woman whose name she now understands is Margaret Clark with a piece of cheque the end of which was hanging out under her cloak who then perceiving examinant look at her looked at the cheque and tucked it under her cloak. That almost immediately afterward a person came and informed examinant that little woman pointing to the said Margaret Clark has taken a piece of cheque. Examinant then went and informed her father who directly came from another part of the shop and followed and caught hold of the said Margaret Clark who by that time was gone out of the shop. Mary Jones*.

Examination of Humphrey Thomas, one of the sergeants at mace for the borough of Welshpool taken before Edward Pugh. Says that he saw that the said Margaret Clarke, having been taken to the office of Mr Morgan in Welshpool on suspicion of stealing the piece of cheque as aforesaid mentioned he perceived when she was standing by the window in an adjoining room to the said Mr Morgan he being then engaged that she had something in her apron and said "I dare say Mistress that what you have in your apron is stole as well as the cheque", who then said "No, what I have in my apron is bought". That she then went and sat down on the stairs in the same room and pulled a piece of linsey out of her apron and attempting to pull something from one end of it. Examinant went to see what was the matter who then took the linsey from her and asked Mr Thomas Jones who was then coming into the room to look at it and who took the linsey and he presently saw the said Thomas Jones take up from the ground something which he saw was the mark and who saw this ours meaning the linsey. Humphrey Thomas*.

Examination of Thomas Jones the younger before Edward Pugh. Says that the piece of cheque and piece of linsey as aforementioned is the property of this examinant and his father. Thomas Jones*.

Examination of Jane wife of Philip Bowdler of Llandrinio, labourer, taken before Edward Pugh. Says that being in Messrs Jones shop this afternoon she perceived a woman who is now present who was in the said shop draw a piece of cheque from off the counter in the said shop and put it under her cloak. That examinant shook her head at her and went out and informed one of Mr Jones' daughters of the circumstance. The mark of Jane Bowdler. At the foot: Recognizance to appear £10.

Report-gaol. [1812M31]

The report of me, John Davies, keeper of the gaol at the G.Q.S. on 8 October 1812.

1st. The justices have resolved that the courts and apartments of the present prison are sufficient for the purposes of the county except the outer wall of the prison which wants some repairs and to be raised two feet 2nd. There is a great scarcity of water for want of the reservoirs being made larger. As often in the winter we are obliged to carry water from without and half the water that is used in the summer season we carry from different parts of the town.

3rd. The planking of the cells in the male and female's apartments are entirely decayed, and if not repaired soon part of them will fall in.

The defects of the walls I have reported to the visiting magistrate who has ordered it to be remedied. And which will be done as expeditiously as possible, as the workmen are now at work.

Order. That the clerk of the peace do forthwith write to Joseph Bromfield of the town of Shrewsbury, architect, requesting him to view the state and condition of the gaol of the county and to make his report to the J.P.s at their next G.Q.S. and that the presentment of the grand jury at the August Great Session of the insufficiency for the safe custody of the prisoners in the said gaol and also the report of John Davies, gaoler, filed this day be set forth in the report of the said Joseph Bromfield. [1812M/SO/3/713]

Commitment-rogue and vagabond. [1812M32] [damaged]

5 October 1812. To the constable of pa. Kerry and to the keeper of the house of correction.

Whereas William Smith was this day duly convicted before me, George A. Herbert, esq., J.P. of being a rogue and vagabond for that he on 4 October instant in pa. Kerry did go about from door to door to beg and gather alms he was committed to the house of correction there to be kept until he shall be delivered by due course of law. Theses are therefore for you the said constable to carry the said William Smith to the house of correction and deliver him to the keeper thereof together with this writ., and we command you the keeper to receive him and there keep him safely until the next G.Q.S. and you to have him there.

Order. The court on examination of the circumstances of William Smith who is now here brought into court order him to be discharged therefrom. [1812M/SO/3/717]

Examination-theft. [1813H13]

26 December 1812. Examination of Shadrach Lloyd, corporal in the Montgomeryshire Militia, taken before Edward Jones and Richard Griffiths. Says that he is quartered at the Oak Inn in Welshpool where he is recruiting. That on Thursday afternoon last he went by the desire of Mrs Colley of the Oak Inn to the Ceunant a farm of the said Mrs Colley where he met with Robert Davies. That they both went to a stack of hay in a field a short distance from the house for the purpose of endeavouring to detect some person or persons who examinant understood had the previous night killed a goose and a gander at the Ceunant aforesaid, the property of the said Mrs Colley which geese the said Robert Davies told examinant had been concealed (after having been killed) in a bag and put under the aforesaid stack. That in going to the stack they met William Owen of Welshpool, shoemaker, whom they passed. That examinant and Robert Davies then went beyond the stack a little way, then returned and placed the said bag under the stack where the said

Robert Davies informed examinant he had found it that morning with the two geese. They were coming away when they perceived the said William Owen coming quite close to the rails surrounding the stack. That when the said William Owen saw examinant he stood still. That the said Robert Davies then caught hold of him. They then brought him to town where they took off his shoes for the purpose of comparing them with the prints or marks they had made in the snow by which means the said Robert Davies told him he had so traced a person that morning from Mrs Colley's farm at the Ceunant. That the shoes exactly correspond with the prints or marks made in the snow by them. The mark of Shadrach Lloyd.

Examinations-theft. [1813H18, 19, 31]

26 December 1812. Examinations of Robert Davies of Welshpool, labourer, Shadrach Lloyd, sergeant in the Royal Montgomery Militia, Richard Ryder, Humphrey Thomas and Evan Thomas taken before Edward Jones and Richard Griffiths, J.P.s of the borough of Welshpool.

Robert Davies says that he is a workman to Mrs Colley of the Oak Inn and has resided for nearly the last seven years upon a farm which she occupies under Lord Powis. That on the night of Wednesday 23 December he saw three geese belonging to Mrs Colley in the kit near the stable door, where they generally slept during the night. That it was about 8 or 9 o'clock at night ... time when they were in the kit. That in the morning when he and his wife were at breakfast he heard one of the geese make a noise and upon going out he discovered only one goose. That he suspected the others must have been stolen and upon going to the kit he saw the marks of a person's foot in the snow which he traced from the kit over the mixen near the stable to the meadow adjoining the house and from thence to the turnpike road, along the turnpike road for about 100 yards and then again into the meadow to an oak tree where examinant supposes the geese must have been killed from the quantity of blood which lay there. That from the oak tree he traced the same steps back again to the turnpike road and across the road to another field upon the other side and along the foot road in that field to another field leading towards the town where a bag appeared to have been put down and there two or three drops of blood upon the snow. That examinant traced the same steps all the way to Mr Clark, the hatter's field and from there over a gate to the hay stack. That upon searching the stack he found two geese in a bag under some hay. That these were the geese which belonged to Mrs Colley and which examinant suspected to have been stolen. That one of them is marked but witness having been in the habit of seeing them nearly twenty-five times a day, positively swears that the geese he found in the bag are the property of his mistress, Mrs Collwy. That the footsteps were very easily traced, the shoe on the right foot having in the heel a row of large nails of a similar size inside the row and the back part of the heel, and a single nail in the front part of the heel. That there was a single row of nails all round the other part of the shoe of smaller size and some four nails on the inside of the other row of nails near the toe. That the shoe on the left foot was marked as follows –the heel of that shoe had similar nails all around as the right (except there were only three nails in the inside and not five as in the right foot) and also one nail in the front part of the heel. The other part of the shoe was of the same description as the right is described. That when witness had then found the bag with the geese he sent his lad with the bag and the geese to the farmhouse and easily traced the same steps nearly to the Churchyard of Welshpool, but there lost them. That having informed his mistress of what had taken place he was advised and directed by her to place the bag and geese in the same place where he had found them. That accordingly he (accompanied by Shadrach Lloyd) went about 5 o'clock with the bag and geese and just as he was going over the gate into the field where the stack was he heard some ... as if running towards them and shortly met William Owen coming over the stile on the footpath. That he passed them and went on. That witness and his companion also went over the stile in order that no one might suspect their intentions, but as soon as they thought Owen out of sight they returned back, and witness place the bag with the geese in the same place where they had been found and taken from there. That he had secretly had put them down and gone around the stack before they discovered Owen (who had come near the hedge) and was coming very fast towards the haystack. That witness not having time to retire he lay himself down under the stack and Owen having come to the rails which surrounded the stack, witness having every reason to believe that Owen had seen them, immediately went up and secured him. That there was no footpath from the hedge where Owen came over to the haystack or near it. That witness in the course of the day examined the footsteps, proceeding from the hedge towards the stack and they corresponded with those which he had so traced as aforesaid. That witness, with two others took the shoes from off the prisoner and compared them with the footsteps he had so traced and that the shoes and footsteps entirely correspond with each other. The mark of Robert Davies.

The said Richard Ryder* assisted in comparing the shoes and the steps. Also Humphrey Thomas* and Evan Thomas*.

Order-shipping loss. [1814H59]

Whereas complaint has been made before us, two J.P.s, at the G.Q.S. held by adjournment at the Eagles Inn in the town of Machynlleth by Maurice Lewis, Rowland Lewis, Robert Rees and Maurice Rogers, merchants and shopkeepers of Machynlleth in the presence of Mr Colebatch, collector, and David Evans and John Owen, officers of excise, and also in the presence of Thomas Jones, master of a sloop called the Leeck belonging to the port of Cardigan stating that they, the said Maurice Lewis, Rowland Lewis, Robert Rees and Maurice Rogers had on board the said sloop in the month of October last 424 bushels of salt which was shipped at the port of Liverpool and on its passage coastways to the port of Aberdyfi was damaged by leakage of the sloop in stress of weather. That 144 bushels thereof was wholly unfit for use. which complaint has been vlearly and satisfactorily proved to us by the oath of the said Thomas Jones, and Vaughan Evans, yeoman, and also on the testimony of John Owen, officer of excise who saw the salt destroyed, whereupon they the said Maurice Lewis, Rowland Lewis, Robert Rees and Maurice Rogers allege that they ought to have repaired and allowed them the duty on the said 144 bushels salt so damaged and of no use amounting to the sum of £108 and we do in pursuance of the powers and authority invested in us by certain acts of parliament in that behalf made authorise and direct to Mr Colbatch, collector of Wales Middle collector of the collector for the time being to repay or allow to the said Maurice Lewis, Rowland Lewis, Robert Rees and Maurice Rogers the sum of £108 for which this is and shall be his authority.

Examination-settlement. [1814H60 and 58]

Pa. Llanfihangel Geneu'r Glyn, appellants, and pa. Llanidloes, respondents.

The appellants proved by the evidence of the paupers that nine days after he and his family had been removed by the order of two J.P.s from Llanidloes to Llanfihangel in the year 1800 they returned to Llanidloes and that in the next year he rented and occupied a tenement at £6 a year. That six or seven years after the collector of the taxes applied to him for 3s 6d land tax assess upon him as tenant for his own house and for two others belonging to the same landlord but occupied by other persons the value of each of which was nearly the same as his own. That pauper said he would pay his own share and objected to paying for the other houses and said that the collector ought to apply to the occupiers of them but the collector said that he had nobody else to look for it. That the collector showed him a paper which he the collector stated to be the assessment, wherein it was John Jones landlord and John Jones tenant. That pauper did not pay it. That the next collector of the land tax called upon him and told him that he was rated 3s 6d but did not show him the assessment. That he objected to it on the same grounds as before and did not pay at that time, but that the collector afterwards applied to him again and had with him a person whom he represented to be a bailiff and threatened to distrain. That pauper then paid it.

That since that time he was again called upon by a collector for 3s 6d upon another assessment. That he objected on the same grounds. That the collector told him he was assessed and threatened to distrain him but afterwards accepted 9d.

No land tax or assessment was produced nor any duplicate thereof nor did it appear that any notice or application was made or given by the appellants to the commissioners or assessors of the land tax at the office of the clerk of the peace or to any other person except to the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of the parish which were respondents.

It was objected that the assessment itself ought to have been produced to the sessions or at least proof of application to the proper persons who could have produced it.

It was also objected that it appeared that two of the three tenements for which the pauper was rated were not occupied by him and that he had no interest whatever in them.

Letter-Q.S.. [1814H64]

28 December 1813. Charles Watkin Williams Wynn, Wynnstay to clerk of the peace.

As the regular day for holding the Q.S. for Montgomeryshire is Thursday 13 January which has been fixed on also for the thanksgiving I wish to suggest to you the propriety of giving a public notice that the Q.S. will on that day be adjourned till the next day as has already been done by the clerk of the peace for the co. Flint. It is unnecessary to mention the great inconvenience which might arise if the Q.S. proceeded to business on the thanksgiving day and the very bad attendance which could be expected either of J.P.s or of other persons.

Motion-bridge. [1814H65]

£50 for Brynydderwen bridge; £50 for Newtown bridge. Directed to Thomas Sturkey, gent.

That the accounts of the treasurer of Berriew bridge be referred to a committee of John Williams, M.E.

Lloyd, Charles Wingfield and Devereux Mytton or any two of them.

Respite Faenor Isaf, Berriew, Glyntrefnant.

Letter-debtors [1814H66]

14 June 1814. Francis Allen to [clerk of the peace]

These are the insolvent debtors to take the benefit of Lord Ellenboro's Act at the adjournment of the present sessions. The act requires 21 days from the first notice and therefore the adjournment cannot be sooner than Monday, 7 February as the first notice will be given tomorrow in the Gazette. Perhaps Thursday 10 February will be a good day.

Letter-account, bridge. [1814H89]

13 January 1814. John Thomas, Vallenfawr to ?

Enclosed is David Griffiths bill for planks for Bontfawr bridge. The £6 is for repairing a bridge near Llanwddyn called Pont Dolwenith. I acquainted your father of the above planks. Besides the enclosed I want £18 17s 6d to pay for the making and carriage of the timber to Bontfawr bridge. I paid the timber merchant all the money I had which was £50. I owe him yet £4. I here give you a true account of all the money that is wanted. £41 2s 6d plus £18 17s 6d = £60. If you can put your hand on David Griffiths's book should be glad if you'll send it by the high constable. On the reverse: Issues increased and a further fine of £100. £50 each bridge.

Recognizance-road. [1814T1]

13 July 1814. John Jones of Pool Quay, farmer, and Thomas Jones of the town of Welshpool, gent, each in £10. Taken before Richard Mytton for the inhabitants of Tirymynech to appear by their attorney at the next G.Q.S. to plead to an indictment preferred against hem for not repairing a highway there.

Examinations-theft. [1814T2]

21 April 1814. The information and complaint of Thomas Foweraker, groom to Viscount Clive taken before Thomas Morgan and Edward Pugh. Says that on 24 October last being at Powis Castle he lost a great coat out of a closet adjoining his bedroom informant slept in a few weeks before that time at the Castle and he also lost about a fortnight before that time from Powis Castle a pair of drab breeches and a silk handkerchief. Upon missing his great coat he looked amongst his cloaks to see if he had lost anything else when he perceived there was a stable fustian jacket gone. That suspecting that Edward Owen of Welshpool, labourer, who had been assisting the coachman at Powis Castle for a few weeks at the time informant lost his great coat and jacket had taken and stolen away the same he went on Monday 11th instant with Humphrey Thomas, sergeant-at-mace to the corporation of Welshpool to the lodgings of the said Edward Owen in Welshpool and after searching some time the said Humphrey Thomas found a great coat between the lower sheet and the bed in which he slept, which is the same informant lost as aforesaid and which was at that time the property of the said Lord Clive. The said Edward Owen was at that time not in his lodgings but being sent for came and after being asked by informant how he came by the great coat said it was given him by John Everal, portillon at the castle. Informant saying he could not believe it the said Edward Owen he told him he told him one rainy night as he was going to Welshpool that he might take it and wear it. That informant perceiving him much in liquor told him he had better come up to him at the castle the next morning at half past seven – that as he did not go to the castle, informant with the said Humphrey Thomas went to the lodgings of the said Edward Owen in the afternoon who was not then there but presently came in and being asked why he did not go up to the castle as he was desired said he did not get up till eleven that morning. Being asked if he recollected what he had said about the great coat the night before said he did not. He did not recollect that he said that the boy told him to take it. That as it rained the said John Everal had said it was a pity he had not got a great coat. That he then went and took the great coat from off the bed in the room which the said Edward Owen slept which was the same room before mentioned by informant. Informant asked him if he had not taken the jacket which he denied, and upon being told by informant he should acquaint his lordship of the circumstance begged he would not. That on the 13th instant the said Edward Owen came up to the castle with sergeant Humphreys who acts as sergeant major to the local militia and confessed having taken away the said coat out of the cloth (in which it had been wrapped up) in the closet. Thomas Foweraker*.

Examination of Mary Thomas, housemaid at Powis Castle. Says that on the night of the day the said Thomas Foweraker said that he had lost his great coat examinant going to her box in her bedroom adjoining the one the said Edward Owen slept in she perceived a small box in which was a one pound bank bill and which small box was in the one above mentioned had been taken away. That about a week afterwards going to another small box which she also kept in the other one first mentioned and in which small box she kept ribbons she perceived a piece of ribbon about a yard in length and another piece about three yards had been stolen out of it. That from such circumstances she has reason to suspect and does suspect that the said Edward Owen stole and took away the said bill and pieces of ribbon. The mark of Mary Thomas.
Recognizance. Both the above to appear to give evidence at the Quarter or Great Sessions each in £10. Taken 22 April 1814.

12 January 1815. Richard Griffiths to the clerk of the peace.

In Henllan, co. Denbigh, appellants, and Llansanffraid, respondents. Have I goodness to enter this appeal in due time of it is necessary. The respondent it seems have not been properly served and I appeal must be lodged and I only received the papers on Tuesday from Denbigh.

Examination-rogue and vagabond. [1815H26]

17 November 1814. Examination of William Brown, rogue and vagabond before Evan Jones, J.P. Says that he was born at Quebec in North America. That he is about 23 years of age. That he has served his apprenticeship as a seaman aboard the Liberty. That about two years ago he came to England and landed at Torbay. That since then has been a mate upon board of a vessel called the Sally and was wrecked on 1 October last. That since that period he has employed himself in begging and obtaining money from charitable persons. That on Saturday last he came to Montgomery with his companion William Van Mitchel Lloyd, and proceeded from thence to Newtown, to Llanidloes. That they were on the road to Liverpool and that he and his companion received different sums of money from several persons in Llanidloes. William Brown*.

Order. Order that he be kept in gaol to hard labour until Saturday next and that on that day he be conveyed to the market town of Llanidloes and between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. he be stripped naked from the middle upwards and whipped by the keeper of the gaol until his body be bloody. Afterwards that he be brought back to gaol to hard labour and at the expiration of a month he be conveyed to his Majesty's receiving officer of persons to serve in the navy at or in the port of Liverpool. Venire facias. [1815T12]

For the G.Q.S. on 13 July 1815. John Davies, Robert Davies.

Examination-theft. [1815T13, 14]

3 June 1815. The information and complaint of Thomas Griffiths of Llannerch Hudol, gent, taken before George Gould and William Jones, J.P.s for the borough of Welshpool. Says that on Friday morning last he missed from his wainhouse on the fold yard the following articles, namely, six pieces of iron called strokes for wagon or cart wheels, and the hind dropping pin of a wagon. That they were in the wainhouse and the intention was to have the strokes converted into chains. That finding they were gone and believing them to have been stolen he suspected that one Thomas Cash, a carpenter, or some of his family had taken them away as Cash had been working on examinant's premises on Tuesday and Wednesday last. That informant made many enquiries respecting the foregoing articles for some time without avail until he came to the shop of David Davies, a blacksmith who resides at Groeslwyd. That when he and a constable who assisted him went into Davies' shop there was a workman in the shop. That upon his going into the shop they soon discovered the articles which had been stolen and they immediately sent for Davies who was in his house. That when Davies came n and upon being shown the iron he informed informant that he had purchased it yesterday morning from a woman. That the money he paid to her for it was 4s 10d being for 46lbs at one penny farthing. That examinant had them also weighed and they also corresponded with the weight which Davies mentioned. And on his oath further says that the several pieces of iron now produced and before referred to are his property and are the same which he had lost from his wainhouse. Thomas Griffiths*. The said David Davies the blacksmith before referred to, says that yesterday morning a woman (who is the present prisoner) came into his shop with some old iron which she offered for sale. That examinant asked her where she came and who she was. That she informed him that they lived at the Vrochas – that the strokes belonged to a cart which they had last summer and which was spoiled by being left out in the wet, and that the dropping pin she found on the road as she was going to Welshpool. That she did not mention her name or whether she was married, nor did examinant ask her. That she then asked him three halfpence per pound for the iron, but examinant would not give it but would give her the same as he did to others which was a penny farthing per pound. That they then agreed. The iron was weighed and examinant paid her 4s 10d for 46lbs. That the iron now produced is the same which was brought to his shop. And that the prisoner is the woman who brought it. David Davies*. Recognizance: Thomas Griffiths in £20; David Davies in £10 – to prosecute and give evidence. Martha Cash, wife of Thomas Cash - six pieces of iron of the value of 3s and one piece of iron of the value of 1s.

Certificate-enclosure. [1815T15]

We, two J.P.s, at special sessions at Llanfair on 10 July 1815 having in pursuance of an Act of Parliament 41GIII for consolidating in one Act certain provisions usually inserted in Acts of Enclosure, viewed all the public carriage roads over the commons and waste lands within the manor of Caereinion Iscoed which have been set out by the commissioners appointed by the act of Parliament of 50GIII for enclosing lands in the said manor, do hereby declare and certify that the said roads so set out are fully and sufficiently formed, completed and repaired as required, which said roads are the following:

In tp. Cwmgoror and Castell. Out over Coed-y-cwm common from the end of the lane from Castell Caereinion towards Pen Wtra and Tylynney

Another from the Burwydd common from the end of the lane which branches out of the turnpike road near Rhydynis barn to the old highway from Berriew to Llanfair near Evan Evans' cottage.

Another over the same common (being the said old road from Berriew to Llanfair) from tp. Manafon Gaenog near Cefn Crun to tp. Gelligason adjoining William Rogers' enclosures near his cottage.

And another over the same common from a close of John Lyon, esq., called Cae Llwyd (part of Dolarddyn farm) into tp. Nant-fforch adjoining the stone quarry in Caen Nant-yr-hwch dingle, formerly the road from Castell village to Llanfair.

In tp. Nant-fforch

One over the said common from the north-western end of the said last mentioned road adjoining the said stone quarry to the northern end of the lane leading down by a messuage belonging to Arthur Davies to the old turnpike road from Welshpool to Llanfair opposite Penyrherber gate.

In tp. Brynelen.

One from the lane coming from Rhosfawr over Perthege? bank and Heniarth and Brynelen commons over Perthege? to tp. Hudan Isaf near Mr Foulkes mill there.

And another over the said Brynelen common from out of the said last mentioned road near Jones's Brynelen house to tp. Gelligason near Minffordd.

In tp. Cil-yr-ych

One over Fron Dehau Gwynt common from the western end of the lane from Minffordd to the eastern end of the lane leading to the town of Llanfair. Daniel Williams, E. Lewis.

On the reverse: Letter, 12 October 1815. from John Williams, Shrewsbury.

On the other side I send a draft of indictment which it is intended to present at the next Q.S. to be held on 19 October. I shall probably meet you as it is a special indictment. I send it so that you may have it prepared by the early part of the morning as I shall be glad to get it before the grand jury as early as possible in order that I may get away that night, it not being intended to try it at this Q.S. I shall feel obliged by your forwarding to me a subpoena on this occasion by return of post.

Order. King on the prosecution of Charles Barker and others against John Jones and others for an assault. [1815M/SOD/2/12b]

Commitment-rogue and vagabond. [1815M40]

16 November 1815. To the constable of Montgomery and to all constables whom it may concern and to the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of pa. Llanidloes.

Whereas John Breeze was apprehended in tp. Forden as a rogue and vagabond and is convicted before me, M.E. Lloyd, J.P. that he did lately wander abroad and beg in pa. Forden, upon examination of the said John Breeze it appears that his last legal settlement is in pa. Llanidloes. These are therefore you the said constable to convey him to pa. Examination-assault. [1815M54] [damaged]

14 August 1815. The examination and complaint of Charles Barker, sergeant in His Majesty's 23rd Regiment of Foot taken before Sir Arthur Davies Owen, knight. Says that on receiving information that a person of the name of John Jones who is a deserter from the said regiment was in the employ of Mr John Jones, a farmer at Pontysgawrhyd and the examinant having represented the same to Captain Nicholls of the 66th Regiment who has the command of the recruiting parties in the district, Captain Nicholls ordered examinant to proceed with his party and take the said John Jones. That in consequence of such orders he, with Corporal Robert Barber [sic], James Peacock of the same regiment, together with Benjamin Waring of the Montgomery Regular Militia (whom examinant procured for assistance) on Wednesday last 9 August 1815 went to the house of the said John Jones at Pontysgawrhud in coloured clothes and asked Mrs Jones for employment and upon receiving an answer they went from the house and kept hovering about the neighbourhood and went to a shop and purchased some victuals where Mr Jones came in and examinant having been informed that the deserter was out with Mr Jones's wagon, examinant asked ... whether his wagon was gone out who answered that it was ... Some further discourse took place about his wagoner. That examinant kept about the roads with the party till near 7 o'clock in the evening and then passed Mr Jones's house to a field where they had been reaping and to a field where some of Jones's men and himself were cutting oats, when examinant and the party went civilly up to them, Mr Jones made a hallow and one of the men asked the examinant what they wanted and immediately four men and Mr Jones came up to them and Mr Jones began to strip off his waistcoat and threw his hook down and said he would let them know what business they had ... across his corn. Examinant said they did not want him immediately one of Jones's men (he believes his name was ...) struck examinant in the mouth and kicked him often and they all shouted out kick him, kill and ... was very much beaten and abused by them, he was not ... that ... struck him and that the examinant got ... as soon as he could after receiving a severe beating, that they would not give examinant time to speak. Charles Barker*, Robert Barlow, corporal in the 23rd Regiment says that he was present with Sergeant Barker, for the purpose of taking John Jones the deserter. That when the scuffle began he ran through the river and one of John Jones's men ran through the river after him and two men came to meet examinant from towards the house in the mill. That the man who pursued him called out to the two men to knock him down. That when he came up to the two men he stopped and the man of Mr Jones's who followed him struck examinant down and got his hand entangled in his handkerchief endeavouring to strangle examinant. That he beat and kicked examinant for some minutes and the other men he believes assented for they cried out 'kill him' often times. Examinant expostulated with them upon the ill usage he received and told them he wanted nothing with them, that he was only doing his duty, when they followed him and knocked him down again and kicked him on the ground. He afterwards went to the mill endeavouring to get away, that they knocked him down again to otherwise ill treated him till old Mr Jones desired them to leave examinant alone. That the man who pursued him through the river then followed examinant and told him if he did not off the premises he would take away his life. Robert Barlow*, corporal.

James Peacock, a private in the same regiment says he was of the party to endeavour to take John Jones a deserter. That when they arrived in the field where the said John Jones and his men were reaping, Mr John Jones hallowed out and his men came up to examinant and his party and ... hooks in their hands. That examinant was the nearest to them and one of the men made a cut at him with his hook and missed him. Examinant then escaped through the river. That Mr John Jones himself followed examinant through the river and ran across the fields and endeavoured to get clear away but soon found he had come round to the river again where it appeared deep he did not venture to go in. Mr John Jones made for the ford of the river and said if examinant did not surrender "he would be apt to lose his life amongst his men". Examinant said he was willing to surrender, that he was doing no wrong and had come there by the order of his officer to take a deserter, John Jones asked who his officer was, to which he replied Captain Nicholls of the 66th. That Jones damned him and his officer and said he would serve him the same if he came upon his premises. Jones then asked what he had under his smock frock, who answered it was a pistol. Jones then asked him to come with him, that no one would hurt him. That he went with him towards the house when examinant could not see any of his company, but Mr Jones men stood ready to receive him. The men cried out 'has he got a pistol upon which Jones answered he had. The men said if he did not discharge it they would take his life. Examinant refused them and Jones saying it was his only protection and when Jones said if he did not discharge it, that examinant would lose his life and promised to protect him if he did discharge it. Examinant discharged the pistol in the air. Immediately after two of Jones's men (he has heard one of them is a brother to the deserter) struck examinant who then reminded John Jones of his promise of protection. Jones said you have no business upon my premises and that he would have nothing to do with it. Jones's men ... collared him to lead him to the mill a prisoner. That one of them then said the deserter Jones was there but they should ... him nor as many more. That the deserter's brother ... examinant with a large stone on the small of the back and knocked him down and then beat him with a great stick and abused him in a dreadful manner. Examinant ... to aggravate them, but told them he was only doing That Mr Jones said the deserter did live with him ... there then. James Peacock*.

Benjamin Waring of the Montgomery Regular Militia says that he went with the party to endeavour to take John Jones a deserter. That when the affray began examinant made for the river and jumped in. That two or three men followed him with their hooks in their hands and having got over the other side of the river the men came to a ford and met him. When seeing he could not escape he went right into the river again, when one of the men ran into the river and struck him in the neck a violent blow and collared him and cursed him when examinant said he did not want anything to say to him. The man then put the sickle around his neck and swore he would kill. That he dragged him up on the bank and shook him severely and held him till they met Mrs Jones when another man came up with his fists clenched but did not strike him but kicked examinant several times behind. That examinant then heard a report of a pistol. When one man went away towards the place where the report was heard. The same man kept still dragging examinant to Mr Jones when his men surrounded him and threatened to beat him Mr Jones came up and said "Ben you deserve a good beating", and the man laid hold of him and ill used him by offering to strike him with a stick and said they would tear him to pieces, and threatened to confine examinant and one of them called out to the other for a stick which he got and struck with his two hands at examinant who evaded the blow and got away. Benjamin Waring*.

Examination-theft. [1816H2]

22 December 1815. The information of David Watkins of the New Mill of pa. Llanllwchaearn, miller, taken before George Meares, J.P. Says that in 1814 he was living at Aberbechan Mill in the said parish and on or about Wednesday 3 August he found the want of sundry articles of clothing and particularly a great coat, three waistcoats, five pair breeches, two shirts, one pair cotton stockings, one pair woollen stockings, one pair new shoes, one hat, one black silk handkerchief, one shawl, and one and a half handkerchief, and immediately suspected they were stolen. Previous to the loss of the said articles one John Breeze was living with this informant as a servant, but upon the said Wednesday 3 August he left his situation about 6 o'clock in the morning and did not return. Upon enquiry the said John Breeze was found residing at Crossygarreg in pa. Berriew. This informant and his brother Evan Watkin in about a fortnight's time went in search of him, but he had left Crossygarreg that morning, but had left behind one shirt, one pair of stockings, one waistcoat and one breeches with a certain female person in the house upon which this informant immediately knew them to be his and took them off. Upon Thursday 21 instant this informant saw the said John Breeze passing his mill. He called after him and asked him how he could serve such a trick in taking his clothes. Breeze answered that he supposed it was the devil that persuaded him to it. Breeze said, if he should be left alone and not done the law with he would serve him, this informant, or any of his family for two years, upon which this informant and the said Breeze came to Newtown and Breeze put under the constables care. Breeze said to this informant that he had two shirts, two waistcoats, one coat and two pair stockings at Llanidloes, and if he would come there he should have them, and at Tregynon he had one shirt, one smock frock, one pair of stockings and a handkerchief and that he should have them also and if that would not do he should have the coat which he Breeze then had on. That they both came as far as Aberborthin and this informant's brother-in-law, Thomas Lewis came with Breeze to Llanidloes. That on the road to Aberborthin this informant asked what he had done with his great coat. Breeze answered that he had sold it to a fisherman for five shillings. David Watkins*.

Examination-theft. [1816H3]

22 December 1815. The voluntary confession of John Breeze of Llanidloes taken before George Meares, J.P. Says that in August 1814 he was living at Aberbechan in pa. Llanllwchaearn with one David Watkins, and that one morning before the family were up he took away from the said house a great coat, a red jacket, two waistcoats, two pair of breeches, one pair of cotton stockings, one pair of shoes, one hat, and two shirts, the property of David Watkins. That Ann, wife of the said David Watkins, had lent him to wear, while his own clothes were in the washing one cotton waistcoat, one pair of breeches, one shirt and one pair of stockings, and had also lent him one red jacket, one pair of shoes, and one hat. That the great coat was the property of the said David Watkins and which he sold in the morning he left David Watkin's house, for five shillings to a fisherman. The mark of John Breeze.

Petition-chaplain. [1816H11]

11 January 1816. To the Magistrates of the county. The pressure of a numerous family with a small income to support them will I hope be deemed an apology for troubling your worships. It is generally acknowledged that the provisions for the inferior clergy is very inadequate to their support. Parliament convinced of the justice and necessity of seeking better provision for the same by three acts appropriated sums for that purpose and with the same view was the act passed last session to invest magistrates with the power of allowing larger salaries to the chaplains of prisons.

The appointment of chaplain which I have held under your worships for 16 years may be considered (exclusive of the painful duties connected with it) equal to the single duty of a church – the lowest stipend allowed for such service in this part of the country is well known to the clerical part of the bench.

I would not presume to name any sum, I have only humbly to submit my case to the kind consideration of you worships. Any advance you may think proper to make will be most thankfully and gratefully received by your worships' most faithful and obedient servant. Charles Williams*. At the foot: The consideration of this petition or memorial to be adjourned to the next Q.S.

Order. Application having been made by the treasurer, the chaplain of the gaol, and surgeon, the gaoler and the keeper of the house of correction for increase of their respective salaries pursuant to the act of 55 George Iii, chapter 5, 51 to 55. Ordered that the same be considered and determined upon at the next Easter Q.S. and that the clerk of the peace write to the clerks of the peace for counties of Denbigh and Flint and request that they will report what has been done in these counties and that the clerk of the peace state the same to the justices at the next Q.S. [1816H/SOD/2/16]

Letter-bridge. [1816H12]

28 December 1815. From John Jones, Ruthin to the magistrates assembled at the G.Q.S. by adjournment at Llanrhaeadr ym Mochnant.

By the direction of the magistrates in this county I transmit you a copy of Mr Penson's report on the state of the Llanymynech bridge

12 December 1815. Upon 2 September last I had the opportunity of submitting to the justices acting in hd. Chirk the necessity that then existed of repairing the pier of Llanymynech bridge that has heretofore been maintained at the joint expense of the counties of Montgomery and Denbigh and I then requested a meeting of the magistrates at the bridge upon 8 September following which was held accordingly. The justices then present at the meeting directed a copy of the resolution then made to be sent to the magistrates acting for county of Montgomery in the neighbourhood at Llanymynech and to which an answer has not yet been received. I now consider it my duty to inform the court that it is absolutely necessary for some mode to be taken to effectually secure and repair the said pier otherwise it may not only endanger the part of the bridge that belongs to Montgomeryshire but may injure that part which has been repaired at so great an expense by the county of Denbigh. At the foot:: Ordered that Charles Watkin Williams Wynn, Richard Mytton, Thomas John Davies, or any two of them appointed a committee for the county of Montgomery as above stated. Thomas Penson*.

20 April 1816, Llangedwyn Hall. The surveyor of the highways of pa. Llanfechain has just been with me promising to put the roads onto good condition before the Midsummer Q.S. Upon his promise I have undertaken to stop proceedings and beg to inform you thereof. S. Lovatt.

Examination-theft. [1816E2]

15 March 1816. The information and complaint of David Morgan of the town of Machynlleth, grocer, made on oath before John Edwards, J.P. Says that having about twelve o'clock in the night of 12 March occasion for some fresh hay for a cow which he expected to calve went into a field at the back of his house where he had a rick of hay and cut some out of it and left the hay knife in the said rick. That going about half past eight o'clock on Thursday night with John Jones and others to examine the rick hearing some hay had been found in the possession of John James of the said town, labourer, suspected to have been stolen found that part where the hay had been cut in as dryer state that he could have expected, from the quantity of rain which had fallen on the evening previous and hearing his companions say a rick of hay (also cut) belonging to said John Jones which stands within a few yards of it much wetter (the latter rick he did not examine himself) and by the appearance of his own rick to the best of his knowledge some part of it was newly taken and that his said rick stands in a field called Caemicah through which a path leads into a lane in the said town called Wttra fider and thereupon he the said David Morgan prays that justice be done in the premises. David Morgan*.

Examination-theft. [1816E3]

15 March 1816. The examination of Hugh Humphreys of the town of Machynlleth, yeoman, taken before John Edwards, J.P. Says that he accompanied Thomas Jones on the night of 14 March instant to the hay rick belonging to John Jones and Mrs Catherine Morgan in a certain field called Caemicah adjoining the said town, examined the ricks found Mrs Morgan's dry and the others wet. Mrs Morgan's rick had the appearance of being fresh cut it having rained all the evening, that the appearance of Mrs Morgan's ricks he thinks some hay was newly taken out of it, that he brought as sample this morning from Mrs Morgan's ricks compared it with the hay produced by the constable as having been found in the possession of John James last night and finds them both exactly agree in quality. That he left such sample in the possession of the constable. Hugh Humphreys*.

We have nothing to present to the best of our knowledge. Charles Salisbury*, Thomas Ashford*, Thomas Pryce*, Richard Pryce*, David Thomas*, John Arthur*, John Williams*, David Davies*, John Davies*, John Williams*, George Green*, Richard Meredith*, John Breeze*.

Certificate of conviction-trees. [1816E7]

28 March 1816. William Breeze the younger of pa. Llandinam, yeoman, was by Thomas Richards, constable of tp. Llandinam, brought before me George Meares, J.P. And the said William Breeze is now here charged by Charles Hughes of pa. Llandinam with having stolen taken and carried away a certain quantity of alder and other wood the property of the said Charles Hughes. And in the presence of the said William Breeze, Charles Hughes a credible witness upon his oath that on 20 March in the house of the said William Breeze did find a quantity of alder and other wood and the said wood is his property. William Breeze was asked by me if he can say anything for himself why he should not be convicted. He then freely and voluntarily confessed the said offence. It is therefore considered and adjudged by me that William Breeze is guilty of the said offence. I order that the said William Breeze shall presently pay to the overseers of the poor of pa. Llandinam the sum of 10s. And if he does not pay the sum I order that he be conveyed to the house of correction at Montgomery to be kept safely for one month. George Meares.

Order. Read and filed. [1816E/SOD/2/20]

Certificate of conviction-game. [1816E8]

25 January 1816. Thomas Howell of Llangurig, yeoman, came before me, George Meares, J.P., and gave me to understand that one John Davies of pa. Llangurig, farmer, on 18 December 1815, he not having lands or tenements or some other estate of inheritance as his own or his wife's part of the clear yearly value of £100 nor for term of life nor any lease or leases for ninety-nine years or any longer term for the yearly value of £150 nor then being the son and heir apparent of an esquire or other person of higher degree nor then being the lord of any manor or royalty nor then being the owner or keeper of any forest park chase of warren nor then being gamekeeper of any lord or lady of a manor and qualified by the laws of the realm to kill game nor then being a gamekeeper or any such lord or lady and truly and properly a servant to such lord or lady or immediately employed and appointed to take and kill game for the sole use and immediate benefit of such lord or lady nor then being in any other manner qualified empowered or licensed by the laws of the realm wither to take kill or destroy any sort of game whatever or to keep or use any greyhounds setting dog lurcher or other dog net or other engine for that purpose did at the pa. Llangurig keep and use a greyhound dog to kill and destroy the game whereupon the said John Davies afterwards, to wit, on 23 January 1816 had notice of the sad information and offence therein charged upon him as aforesaid and was then and there by the said justice in the manner summoned to appear before the said justice at Llanidloes to make his defence against the said charge contained in the information. And whereas the said Thomas Howell gave me also to understand that the said John Davies on 23 January December keep and use a greyhound dog to kill and destroy game. Whereupon John Davies on 23 January 1816 at Llangurig had notice of the said information and of the said offence and was then and there summoned to appear before me at Llanidloes to make his defence. And on 23 January 1816 at Llanidloes appears and is present and is asked by me if he can say anything for himself why he should not be convicted. He says that he is not guilty of the said offence. It is therefore considered and adjudged by me that William Breeze is guilty of the said offence. I proceed to examine the truth of the charge and examine David Owen of Llangurig, farmer, a credible witness, in the presence of John Davies says that on 18 and 23 December 1815 at Llangurig John Davies did keep a greyhound dog to kill and destroy game and saw John Davies walk across a certain common called Alltyfros in pa. Llangurig the same being a place where hares usually be with the said greyhound and then and there on the said several days coursing hares. Upon examining the evidence it manifestly appears to me the said John Davies was not on the said 18 and 23 December was not in any way qualified as above. It is therefore considered by me that John Davies be convicted of the said charge and forfeits the sum of £10 to be distributed as the statute in that case provides.

Report-bridge. [1816E12]

At a meeting of the committee for conducting the underbuilding and repairing of the piers and abutments of Llanymynech bridge held at the bridge on 16 April 1816. We, the magistrates acting in hd. Deuddwr and also the undersigned magistrates acting in hd. Chirk on co. Denbigh being of the committee for conducting the underbuilding of the piers of Llanymynech bridge over the river Efyrrwy are unanimously of opinion that the pier which has been heretofore maintained at the joint expense of hd. Deuddwr and co. Denbigh should be immediately underbuilt and repaired in the same manner as the pier and abutment has been done belonging to co. Denbigh according to the plans and under the direction of Mr Penson and that the expense thereof to be defrayed equally by co. Denbigh and hd. Deuddwr and are likewise of opinion that it would be advisable to lay the foundation of the said pier of sufficient width to enable the counties at some future time to widen the said bridge as it is inconveniently narrow and being on so public a road ought to be widened. Richard Mytton, Thomas John Davies, Robert Jones, M. Pryce.

Letter-road. [1816E13]

19 April 1816. Llangedwyn. S. Lovatt to Griffiths.

Dear Griffiths, Mr Jones of Llys called upon me this morning having heard that I had directed the clerk of the peace to issue out distringas against pa. Llanfechain for not repairing the highways and begged further time. He has promised to repair by the Midsummer Q.S. and I have engaged to stop proceedings (you know my leniency). If you find it necessary to write to the clerk of the peace to stop the distringas you had better do so otherwise they will have to pay additional expense. Your sincere well-wisher. On the reverse: 21 April 1816, Welshpool. By Mr Griffiths's direction I send you on the other side a letter from Mr Lovatt of Llangedwyn. You will have the goodness to do what he requests. I am, sir, (for Mr Griffiths) Randle Jones*.

Examination-theft. [1816E67]

15 March 1816. Examination of John Jones of the town of Machynlleth, gent, before John Edwards. Says, that having been called upon by Thomas Jones of Machynlleth about 8 p.m. of Thursday 14 March to examine a rick of hay standing in a certain field at the back of his house called Caemicalh in consequence of his having just detected a person carrying some hay in a cloth on his head near Wtra Fider (a lane in the said town opening from the said field by a pathway) suspected to have been stolen. That going there and examining his own rick and another rick belonging to Mrs Catherine Morgan standing within a few yards of his own, both of which had been cut, found that part of Mrs Morgan's rick which had been cut in a dry state and his own rick wet. That there was a hay knife in Mrs Morgan's rick and from the best of his knowledge there must have been some newly taken out of it the evening being altogether wet. John Jones*.

Examination-theft. [1816E68]

15 March 1816. Examination of Thomas Jones of the town of Machynlleth, gent, taken before John Edwards. Says that on 14 March about 8 p.m. he was passing along a certain street there called Pentrerhedyn and when he came opposite a certain lane in the said street called Wtra Fider he saw John James of the town of Machynlleth, labourer, coming from the said lane with a cloth on his head which deponent suspected to contain stolen hay. That deponent stood and observed if the said John James was taking the same into his own stable at the back of a certain house in the said street occupied by Elizabeth Williams, widow, and within about twenty yards of the lane aforesaid. That deponent saw the said John James pass the said house and followed him, but finding he was gaining ground deponent ran after him, overtook him and brought him to his own house situated about eighty yards from the place he was stopped, examined his cloth which he found contained hay and in asking him why he passed his own stable he answered “because I thought you suspected me”. That deponent then sent for a constable and put the said John James with the cloth and hay in his charge. Thomas Jones*.

Examinaton-theft. [1816T13]

26 April 1816 Examination of Mary Lloyd of pa. Llanfechain, widow, John Owen of Llansanffraid, butcher, before John Humffreys and John Davies, J.P.s.

Mary Lloyd says that on Sunday night or early on Monday morning last a hen was stolen from her house. That she had given the hen and the other fowls meat in the afternoon before she went to chapel. That she did not miss the hen until the middle of the day on Monday. That she searched about the house but could not find her. That upon the Wednesday following she went to see her daughter who is a servant with Mr John Williams of Winllan and as she was returning home she called at the Lion in Llansanffraid where there were a good many people and among them John Jones whom she was told was brought there for stealing fowls. That she said she had lost a hen on Sunday night or Monday morning and asked to see her hen. That John Owen, the constable, then showed her a hen which she said she could swear to be hers. She also says that the hen now produced is the same, and that this morning she was at the Goat Inn in the town of Llanfyllin with Owen the constable and Edward Jones and John Jones where John Jones gave her the hen and that it was hers. The mark of Mary Lloyd.

John Owen, petty constable of tp. Llansanffraid says that on Tuesday evening last he went with Charles Charles and John Lewis to search the dwelling house of Edward Jones of pa. Llansanffraid, labourer, father of the before named Edward Jones and John Jones for wheat which had been stolen from the barn of the said John Lewis. That they did not find any wheat, but saw a cock which the said Charles Charles said was his, and three hens and another cock. That he took possession of them and that night took the said John Jones into custody and told him that it was for stealing fowls. That the said John Jones said that he had not stolen any, and that he had been a courting upon Sunday night and as he returned found his brother, the said Edward Jones, and Richard Evans, his brother-in-law busy at Richard Evans cutting the combs and wattle of a cock. Deponent says that upon Wednesday bight he took the said Edward Jones and Richard Evans into custody, who said they had done nothing wrong but that John Jones had stolen the fowls. That upon Wednesday evening when he had the prisoner John Jones in custody at the Lion at Llansanffraid Mary Lloyd came there and asked deponent were there some fowls in the parlour. That he told her there was, that she then said she had lost a red hen. That deponent showed her one of the hens he had found upon the search and she immediately said "oh poor thing, that hen is mine, I'll swear to her by her eyes". That at the Goat Inn in Llanfyllin this morning the said John Lewis bid John Jones, one of the prisoners, to give everyone their own fowl. That John Jones then gave to the said Mary Lloyd the red hen and the other to Jane Williams. John Owen*.

Commitment-rogue and vagabond. [1817E33]

18 February 1817. John Hughes, deputy overseer for Richard James one of the overseers of the poor of pa. Llanidloes beings before me, George Meares, J.P., the body of one Edward Davies of pa. Llanidloes, yeoman, and gives me to understand that on 17 February he did threaten to run away and leave his wife and children whereby they would become chargeable to pa. Llanidloes and the said John Hughes prays that Edward Davies be dealt with according to law. Edward Davies is asked by me if he can say anything for himself why he should not be convicted of the offence above charged upon him pleads that he is not guilty thereof. Whereupon I do proceed to examine into the truth of the complaint and the said John Hughes, a credible witness, on oath deposes that he heard the said Edward Davies make the threat. And the said Edward Davies does not produce before me any evidence to gainsay the same therefore is manifestly appears to me that he is guilty of the offence, and is deemed an idle and disorderly person. It is therefore adjudged by me that Edward Davies is convicted, and I accordingly commit him to the house of correction at Montgomery to remain there for the space of one month.

Llanidloes, weaver, and gives me to understand that on 17 February he did threaten to run away and leave his wife and children whereby they would become chargeable to pa. Llanidloes and the said John Hughes prays that Richard Lloyd be dealt with according to law. Richard Lloyd is asked by me if he can say anything for himself why he should not be convicted of the offence above charged upon him pleads that he is not guilty thereof. Whereupon I do proceed to examine into the truth of the complaint and the said John Jervis, a credible witness, on oath deposes that he heard the said Richard Lloyd make the threat. And the said Richard Lloyd does not produce before me any evidence to gainsay the same therefore is manifestly appears to me that he is guilty of the offence, and is deemed an idle and disorderly person. It is therefore adjudged by me that Richard Lloyd is convicted, and I accordingly commit him to the house of correction at Montgomery to remain there until the next G.Q.S. and to have him there together with this precept unless he be sooner discharged by due course of law.

16 June 1816 [sic, error for 1817]. Examination of William Morris of Milford in pa. Llanllwchaearn, dyer, taken before John Jenkins, J.P.

Says that he is in the habit of dressing flannels for Thomas Davies and Joseph Davies of Newtown, flannel manufacturers and the prisoner John Thomas has been his servant about three months. That when a piece of flannel comes to the mill with any part of it damaged the part that is damaged is always cut off and thrown in a particular place in the mill. That one of the days in the last week examinant went into the mill and observed two pieces of flannel which had been cut off as usual and upon inspecting them he found that there was no part of the one piece damaged, upon which he asked the prisoner (who was at work) how that piece came to be cut off and the prisoner said he did not know that it had been cut off by him and examinant then asked his other servant the same question who gave him the same kind of answer and examinant left both pieces where he saw them and did not see them again till they were produced last night at the Unicorn Inn and this examinant further says that the two pieces of flannel now produced and which is stated by Mrs Edwards to have been delivered to her by the prisoner is the property of the said Joseph Davies and is the same piece as he a few days ago saw in his mill and which he observed not to be damaged as above stated and that the other piece now produced and stated by Mary Hughes to have been delivered to her by the prisoner is the property of the said Thomas Davies and which he had a few days ago before seen in his mill as above stated. William Morris*.

Examination-theft. [1817T34]

11 June 1817. Examination of Edward Beedles, apprentice or shopman to Oliver Jones of Newtown, grocer, taken before John Jenkins, J.P. Says that yesterday being market day the prisoner Anne Davies being in his master's shop between four and five o'clock in the afternoon his master, Mr Jones, came to this examinant and desired him to watch the prisoner as he suspected she would steal some rice there being a drawer of rice on the counter near her. Examinant accordingly did watch her and immediately saw her put her hand into the drawer of rice and at three different times take out a quantity of the rice in a shell which was in the drawer and put it into something which she had under her cloak. During the time she was doing this she looked at his master and she made two or three attempts to take the rice out before she did so fearful as this examinant supposes that Mr Jones would see her. Upon this examinant went round the counter and looked into her apron to see where she had put the rice upon which he observed an earthen chamber pot with rice in it on a sack of hops close to her and which was concealed under the prisoner's cloak. Examinant asked the prisoner if the pot belonged to her and she said it did upon which he asked her what she wanted with the rice in it and she said she wanted to show it to some women who were at the door. Examinant then laid hold of her and put her in the kitchen and returned in the shop to send for a constable and during the time he was so engaged she made her escape through the back door and immediately afterwards examinant saw her pass the shop door in the street and he ran out and brought her into the shop and gave her in charge of the constable. Edward Beadles*.

Examinations-theft. [1817T45]

16 June 1817. Examination of Mary Hughes of Newtown, spinster, taken before John Jenkins, J.P. Says she is servant to Mrs Edwards of the Unicorn Inn in Newtown. That about five o'clock yesterday evening the prisoner John Thomas came into the Unicorn Inn house and called for a pint of ale which he paid for as soon as he drank it and he then called for four pints more which he also drank but did not pay for them and examinant, at the request of her mistress followed him house [sic] to Milford and asked him for the money upon which the prisoner said he would be down in town immediately and would pay himself and immediately went with a key in his hand into his master's walkmill and remained there a short time and then came out and walked before examinant to town and when examinant went home the prisoner was sitting in the kitchen and Mrs Edwards called the witness and said she did not like that man (meaning the prisoner) go to him and see what he wants upon which the examinant called him into the parlour and asked him what he wanted when he drew the piece of flannel now produced from under his coat and delivered it to her and desired her to make a flannel petticoat with it. Examinant took it out of his hand and went with it up stairs and returned to her mistress and told her what had happened when her mistress said she would tell the prisoner's master of it and if she could not see him that night she would go up to his house next morning. The mark of Mary Hughes.

Examination of Elizabeth Edwards of the Unicorn Inn in Newtown. Says that the prisoner came into her house yesterday evening as stated by the last witness. That sometime after she sent her servant Mary Hughes after him. He came to the house again upon which she asked him for the money for the ale which he had drank and he desired her to go with him into the back kitchen which she did when he drew the piece of flannel now produced and which is supposed to be the property of Joseph Davies out of his pocket and said he would sell it to her very cheap. Examinant said she did not want any flannel but wanted money for the ale and prisoner said he had another piece in his pocket and she should have it for a shilling per yard upon which examinant asked to look at it and the prisoner delivered a piece of flannel to her when she said she would keep it till he paid her for the ale and put it into the bar. The mark of Elizabeth Edwards.

Examination of the above named John Thomas. Says that he has not been in the habit of appearing before gentlemen and does not know what to say. He declined to sign this.

Recognizance. William Morris in £50 to prosecute and give evidence at the next Q.S. Mary Hughes in £20 to give evidence. Elizabeth Edwards the like. Thomas Griffiths of Newtown, innkeeper, the constable, the like.

Examination-theft. [1817T50]

3 July 1817. Examination of Richard Brown of Llanidloes, weaver, taken before George Meares. Says that on Sunday night last about 2 o'clock in the morning he saw a man leaning upon the parapet of the short bridge. He went down to him but did not go close to him because he thought him to be a man acourting, upon which the person said, come here Dickey, I Missed you, is it you. He then knew who he was, David son of William Jones. Then examinant went off as far as William Alderson's new building and looking back he saw three men walking and making up from the bridge towards the church. One of them turned off for the river and the other two same on towards the church, upon which he went into Valentine Owen's house who was then up and desired him to come out directly. They both went out and perceiving the two men making for the churchyard they followed them to the churchyard, upon which examinant and Valentine Owen went down to the river and the first thing they perceived was a man's head looking out by the side of a post near the river. He came on to them with a bag on his back and he was David son of David Jones. Examinant asked what he had in the bag. David Jones said he had no harm in it. Examinant said he would have to see, upon which David the son of William Jones came to them. Examinant insisted upon seeing what was in the bag. Valentine Owen then put his hand in the bag and drew out a leg of veal and put it in examinant's hand, also a piece of cheese and showed it him. David son of David Jones then said he hoped they would not tell. Examinant asked where they had those things but had no answer more than that they should hear again. The mark of Richard Brown.

The examination of Valentine Owen, cooper. Says that about two o'clock in the morning of Sunday last Richard Brown called him out. He went along with him and saw two men walking toward the church, one tall man with a large staff under his coat. Instead of following them they turned down towards the river as Brown had told him that one man had gone down that way and saw a man looking out by the side of a post near the river and who came up to them. Upon Brown asking what he had in the bag the man who was David Jones the younger put the bag down. Brown and this examinant said they would have to see what was in it. Upon that another person came to them who was David son of William Jones. Examinant put his hand in the bag and the first thing he drew out was a leg of veal, a piece of cheese and several cakes of bakestone bread, and said you have done a deal of harm. It is you that does all the harm, David son of David Jones said, here is only a little bread. Examinant asked where he had it but had no answer. The two David Jones's begged of him this examinant and Brown not to tell anybody. Soon afterwards examinant put the whole back into the bag and saw David Jones the younger raising the bag, putting it on his back and went off. Brown and examinant also went toward home but returned back to see where the two Jones's were going. Examinant and Brown went to David Jones the younger's window and over the curtains examinant saw him within, upon which he came out and begged of them both not to say anything of what they had seen. About 2 o'clock in the evening of the same day David Jones the younger called to examinant and desired he would not tell anybody. That his brother-in-law should cut him as much clods as he wished. And this examinant further says that the bag, bread, cheeses and cakes now produced are so like to what he saw in he bag of the said David Jones the younger on Sunday morning last that he verily believes them to be the same. The mark of Valentine Owen.

Examination-theft. [1817T52]

30 June 1817. Examination of Thomas Lucas of Penrhos in pa. Llangurig, yeoman, before George Meares. Says that on Thursday evening about two o'clock he assisted his wife in putting a rug, three blankets and two coarse cloths upon a stone wall and two bushes near to his house for the purpose of drying. His wife brought the blankets in that night but left the rug and cloths out being wet and too heavy for her to carry in. This examinant went to his father's house that evening and did not return until about twelve o'clock that night. The next morning he went off again about six o'clock and did not return before twelve at noon, when his wife told him that the rug and two coarse cloths had been stolen off the wall. That the same evening he accompanied John Griffiths and the high constable who were in search of wool that was lost into several houses but could not find anything. That John Griffiths informed him that he had seen two persons going up Esgairwchion late the evening before but did not know who they were. That one Thomas Lloyd informed him this examinant that a boy (one of the two who went up the hill) was an old servant of Owen Evans of Blaenglyn. The following morning he, together with the high constable and the said John Griffiths proceeded to the house of Eleazar Evans (who was the father of the boy) and upon searching there the said John Griffiths found the rug on side of the ditch inside the garden belonging to the said Eleazar Evans and brought the rug to this examinant and asked him if that was the rug he had lost. He said it was. The rug being produced examinant swears is the one he lost and knows it by a few threads which were loosened on one end of it, by his taking it out of the water. The mark of Thomas Lucas.

Examination-theft. [1817T53]

4 July 1817. The voluntary confession of David Jones the younger of Llanidloes taken before George Meares. Says that sometime in the bight of Saturday last he found a bag now produced on the road next to Frongoch. That David Jones son of William Jones was in company with him. That they both then returned towards Llanidloes. That before they came down to the bottom of the lane in which they found the bag David Jones left the examinant. That soon after he examined the bag and found therein a lump of cheese and a leg of veal (he believes) some cakes. He ate two or three of the cakes and came on towards home. On the short bridge in Llanidloes he overtook the aforesaid David Jones who desired him to stand back for that there were men there. That he said he did not care he would go on. That he turned short at the end of the bridge and went down to the river and proceeding on his way home he was met by the end of the Vicarage garden by Valentine Owen and Richard Brown. One of them asked what he had in the bag. He thinks that he answered that he had a net in it. They felt the bag and said no it was not a net and they would have to see what was in it upon which he put the bag down. Richard Brown stood a little distance off and Valentine Owen drew out the cheese and the meat. David Jones came as soon as the other men. They put back the cheese and meat in the bag, went off and this examinant and David Jones went home together taking the bag with them, remained there a few minutes and he then went out taking the bag with him, went over the Long bridge and into the privy at Frankwell and there over the ceiling concealed the bag and its contents he then returned home. The mark of David Jones.

Examination-theft. 1817T54]

12 May 1817. Examination of John Hughes of Penyborfa in pa. Carno, farmer, taken before George Meares. Says that about three weeks ago he and Evan Robert of Cwmeledan in the same parish went into Cardiganshire and bought about 39 strike of potatoes and had them brought into a barn belonging to Mrs Swancott of Derlwyn and left there on Friday night 2 May instant, until they would have them divided between them. The day following they both went there and divided them and each sold some of his own share of the potatoes and measured the remainder and put them into four bags. There was then about 4 ½ strike in the whole of his share remaining and left them in the said barn, one strike in a bag belonging to Evan Watkin and one strike in a bag of David Jones and the remainder in two bags belonging to his mother. On Friday night last he was informed that the potatoes he had in Derlwyn barn were all stolen, that Evan Robert sent to tell him so and he and Evan Robert thought it best that his examinant should immediately apply to a magistrate for a search warrant which he did and searched among several houses, the house of David Jones of Ystrad in pa. Llanbryn-mair, and in a chest in a chamber of the said house he found under a feather bed a large amount of potatoes. They had recollected a particular potato and if that was there then they were certain that the potatoes was taken out of Derlwyn barn, and upon searching they found the said potato. They also found two bags on the ground by the corner of the said chest. The said David Jones was not at home and upon telling his wife the errand he and the constable came upon, she said there were not any potatoes in the house and when they found the potatoes she said she did not know from whence they came. They found David Jones upon Trannon hill cutting turf and informed him of what had passed in the house and the constable said that he must come with him to the village. The prisoner's father-in-law, Ellis Jones, came after them and asked examinant if he would take any payment for the potatoes but he said he would not. The said Ellis Jones at last persuaded him to let the prisoner go home, and if there should be any danger or anybody would force him to prosecute he the said Ellis Jones would take care to find the man at any time he would be wanted. He accordingly desired the constable to let him go. Being informed by some of the parishioners that he had done wrong, this morning he, together with the constable apprehended him again in bed, but before he had finished putting on his coat he went out of the house, shut the door, and fastened it upon him, the constable and Evan Robert, his wife was also in the room and endeavoured to fasten the door inside but at last examinant and constable were obliged to break the door and proceeded after the prisoner and in about a field's breadth of the house overtook the prisoner and brought him to Llanidloes. Examinant asked the prisoner on the road to Carno village where the remainder of the potatoes were. He said that he had not taken more than the two bags they had seen from there. The potatoes found are about two pecks or two strikes which he believes are his and is certain the bags found are the bags in which he left part of the potatoes on the Wednesday evening in Derlwyn barn, one of which bags he borrowed from his mother and the other from the said Evan Watkin. John Hughes*.

Examination-theft. [1817T55]

30 June 1817. Examination of John Griffiths of Troedyresgyrn in pa. Llangurig, yeoman, taken before George Meares. Says that his mother Ann Griffiths is the occupier of the said farm and usually takes sheep and cattle in the summer to the hills. That on Monday evening last four sheep (one of which belonged to his mother and the other three to one Jenkin Richard) which were depasturing upon a common called Llechwedd-du adjoining their lands were found by this examinant's brother with the wool entirely taken off. That upon his return home he informed his mother of what had happened to the sheep and that one of them was nearly dead. That he this examinant the next morning saw two of the said sheep, one of which has since died. That on Thursday evening last about nine o'clock he observed two men walking gently up the hill leading to Esgairwchion and made some enquiries but could not find out who they were. That the next morning about nine o'clock he and his brother went up to the hill to cut turf and passing through the sheep on the walk he immediately observed one ewe with the wool entirely taken off, and proceeding further he found five more in the same state (that these six were his own) he desired his brother to go up to the sheepfold to see whether there was any track of men or of sheep. His brother informed him that there was upon which he immediately went up himself and observed the track of two persons, one a grown up person's foot by the door, and the other a lad's in the mire in the middle of the fold. In the course of that day the high constable, himself and others searched several houses but could not find anything. At length they were informed by a lad called Thomas Lloyd that he saw two persons the evening before fishing in the brook adjoining Troedyresgyrn lands and that one of them was an old servant of Owen Evans of Blaenglyn, upon which this examinant together with the high constable the said lad and the other persons proceed to the house of one Eleazar Evans on Bryndu in Llanidloes (who was the father of the boy seen fishing) and informed him what their errand there was. His wife said they were at liberty to search their house and went for a key and unlocked room adjoining, upon entering the high constable said here is the wool come on. They all went in upon which the wife said it was wool she had bought. Examinant asserted it was his wool and would swear it, upon which she caught hold of a large earthen jug and struck him across the head and broke the jug all to pieces. She violently beat and kicked the high constable, raised an axe up and endeavoured to strike him with it several times. After some few minutes had then passed they observed the wall of another room thrown down upon which examinant went out into the garden and observing the wall (which was made of clods) to look as if some person had passed through. He looked about him and saw that the trouts of the potatoes were trodden down. He followed the marks and at some short distance he found a rug laid in a heap in the side of the ditch inside the garden as if put there for concealment. Examinant is certain that great part of the wool now produced is his wool, and he knows it by the red and blue raddle and by a red colour which rises into the wool from the weakness of the sheep. John Griffiths*.

Examination-theft. [1817T58]

12 May 1817. The voluntary confession of David Jones of Ystrad in pa. Llanbryn-mair, labourer taken before George Meares. Says that on Wednesday last between nine and ten o'clock as he was going on the road from Bronhaul to his own home, he went into the barn of Mrs Swancott's at Derlwyn near the village of Caro for the purpose of going to sleep, his own home was about a mile and a half from thence. Upon going in he saw two bags, not full, about a strike in each. He immediately went to feel them and finding the bags contained potatoes he took the two bags away on his back to his own house. The barn door was latched, it was not locked. He was not in the habit of going into that barn to sleep, he never slept there. He does not know where he had been during that day, he had walked during that day about 7 or 8 miles and had been ditching. He was ever so tired. He is not quite sure whether he did or not lie down in the barn, he was not in the barn more than quarter of an hour. He is sure the bags were on his back going out of the barn and he shut the door after him. That there was no one with him. Examinations-theft. [1817T69, 80, 78]

Examination of Evan Hughes of Tynnyceunant in pa. Llanerfyl, farmer, taken before ...? Says that on 6 April 1817 he was called upon (as constable) by Thomas Howell, son of David Howell of Gribin, and requested to accompany him to go in search of a gander and a quantity of potatoes which his father lost. That in consequence he did go to William James's house where they found a quantity of potatoes newly covered in the earth in the garden which appeared to be lately put down and covered withold thatch and rubbish. That he asked leave to go into the house and search. That upon having leave to do so he found in the house a quantity of potatoes in the chamber covered with turf dust apparently just put there. That examinant asked James where he had the potatoes. That he confessed and could not deny but that he had them in the tump belonging to David Howell. That James told him he would satisfy David Howell for them what ever was reasonable as soon as he could. That Thomas Howell charged him with having an accomplice. That James said was it not enough for him to acknowledge that he had taken without discovering who was with him. That Thomas Howell told him he must confess who was with him. That James told him (T. Howell) that it was Evan Robert. The mark of Evan Hughes

Examination of Thomas Howell. Says that on Sunday morning 6 April 1817 he found that his father had lost a gander and a quantity of potatoes. That upon that examinant went to the house of constable Evan Hughes and requested him to accompany him in search of the gander and potatoes. That they both went to the house of William James, Brynmeurig which was locked with two locks. That they found in the garden a quantity of potatoes covered with rotted thatched lately covered. That examinant's suspicion arose first from the fresh look of the soil differing widely from the other part of the garden. That they went to the house and obtained permission to go into the house to search it. That they found in the chamber a quantity of potatoes covered with turf dust. That examinant asked James where he had these potatoes. James replied that it was in his father's tump, I cannot deny. Examinant asked who his partner was that he must tell. James told him it was "Y mab Evan Robert". That Evan Robert the elder was then present and begged of examinant to be quiet, that we would pay for the potatoes. That examinant then told him Roberts the elder that had done a deal of mischief since Christmas. That Roberts the elder exclaimed with an oath that those were the first potatoes 'Eikin' meaning his son had ever stolen and that they were only one hoop and a half. That Evan Roberts the younger told examinant that he had never seen the gander but that he had taken about one hoop and a half of potatoes and no more. Thomas Howells*.

Motions. [1817T70]

King against tp. Noddfa presented by John Edwards at Easter Q.S. 1817. To appear and plead for the inhabitants and submit to a fine of £50. N.B. Order. Order to be adjourned. [1817T/SOD/2/39b]

Commitment. [1817T82]

21 October 1816. To the sergeant at mace, petty constables and all other peace officers of the borough of Welshpool and also to the keeper of the house of correction at Montgomery. Whereas John Corbet of the town of Welshpool, labourer, is now brought before us, Edward Jones and Richard Griffiths, J.P.s for the borough, requiring him to find sufficient sureties to be bound with him in a recognizance for his personal appearance at the next Q.S. and in the meantime to keep the peace especially towards James Roberts of the said town, druggist. And whereas the said John Corbet has refused and does now refuse before us to find such sureties, these are therefore to command you the said constables to convey the said John Corbet to the house of correction and to deliver him to the keeper thereof together with this precept. We command you the keeper to receive him into your custody and safely to keep him until he shall find such sureties.

Order. Evan Jones of the town of Welshpool, tailor, and William Corbet of the same, wheelwright each in £20 for John Corbet to keep the peace especially towards James Roberts of Welshpool, grocer, for twelve months. Discharged from prison. [1817T/SOD/2/35b]

Examination-theft. [1817T83]

Examination of Thomas Evans of the borough of Welshpool, servant to Thomas Bowen and Evan Thomas, one of the sergeants at mace, taken before Edward Jones and Richard Griffiths, J.P.s. Thomas Evans says that having had a search warrant he went to the house of Edward Williams and there upon search found the wheat which had been lost. That Edward Williams said he knew nothing of the wheat but that it must have been brought there by his son Jonathan who was an abandoned and idle character. That this examinant in consequence of this information apprehended Jonathan and his brother Thomas and also the old man their father. That they were lodged in the crib but that Jonathan afterwards broke the crib and escaped. That the magistrates upon examination discharged the father and son. But that Jonathan being apprehended and examined a second time he this day confessed to examinant that he had broken into the barn and stole the wheat out of it and that he was assisted by his brother. That it was for want alone that he committed the offence. That examinant did not say anything to the prisoner to induce him to make the confession but that it was entirely of his own accord. That the wheat stolen was about of the value of 5s. Thomas Evans*. Richard Griffiths said that he searched for and found ... wheat at Edward Williams' house and compared the testimony of Thomas Evans. The said Evan Thomas says that Jonathan Williams the prisoner on Friday last confessed to examinant that he had broke into the barn at the Brook House belonging to Thomas Bowen in pa. Welshpool and stole a quantity of wheat thereat which was not winnowed. That he took it with him assisted by his brother to their father's house and it is the same wheat which was taken by the said Evan Thomas and Thomas Evans on the search warrant. That the said Jonathan Williams made two confessions voluntary of his own accord and was not urged or requested by examinant to do this. Evan Williams*. Recognizances: Thomas Bowen in £20 to prosecute. Thomas Evans and Evan Thomas in £10 to give evidence.

Order-removal. [1817T84]

4 July 1817. To the churchwardens and overseers of pa. Llangadfan. Upon complaint made unto us, two J.P.s, and one of us of the quorum that Thomas Morgan, Elizabeth his wife, Elizabeth aged six, Thomas aged four, William aged three and Martha aged two, their children have come to inhabit in your parish not having gained a settlement there nor produced any certificate owning her to be settled elsewhere and are become chargeable to your parish. Upon due proof made we do adjudge that their lawful settlement is in pa.

Llanwddyn. Order to remove and to receive. William Brown, E. Lewis.

Examinations-theft. [1817T86]

24 May 1817. Examination of John Lello constable of Hurdley in Churchstoke taken before William Pugh. Says that yesterday he went to search the house of Edward Dorricott in the said township under a search warrant granted by William Pugh for boards stolen from Maurice Jones of Montgomery, esq., and that he found concealed under a bed part of an alder board and also to pieces of an alder in the lower part of the same all of which he now produces and also the said Edward Dorricott.

Examination of Thomas Howells of Churchstoke taken before William Pugh. Says that he has examined the pieces of board now produced by the said John Lello and from his knowledge of them believes them to be the property of Mr Maurice Jones. The mark of Thomas Howells.

Petition-gaol. [1817T87]

17 July 1817. John Davies, gaoler, humbly hopes that your worships will allow him an additional sum to his salary which is £42 per annum. That in consequence of having a great number of debtors and criminal prisoners confined in the said gaol he is under the necessity of employing a man servant to assist him in taking care of the said prisoners and clean the prison and also a turnkey and two female servants whose wages together reduces the present salary to a very small sum towards the maintenance of him and his family. As also the fees payable to the gaoler upon the discharge of each debtor from prison has been abolished by virtue of an Act of Parliament in 55 George III that all fees payable to gaolers should be abolished and cease from and after 1 October 1815 and which said act directed that the magistrates at the Q.S. should allow a sum in lieu thereof to be paid out of the county rates. Since 1 October 1815 there has been 73 persons brought to gaol, 25 of which number are now in prison. The fees payable to the gaoler for each debtor if detained upon one action was 10s, but if two or more actions 15s.

Examination-theft. [1817T94]

4 July 1817. Examination of David Lloyd of Frongoch in pa. Llangurig, farmer taken before George Meares. Says that about nine o'clock last Saturday evening he returned home from Llanidloes market having bought a quarter of veal that day. He separated the leg and loin and put both on nails in the pantry. Did also eat some bread and cheese and put the bread and cheese on the shelf where there were some bakestone cakes. Shut the door after him and the family all went to bed about eleven o'clock. About six o'clock the next morning upon opening the kitchen doo there was a large rail put before the door, fastened under the thatch and down in the pavement. Proceeding into the stable he found the housing cut off one of the collars with a knife, went into the house to inform his wife and going into the pantry he found the door fastened so that he could not get in, put his shoulders to it and forced it open. Upon entering in the first thing he saw was the window one half of which was made of lath and the other of glass, and the lath side broke open and the middle bar taken off and sufficient room for any person to go through and the leg of veal, bread cheese and cakes stolen out. Being informed that the goods lost were found he came to Llanidloes to see the same and saw them in the constable's custody. And this examinant further says that the leg of veal bread cheese and cakes produced are his property and that the same were stolen from his pantry on Saturday night last or Sunday morning. David Lloyd*.

Examination-rogue and vagabond and certificate. [1817M26]

22 August 1817. Examination of Mary Stanton a rogue and vagabond, taken before M.e. Lloyd. That she was born in Westport in co. Mayo, Ireland. That she is the widow of Thomas Stanton a private soldier in Captain Londs company in the 43rd regiment of foot, who she has heard and believes died about twelve months ago. That she was legally married to him upward of twelve years since at Maryborough in Queen's county in Ireland, and has the following children by him now living and with her, viz., Richard aged eleven, Thomas six, and Mary one. That she has heard and believes the place of the last legal settlement of her husband is in the town of Penzance in Cornwall where she was relieved as belonging to that place about six years ago, and that since her marriage she has not to her knowledge or belief done any act whereby to gain a settlement. The mark of Mary Stanton.

To the constable of Montgomery and to all constables whom it may concern to receive and convey and to the churchwardens and overseers of the town of Penzance. Whereas Mary Stanton was apprehended in Montgomery as a rogue and vagabond and is duly convicted before me, M.E. Lloyd, J.P. and that she did wander and beg in the said town on Friday last past. Upon examination of the said Mary Stanton it appears that her last legal settlement was in Penzance. These are therefore to require you the said constable to convey her and her family to Penzance [sic] that being the first town in the next precinct through which they ought to pass on their direct way to the said Penzance, to be delivered there together with this pass and a copy of the examination. And you the said churchwardens and overseers to receive her. And I do hereby certify that the said Mary Stanton has been actually confined in the house of correction in Montgomery for the space of seven days last past.

Examination-theft. [1818H15]

John Jones removed from Machynlleth to Llanbryn-mair previous to May 1816 went to live at Berthllwyd consisting of a house and the pasture for a cow for [£]8 per annum. He remained there a year and in May 1815 went to live at Gellidowill having previously agreed to take from Mrs Cross part of the house and pasture field for two cows and the planting of two measures of potatoes for six guineas per annum. After he had remained at Gellidowill about a fortnight he took from Mrs Cross a field in hay consist as she represented to pauper of six acres till the following ... for the rent of six guineas and in the course of the summer that the pasture first taken for the two cows was not sufficient for their keep he took another piece of pasture land for a month for 15s. the whole of the land the pauper gave up at Michaelmas Mrs Cross paid all taxes, the pauper in work paid the whole of the rent Mrs Cross having employed him the greatest part of his time at different wages, in the summer 2s per day and about 1s 2d the winter. The pauper remained at Gellidowill a second year but then had only one cow and paid six guineas rent. The pauper considers his taking well worth the money.

Certificate of conviction-performance of work. [1818H23]

13 November 1817. Thomas Parry of Llanidloes, weaver, was upon the complaint of Evan Jones of Llanidloes convicted before me, George Meares, J.P., in pursuance of an act passed in 17 George III for having neglected the performance of his work and having taken in materials for manufacture from another master in the woollen trade. And whereas he was on 13 November duly summoned to appear before me to answer the said complaint and in the presence of the said Thomas Parry Owen Gittins, a credible witness, deposes that he has seen and knows that the said Thomas Parry has been employed by the said Evan Jones in the woollen trade and that the said Thomas Parry has neglected the performance of such work and taken in materials from another master in the woollen trade. The said Thomas Parry is asked by me if he can say anything for himself why he should not be convicted. But he could not produce any evidence in his defence. Whereupon it appears to me that the said Thomas Parry is guilty of neglecting the performance of his work and is hereby convicted and confined in the common gaol for the space of three months to be kept to hard labour.

Examination-theft. [1818H31]

5 November 1817. Examination of John Edward of Maesygreedol in pa. Llangurig, yeoman, taken before George Meares, J.P. Says that about 10 p.m. on Friday on his return home from Llanidloes on coming near to a field of oats called Topygreedol belonging to Mr Robert Ingram he heard something stirring on the field and though it might have been some beast. In a few minutes he saw a person coming out of the field, over the hedge into the road with a bundle of sheaves of oats upon his back. It was the upper field belonging to Mr Ingram through which there is no footpath. That the said person walked rather fast along the road and entered into a field belonging to Richard Evans of the Rallt. This examinant also went into the same field and made up to him and asked who was there. Richard Evans answered, I am here. They then both went on discoursing together until they came to a small stack of oats of the said Richard near his said house and there he put the sheaves of oats down which were tied at both ends. He thinks there were in number about eight sheaves. He did not ask him how he came to take the oats as he was afraid he would swear the peace upon him, he is such a rogue. On Saturday the day following he told the servant of Mr Ingram of it. The mark of John Edward.

Examination-settlement. [1818H50]

26 August 1817. Examination of John Jones now resident in the town of Machynlleth, labourer taken before John Edwards and George Venables touching the place of his legal settlement. Says that the settlement of his father was Pennal in co. Merioneth having occupied Pantllydw farm a great many years, the said farm being of the yearly value of £10 and upwards. That deponent is about 40 years old and was married eight years ago previous to which he never did any act to gain a settlement to the best of his knowledge. That the first place he lived in was Llawryddol in pa. Penegoes for which he had engaged to give £8 a year rent. That he only occupied that place from May to August and then came to live in the town of Machynlleth where he continued two years paying £3 6s rent per annum. That he then went to live at Nantyrnele in pa. Llanwrin a farm occupied by Mr David Williams where he continued a year and a quarter on the following terms: Mr Williams was to pay him 10s a week wages; deponent was also to have the house rent free, the keep of a cow with liberty to plant the necessary quantity of potatoes for the consumption of his family. That he then took a house at Berthlwyd in pa. Llanbryn-mair, a small garden, the keep of a cow winter and summer at £8 a year. That he continued there twelve months and then went to live at Gellidowyll in the same parish under Mrs Cross. That he took from her part of Gellidowyll house for the year and a quantity of land from May till Michaelmas at six guineas, and after he had lived there about three weeks he took from her another parcel of land (viz. hay ground) till Michaelmas at six guineas. That he occupied the said part of the house and the land according to the agreement and at the May following he took the said part of the house and some land at the rent of six guineas , he house for the year and the land till Michaelmas. That at the end of that year (viz. May last) he came to live at Machynlleth and has not done any act to gain a settlement except as above stated. The mark of John Jones.

Examination-threat. [1818E26]

4 March 1818. Complaint of Elizabeth Hughes of the town of Machynlleth, widow, taken before George Venables. Sys that about 10 p.m. on Monday last past she had gone upstairs into her bedroom with Elizabeth Thomas her servant girl in her dwelling home in the town of Machynlleth at which time the front door had been fastened, she heard a rap at the door and (being in bed) she desired her said servant to lift up the window and enquire who was there and what was wanting. That the girl, after having enquired said a person was at the door with a letter for her (deponent) from Mrs Foulkes. That deponent then gave her said servant directions to take the candle and go down stairs to receive it and she very soon heard a very loud conversation and she thought the girl was alarmed and immediately heard her screaming out most violently and the door shut and double locked. That the girl cried very much came back to the said bedroom and threw herself down on the bed and it was some time before deponent was able to get any answers from her but when the girl had partly recovered her fright she said she had been met by the door by Thomas Jones, Doctor Lloyd's apprentice, dressed in a woman's clothes who had endeavoured to push himself into the house. That deponent has been much terrified and is still in fear of some bodily harm at the hands of the said Thomas Jones and therefore prays surety of the peace against him. Elizabeth Hughes*.

Examination-threat. [1818E27]

4 March 1818. Complaint of Elizabeth Thomas of the town of Machynlleth, spinster, servant, taken before George Venables. Says that about 10 p.m. on Monday last past she had gone upstairs with her said mistress into the bedroom in her said mistress's house having previously locked up the front door, she heard a rap on the said door and was directed to throw up the window lash to ascertain what was the matter and being informed by a person who stood at the door dressed in a woman's clothes there was a letter for her mistress from Mrs Foulkes she deponent) went down stairs with a candle in her hand, opened the door and saw a person with a cloak on the hood of which was over his head and he drew part of such hood over his chin to hide his face and holding a letter in his hand. Deponent asked him who it came from and the answer she received was "I have been ordered by my mistress to give it to your mistress". Deponent then knew it was Doctor Lloyd's apprentice, said "Thomas" on which he staggered and opened the cloak as if to show her it was a woman, she had then an opportunity to ascertain it was him. He had a cap on his head, a handkerchief round his neck and a check apron on. That she then said Thomas, for shame of you to be guilty of such tricks about this house, and he answered "Betsen" on which he endeavoured to push himself into the house, but deponent pushed the door against him and double locked it. That she was very much frightened and could not help crying. That she got up to her said mistress's bedroom and it was some time before she was recovered to make an answers to her mistress's questions, but, when she came to herself she related to her what passed. That she is afraid the said Thomas Jones will do her some bodily harm and therefore prays surety of the peace against him. The mark of Elizabeth Thomas.

Examination-threat. [1818E28]

1 April 1818. Elizabeth Hughes of the town of Machynlleth, widow, makes oath that in consequence of the conduct of Thomas Jones of the same, surgeon's apprentice towards her this deponent (the details of which she has made affidavit before George Venables, J.P., she is still fearful the said Thomas Jones will disturb the peace unless the recognizance into which he and his sureties have entered is continued. And that she is of the age of seventy years and upward. Elizabeth Hughes*. The said Elizabeth Hughes prays the court will continue the recognizance for the peace of the said Thomas Jones ad his sureties towards her this deponent and her servant girl, Elizabeth Thomas, spinster, she being the only servant she keeps to attend upon her, and do all her work.

Order-road diversion. [1818E31]

21 February 1818. Whereas a certain part of the highway leading from a brook called Colwyn near Park in pa. Llanwnnog to the village of Trefeglwys for the length of two miles was for the greatest part thereof very ruinous and could not be conveniently repaired without diverting and turning the same and upon the view of Arthur Davies Owen and Evan Jones, J.P.s, on 21 February 1804 aa course was proposed for a new highway in lieu thereof through the lands of the late Herbert Ball, esq., George Baxter, esq., Zacharias Davies, Edward Matthews and Maurice Meares, esq., in the several tps. Wig and Maestregymer which they thought would be much more commodious to the public. And whereas it was thereby ordered that the said highway should be diverted and turned through the lands aforesaid and that the surveyors of highways for tp. Maestregymer through which the road was to pass should forthwith proceed to treat and make an agreement with the above named for the recompense to be made to them respectively for the said ground and the making of ditches and fences as should be necessary in such manner with such approbation and by pursuing such measures and directions in all respects and are warranted and prescribed by the statute made in 13 George III for the amendment and preservation of the highways. And that in case such agreement should then be made, it was then and there ordered that an equal assessment not exceeding the rate of 6d in the £ be made levied and collected upon tps. Wig and Maestregymer and the money applied in making such recompense and satisfaction. And whereas a greater length of the new road lies in tp. Wig then there did the old line it was necessary that the quantity of the said road should be pointed out by two J.P.s that each of the said townships should be liable to repair in future. We, two J.P.s, attended on the line of the road for the said purpose and having from view and other circumstances satisfied ourselves of the premises do declare adjudge and order that the said highway should be divided in the following manner (that is to say) that from a certain brook called Colwyn near Park to part of the road where the said brook crossed the new road in pa. Llanwnnog measuring nearly one mile and that the whole of the said highway from Colwyn brook near Park to the place where the said brook crosses the road shall be from time to time and at all times hereafter repaired by tp. Wig and the remainder of the said highway from where the Colwyn brook crosses the said road to a certain place near Ffinant in pa. Trefeglwys where the new line of road enters into the old road measuring one mile shall from time to time and at all times hereafter repaired by tp. Maestregymer John Edwards and George Meares,

Certificate of repair-road. [1818E32]

2 March 1818. We, two J.P.s, certify that we have this day viewed a highway in tp. Diserth containing in length about 105 yards and in breadth ten yards and now under presentment, and that the same is no in a good and perfect state of repair and likely so to continue. John Davies, David Pugh.

Certificate-agreement. [1818E33]

2 April 1818. I, John Jenkins of Kerry, do certify that I was present upon Tuesday last at Thomas Drew's, attorney for Evan Davies in his prosecution in this court against Thomas Lucas and sons for an assault when the matter was compromised and the said prosecutor and his attorney were satisfied and the said attorney expressed his readiness to signify such satisfaction in writing and also his counsel that the defendants shall be discharged from their recognizances and indictment but that he was then going and I am now informed immediately after went from home. On the reverse: That Lucas the elder be allowed to withdraw his plea of not guilty and plead guilty and submit to a fine and that the others also plead guilty. And submit to a fine. Fined 1s each.

Examination-theft. [1818T13]

Examination of Morris Williams of pa. Llansanffraid, miller, John Jones of the same, servantman, Thomas Worthington of the same, farmer, and Thomas Davies of pa. Llanyblodwell in co. Salop, miller, taken before David Hughes, J.P.

Morris Williams says that he is a servant to Thomas Worthington who rents and occupies a mill in pa. Llansanffraid. That on Saturday evening last Revd. Mr Davies of Trewylan sent a measure of mixed corn to the mill to be ground. That the corn was not ground that night but left in the mill. That John Jones another servant of Mr Worthington who sleeps in the mill and is employed as his carrier, finding on the following morning that some of the corn had been taken out of the bag went to examinant and mentioned it to him. That examinant thereupon went to the mill immediately and found the mill had been broke open the night before and that about two quarters of a measure of the corn had been taken out of the bag. That he told his master the mill had been broke open and the corn stolen and suspecting John Lloyd who had lived a servant with Mr Worthington and on Monday morning he went with the said John Jones and Richard Edwards to the house of the said John Lloyd whom he suspected. That when they got to his house the first thing they found was a blanket that had been taken off the servant's bed who slept in the mill which examinant knew to be his master's property by means as it had been unstitched in the middle and he had sown it up. That there was another part of the blanket unstitched at the time it was stolen and examinant asked Lloyd's wife wife did she sow that up and she answered that she had and he further says the said blanket to be his master's as the mice had made several small holes in it. That they also found a piece of leather belonging to a horse collar of their master's and a bag they thought to belong to Mr Thomas Edwards which they took away with them and left them at the house of Thomas Davies, miller, and he says the things now produced by the said Thomas Davies are the same which he left at his house the night before. Morris Williams*.

The said Thomas Worthington says the piece of leather now produced is his property and that he saw it upon the collar Saturday morning. Thomas Worthington*.

The said Thomas Davies says that the said Morris Williams and John Jones left a bag with several other things at his house on Monday morning last which he said he had found upon searching the house of the said John Lloyd. Thomas Davies*.

20 May 1818. Thomas Edwards of Llansanffraid, innkeeper, says that he has lost several bags which he had marked with the initials of his name and that the bag now produced which the said Morris Williams deposed he found at the house of the said John Lloyd is his property. Thomas Edwards*.

Examination and conviction-rogue and vagabond. [1818T14] [damaged]

21 May 1818. David Lloyd, constable of the town of Llanidloes, brings before me, George Meares, J.P., committed the body of Edward Davies of Llanidloes, weaver, and accuses him before me of being a rogue and vagabond within the intent and meaning of the statute made 17 George II for that the said Edward Davies has run away and left his wife whereby she has become chargeable to pa. Llanidloes and the constable prays me that the said Edward Davies may be dealt with according to law for the said offence. Whereupon the said Edward Davies is now asked if he can say anything for himself why he should not be convicted who pleads that he is not guilty thereof. Whereupon I proceed to examine into the truth of the complaint and Davies, one of the overseers, a credible witness, says that the said Edward Davies did run away and left his wife chargeable to pa. Llanidloes. I find him guilty of the offence and adjudge him convicted of being a rogue and vagabond. I order him to be sent to the house of correction at Montgomery there to remain until the next Q.S. to be further dealt with according to law.

Examinations-theft. [1818T17]

13 June 1818. In King v. John Pugh. Evan Edward says that he was upon Newtown Street between 12 and 1 p.m. on Friday morning when he saw the prisoner on the street opposite the Bears Head Inn. That he saw him afterwards going towards the prosecutors manufactory in Newtown street. Witness has no particular notice where he went afterwards. Evan Edward*, before Evan Jones, John Jenkins.

John Williams says that after the prisoner was apprehended he heard him say that he was in bed at the time of 11 p.m. on the night of Thursday 11 instant. John Williams* before Evan Jones, John Jenkins.

William Webb of Newtown, flannel manufacturer who says that upon Friday morning 12 June the manufactory of the said William Bebb situate on Newtown Green was broken open and entered and a quantity of wool and waste yarn in a hempen bag was feloniously stolen . That prisoner having been in the manufactory the day previously and being well acquainted with the manufactory prosecutor advised to obtain a search warrant to search prisoner's house accordingly applied to and obtained a search warrant from Mr Jenkins and requested the constable to accompany him to search prisoner's house where they searched and found a quantity of wool and waste yarn answering the quantity and precisely of the same description to that which was stolen out of prosecutor's manufactory concealed in a closet in the wall and covered with a quantity of board and timber. The constable and prosecutor entering prisoner's house the prisoner locked the door but the constable and prosecutor caused the door to be forced open where they discovered that the brother of the prisoner was locked in the same room that the wool was concealed in. Prosecutor further says that the wool and waste yarn as found in prisoner's house is part of his property which was stolen out of his manufactory as above stated. The mark of William Bebb.

Nicholas Miles, constable, says that was requested by the prosecutor to accompany him to prosecute a search warrant granted by Mr Jenkins, to prisoner's house of Friday 12 June. That he went to the house the door was locked. That he forced the door open and the proceeded to search the house and he found a quantity of wool and waste yarn now produced concealed in a closet in the prisoner's house under a quantity of boards and timber. Nicholas Miles*.

Thomas Williams of Newtown says he weaves for William Bebb the prosecutor and that about 9 p.m. Thursday night he carefully locked and secured the doors of his master's manufactory. The next morning about half past four o'clock he unlocked the door to discover that the manufactory had been broken open and the wool stolen. He had been informed by his master on Friday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock and upon receiving such information from his master he and one Evan Williams went to examine the doors and locks and they found that the staple of the door wherein the wool was kept had been forced open. The mark of Thomas Williams.

Examination-theft. [1818T35]

28 April 1818. The complaint of Thomas Griffiths of Llansanffraid, taken before Lawton Parry. Says that on Monday night last some person or persons broke into his granary through a board and lath and plaster partition and stole thereof a quantity of barley about a measure he thinks, and upon viewing the premises this morning a particular mark of a man's shoe and a stick with an iron point was observed which was followed and paced to the house of Peter Morris of Moelydd and he has good ground to suspect and does suspect that Peter Morris did break into his granary and steal the said barley. Thomas Griffiths*.

Examination-theft. [1818T64] mislocated at 1819T29 – calendared here [damaged]

27 April 1818. Examination of Mary Wilks taken before William Pugh. Says that she has hired a servant with Mr John Holmes of the Bank from about June last to the present time. That on Bishops Castle fair day she saw Mary Jones who was at that time servant with Mr Holmes take about half a loaf of bread and about two pounds of flour out of Mr Holmes house and which this deponent believes to have been the property of Mr Holmes and give the same to her sister Elenor Jones. That about Christmas this deponent saw Mary Jones give a large candle to her sister the said Elenor Jones and which candle this deponent believes to have been the property of Mr Holmes. That a short time after Christmas this deponent saw the said Mary Jones give one black and two white pigs puddings to her sister Elenor Jones and which this deponent believes to have been the property of Mr Holmes. That about the end of March deponent saw said Mary Jones give a pint of ... and about a pound of candles to her sister Elenor Jones and which this deponent believes to have been the property of Mr Holmes.

That the said Mary Jones was discharged from the service of the said John Holmes on the last Saturday in March. That a short time after the said Mary Jones was discharged she and her sister Susan Jones came to the house of the said John Holmes after the family was gone to bed. That this deponent went down stairs and let them into the house, and gave them some of her this deponents clothes to mend and wash. That Mary Jones asked this deponent give her some oatmeal some suet and some bread and cheese. That his deponent gave Mary Jones about half a pint of oatmeal about a quarter a pound of salt, about half a pound of cheese and about a pound of bread, all of which was the property of John Holmes. And the said Mary and Susan Jones carried away with them. That about three days afterwards on a Saturday night Mary and Elenor Jones came to the home of John Holmes after the family was gone to bed. That his deponent went down stairs and let them in. The mark of Mary Wicks.

Examination of Mary James. Says that she has lived a servant with John Holmes of the Bank and remembers Mary Wicks going down stairs after the family was gone to bed twice and opening the house door and this deponent says that on one of those nights the said Mary Wicks let Mary Jones and Elenor Jones into the house, as this deponent saw them sitting in the kitchen. The mark of Mary James.

The said Mary Jones being called upon to answer the above charge wholly denies the same, but declined putting any questions to the witness.

2 July 1818. Examination of Mary Harris, single woman, taken before M.E. Lloyd. Charged with stealing wool and cotton stockings from Stalloe, property of John Rubbathan. Says that one night before last May day she, Mary Blakemore, Elizabeth Davies and Ann Williams, all of Montgomery at about ten o'clock went for a walk down the road towards Stalloe and when in the road opposite Stalloe house Mary Blakemore asked her and the other two girls to go into the fold with her for that she had lived there and knew the place but they all refused and the said Mary Blakemore went towards Stalloe house alone and left examinant and the other two girls in the road where they sat down about a quarter of an hour and then Blakemore returned to them in the road and without saying anything of where she had been or what she had been doing they all walked back towards Montgomery. That when Mary Blakemore came back to the road from Stalloe it was middling dark and she, examinant, did not see that Blakemore had any bundle of other thing with her either in her apron or otherwise. That they all walked up to Montgomery together and examinant is quite certain that Blakemore had nothing as a bundle or parcel with her nor had either of the party anything of the kind. The mark of Mary Harris.

Examination-theft. [1818M25]

14 October 1818. Information and complaint of Oliver Thomas of Harleen [Arddleen] in pa. Llandrinio, farmer, and others, taken before John Jones.

Says that he has frequently lost poultry and other things from about his house and premises. That about twelve o'clock last night he was called up by his servantman Thomas Jones (who had been on the look-out on a supposition that something was stolen) who said he had caught 6 boys stealing fowls and that he brought four fowls which he had taken of them. That he produced the four fowls which appeared to be about half dead and half alive. That examinant knows the fowls and that they are his property, and that two more fowls were brought to his house this morning alive which are also his property. That he has also lost a goose at the same time which he cannot at present find out. Oliver Thomas*.

The above Thomas Jones says that last night about twelve o'clock he was upon the look-out (having heard that some thefts had been committed in the neighbourhood by the canal boatmen and their boys) lest some of his master's property should be stolen. That he saw several persons on the road adjoining his master's fold and one of them he knew to be Joseph Ellis, boatman to Mr Thomas, examinant's master, and as he passed him by he threw the hen of his master's out of his hand which hen is now produced and examinant knows it to be his master's property. That he followed the other persons, three or four in number who appeared to be throwing away something out of their hands as they ran away. That he soon overtook John Morris who was in the employ of John Ellis, boatman, who had a duck of his master's and threw it away as examinant seized him. That Ellis the master of the boat and Robert the boat builder threatened the examinant if he took the boy, and that Robert cried out "shoot him", the other crying out "throw him into the canal". Robert called out to John Ellis to throw the duck to him in the boat. That examinant through fear of his life was induced to let go the boy and he ran off and has not since been heard of. That examinant has the duck that was thrown away by Morris and knows it to be his master's property. That John Morris and Joseph Ellis informed examinant that Jeffrey Fox was one of the party and which he verily believes to be true. The mark of Thomas Jones.

He voluntary confession of Joseph Ellis. Evy Evans has a couple of fowls, got them of the roost, he come of the talent with them. Peter Fox had a duck and Jack Morris had a duck. They got them of the pool in Mr Thomas's farmyard. They run at 'im and caught 'im at once by side of the pool. That six of us one as well as the other agreed to do this. I did not draw 'em up from the canal to Mr Thomas's. The reason I state this against them is because they ran away and left me in the lurch. The mark of Joseph Ellis.

Voluntary examination of Jeffrey Fox. Joseph Ellis asked me and the others, Thomas Parry, Evy Hughes and my brother Peter to come with him to Mr Thomas's for the fowls. That they all went to the building and Joe Ellis went in first and they brought out the hens. I was not in the building. The mark of Jeffrey Fox.

As to the rescue of John Morris. The examination of Thomas Jones servant to Oliver Thomas. Says that on the night of 13 instant whilst he apprehended John Morris for stealing his master's ducks, John Ellis the younger boatman jumped out of his boat and said you shall not take the boy home and stood between him and the boy in a menacing position and Robert Jones the boat builder also threatening examinant induced examinant to leave the boy go at large and has not since been taken. The mark of Thomas Jones. John Ellis himself in £30; Richard Pryce of Berriew and John Birch of Belan, pa. Welshpool, each in £30. For the appearance of Ellis at the next Q.S. to answer to a bill for the rescue of John Morris.

Robert Jones boatbuilder not taken.

Examination-theft. [1818M28]

1 September 1818. Examination of Thomas Evans of Penisaf Ffridd in pa. Llanwnnog, farmer, taken before James Bowen. Says that on Saturday evening 8 August last he and his servant Richard Evans did put the double harrow to keep in the wainhouse at Ffridd. The tines were all in the harrow. On Friday 14 August he found that there were eight of the tines taken off, and the day following he went and informed Thomas Humphreys, the blacksmith at Trefeglwys, what he had lost, and desired he would observe whether any tine would be brought there by any person for sale. On Friday 21 August having occasion to go to the blacksmith's shop, Thomas Humphreys asked him whether he had not found any of the harrow tines. He said he had not. Thomas Humphreys then said that one of them was brought there by a woman from Drainenddu. That he had asked her if she was married, she said she was not. That he had given her three half pence for the tine. Examinant asked Humphreys whether he had not questioned her anything about it. He replied that he had not because he did not wish to shy her expecting she would bring more. That he Humphreys was told that his brother Morris had also had one from the same person. That he believed that the woman was a daughter to one Robert Jones. Thomas Humphreys delivered to the examinant the tine and the tine so delivered and now produced is his property and was lost by him from the harrow in his wainhouse at Ffridd. Thomas Evans*.

Examination-theft. [1818M36]

5 September 1818. Examination of Thomas Humphrey of Trefeglwys, blacksmith taken before George Meares. Says that on Saturday 15 August last Thomas Evans came to inform him that he had lost eight tines out of his harrow in the wainhouse and desired examinant would take notice if any person would come there to offer such for sale. In a few days afterwards a woman came there with a harrow tine and wished him to buy it. He asked her what she would take for it. She said 2d but he offered 1½ d and she consented that he should have it for that. He asked her where she lived and she said Drainenddu and that she was not married. Thomas Humphrey*.

Examination-theft. [1818M37]

5 September 1818. Examination of Maurice Humphrey of Trefeglwys, blacksmith taken before George Meares. Says that about three weeks or a month ago Mary Jones of Drainenddu came to him with a harrow tine in her hand and asked what he would give for it. He said that he would give her 1d for it. She said it was one she had found on the ground and that it would not be worth a penny to her. Examinant having no halfpence in his pocket, he said he would go into the house for some. She prevented him by saying she wanted a tongs made and would call some other day with more iron. In about three or four days she came again with an iron cart stave and desired he would have the tongs made by the next Saturday. In a few days afterwards examinant made use of the tine. Maurice Humphrey*.

Examination-theft. [1818M38]

5 September 1818. Examination of Evan Davies, petty constable of tp. Llaniwared taken before George Meares. Says that in consequence of a search warrant received from George Davies of Llangurig, yeoman he went to search the house of John Kinsey of the same, yeoman,. That in a bag of oatmeal there he found the body of a cotton gown and several pieces of like cotton in the chest from which the bag of oatmeal was taken, tied up in a bundle. John Kinsey was not then in the house, but his wife was. Examinant asked her where she had those things. She replied "That they were honest for her". The body of the gown and the several pieces now produced are the same which were found in the prisoner's house as stated above. The mark of Evan Davies.

Examination-theft. [1818M39]

20 October 1818. Examination of Mary Griffiths, servant to Richard Jones of Fedwddu in pa. Llangurig, taken before George Meares. Says that she saw the daughter of John Kinsey the prisoner, at the house of her master, and saw her in a cotton bedgown of the pattern of one very like the cotton now produced. That she saw a piece of cotton left at her master's house by George Davies's wife. That the next time the daughter of John Kinsey came to the house of her master she compared the bedgown she had on with the bit of cotton left by George Davies's wife. Kinsey's girl was only once there after with the bedgown on after the cotton had been left by George Davies's wife. That they were very like and believes both to be part of the same cotton. Kinsey's daughter did not know that she compared the piece with the bedgown but she asked her where she had the bedgown. The wife of Kinsey was present and answered that she had had it in Llanidloes and paid 1s 6d for it. The wife said it was an old one. She lives about half a mile from Kinsey. Kinsey's daughter told her on Monday before Mr Howell's fair, that she was going to have a new red cotton gown. Kinsey's daughter asked her was she going to have a new gown, she answered not and then Kinsey's daughter said she was going to have a new red gown. She saw her with the bedgown on about the beginning of August last. That she knows the purpose for which the cotton was left at her master's house. That it was to compare the piece with Kinsey's daughter bedgown. That he master told her so. The mark of Mary Griffiths.

Recognizance-peace. [1818M40]

30 September 1818. Edward Edwards, Humphrey Edwards the elder, and Humphrey Edwards the younger, all of Newtown, blacksmiths, each in £10. Taken before G.A. Evors for the said Edward Edwards to appear at the next Q.S. and keep the peace especially towards Ebenezer Humphreys of Newtown, spinner.

Evors for the said William Roberts to appear at the next Q.S. to give evidence upon a bill of indictment to be preferred against William Davies of Newtown, labourer, for feloniously stealing a small pocket book with a £1 note and four sixpences in silver in it, the property of Robert Evans, labourer. At the foot: Appeared.

Examinations-theft. [1818M42]

13 August 1818. Examination of Charles Ellis of Brinkin n pa. Churchstoke, yeoman, taken before Maurice Jones. Says that about 8 or 9 July last he lent a scythe to Moses Beavan of the said parish, labourer. That the scythe and snead now produced (except the grass hook) is the same that he so lent to the said Moses Beavan. The mark of Charles Ellis.

Moses Beavan says that on Saturday morning the 11 July last he hung the scythe he borrowed from Charles Ellis upon a peg in his house wall, and that on the following morning the scythe was gone from there. That the scythe now produced he believes to be the same that he borrowed and hung up against his house. The mark of Moses Beavan.

Robert Groves of Priest Weston in co. Salop, yeoman, says that on Tuesday William Home of pa. Churchstoke, labourer, brought the scythe now produced to this examinant's house. Robert Groves*.

Robert Groves in £10 to give evidence against William Home at the next Q.S. 18 September 1818.

Charles Ellis in £20 to prosecute and give evidence; Moses Bevan in £10 to give evidence Edward Lewis the younger in £10 the like. Taken before me 29 September. Maurice Jones.

1 October 1818. Examination of Robert Roberts of Brinkin, servant. Says that about 11 o'clock of the night Moses Beavan lost the scythe he saw a person getting over a hedge about 100 yards from Moses's house and that when he came up to this examinant he knew that it was the said William Home. That this examinant asked him if he was going up to Edward Lewis's to the stage play but Home answered he was not. That he was going to Thomas Mapp's and this examinant did not see anything more of him. The mark of Robert Roberts.

Witnesses: Charles Ellis, Moses Beavan, Robert Groves, John Groves, Edward Lewis, constable.

Examination-theft. [1818M43]

26 February 1818. Examination of Evan Owen of Aberbiga, pa. Trefeglwys, farmer, taken before George Meares. Says that in the month of October last he lost a spade from a fold at Aberbiga and was informed that there was a spade resembling his at Robert Powell of Pantyrhedyn in the said parish. That on Saturday 7 instant he went to the said Robert Powell's, who was not then at home, there was only the children in the house, and on looking round the kitchen he saw the spade and took it away with him and told the children the spade was his, and that he would put it into the constable's charge. That he is certain the spade now produced and which he found in the said Robert Powell's house is his property. Evan Owen*.

Examination-theft. [1818M47]

20 October 1818. Complaint of Thomas Roberts of tp. Ackley, labourer, taken before . Says that he lives under Richard Pryce, esq., and is one of his workmen and yesterday morning he left home between six and seven o'clock and his wife and three children remained in the house. That about eleven or twelve o'clock he was sowing wheat in a field in sight of his home and saw a man go up towards his home and knowing that there was no one at home he watched the person and soon after saw the person going off in the contrary direction from the home. That he suspected the person had been doing something wrong and he proceeded to his home and found the door had been forced and the bolt of it on the kitchen floor and then pursued the prisoner and at the distance of two fields found him on a small dingle amongst brambles and with a piece of a loaf of bread and a piece of cheese under one of his arms which he knew to be his property. That he conveyed the prisoner to Mr Parry's the constable and thence before Colonel Davies when the prisoner was ordered to be searched and he took out of his pocket four razors and one razor case which complainant knew to be his property and particularly by two of them having the initials of his name upon them and the other two being old and remarkable and all of them having been his several years. That the razors were kept in a small cupboard in his kitchen separate from the bread and cheese and he saw them there last Sunday when he shaved himself with one of them. That as he passed by Llwynredith? with the prisoner to the constables he left the bread and cheese with Mrs Roberts and as he returned home from Colonel Davies he called for and took the same bread and cheese home with him and gave it to his wife. Thomas Roberts*.

Examination of Priscilla wife of Thomas Roberts. Says that yesterday morning between 8 and 9 o'clock she was preparing to go out a gleaning with two of her children and then cut a piece of her loaf of bread and a piece of her cheese to take with them and put the remaining piece of loaf and of the cheese back again into the cupboard in the kitchen and she and her children went out and she locked the only outer door (the kitchen door) after her and hid the key in a place for her husband. That she has no doubt of the bread and cheese brought home last night by her husband being the bread and cheese she had cut from in the morning and she knows the bread by the place she cut the piece from in the morning and she locked it up and has had it since. The mark of Priscilla Roberts.

14 October 1818. Examination of John Groves of Weston in co. Salop, husbandman, taken before Maurice Jones. Says that in the month of August he was mowing oats with a scythe which his master Robert Groves told him he had borrowed from William Home when Edward Lewis the constable came to him and took the scythe from him. John Groves*.

The said John Groves and Edward Lewis the constable in £10 each, to give evidence.

Examination-theft. [1818M50]

5 September 1818. Examination of George Davies, of Pantgwyn, pa. Llangurig taken before George Meares. Says that on Monday 11 May last he and his wife went to Llanidloes Fair. That he took particular care of fastening the door of the dwelling house by a chain reaching from the door to the side post and a hanging lock there put on. On his return home that evening which was about 8 o'clock he perceived the staple in the post removed from the place where it used to be and that the same had been put in the post again but not in the same holes it had been before. That when he entered the house he looked about to see if anything had been taken away. That he did not then discover that anything was lost. That about a month afterwards a search warrant was obtained by one James Pryce who had lost a shirt, and the house of examinant among others was searched. That in about a week afterwards his wife informed him that when she went to look over and replace her clothes she discovered that her gown was missing, and shortly afterwards she told him that she had received information where the gown was. That examinant after this information applied for a search warrant and searched the house of John Kinsey and in a bag of oatmeal in a chest there he found part of the gown cut up. That the body and pieces of the gown now produced was found in John Kinsey's house as before stated, and that the same belong to his wife as he verily believes. The mark of George Davies.

Examination-theft. [1818M51]

26 February 1818. Examination of John Owen of Pantyrhedyn in pa. Trefeglwys, yeoman taken before George Meares. Says that he lived as servant with Mr Evan Owen of Aberbiga for five years and quitted his place twelve months last May. That he is certain the spade now produced is the property of the said Evan Owen having seen it during the time he lived there as servant and well remembers leaving it there when he parted with his place. The mark of John Owen.

Examination-theft. [1818M52]

26 February 1818. Examination of Edward Davies of Groesuchaf in pa.Llanidloes, servant, taken before George Meares. Says that he lived as servant with Mr Evan Owen of Aberbiga for four years and quitted his service last May. That he recollects seeing the spade now produced all the time he lived at Aberbiga and that when he left there the spade was there then and is certain the spade now produced is the property of the said Evan Owen. The mark of Edward Davies.

Examination-theft. [1818M53]

5 September 1818. Examination of Ann wife of George Davies, of Pantgwyn, pa. Llangurig taken before George Meares. Says that in the beginning of the month of May she brought her gown out of a chest in which she used to keep it, lapped it up in a safeguard and put it across the railing of the bed because it began to get mouldy in the chest. That about five weeks afterwards a search warrant was obtained by one James Pryce who had lost a shirt and her husband's house among others was searched. That after this search had been made she went to look over and replace her clothes when she discovered that her gown was missing. That she soon afterwards asked one Richard Jones of Fedwddu if he had ever seen a strange gown in the house of John Kinsey. That Richard Jones said he thought he knew where the gown was and asked her for a bit of the same stuff and that he would give it to his servant girl, and she would compare a gown which John Kinsey's daughter had when she came next to his house. That Richard Jones also informed her in a short time afterwards that his servant in a conversation with John Kinsey's daughter, asked her where she had that gown. That she answered her mother had bought it for 18d in Llanidloes. That she had compared the bit she had received with the gown (which was then made into a bedgown) and it answered exactly in quality as well as print. That she this examinant informed her husband of this conversation who obtained a search warrant and that the body and parts of the gown now produced and which was found in the house of John Kinsey belongs to her. That she knows part of the gown now produced by a rent in it which she sewed up herself as well as other marks. The mark of Ann Davies.

Report-gaol. [1818M56]

The report of the visiting justices of the gaol and house of correction at Montgomery.

We have much satisfaction and pleasure in finding ourselves enabled to state that the rules and regulations lately made have not only produced beneficial effects but have corrected many abuses and irregularities, added much to the comforts of the prisoners, and avoided a continuance of complaining by them which was before very frequent.

The expense of the county in bread to the prisoners appears to have been £609 in the year to Michaelmas 1817 and £311 in the year to Michaelmas 1818 being a reduction of £298. although the number of prisoners has been greater in this than in the preceding year; and notwithstanding the crowded state of the gaol in a hot summer, yet the prisoners have enjoyed in general good health. The expenditure on the gaol has been trifling during our year and the building is now in complete repair; and although the limited space of the criminal side does not admit of classing the prisoners as now recommended and generally adopted in the Kingdom yet the building appears to be sufficient for the purposes of the county and to possess every needful conveniency, except the common sitting room for the male criminals which has been found too confined for the number that have been committed during the year. We understand it to be practicable to enlarge it and recommend an alterations as soon as the season will permit.

We have found it necessary that the greater part of the rooms on the debtors' side should be fitted up with iron bedsteads; chaff beds and proper bedclothes at the expense of the county for the use of the poor class of debtors, and that the lodging rooms of the house of correction should be fitted up in a similar manner and the bedsteads have been ordered through Messrs Jones of Welshpool but have not yet arrived.

The wall of the male prisoners court at the house of correction has been properly raised and several other improvements have been made within and also in front of the building under the inspection of the county surveyor and it is now in good condition and we think it sufficient for the purposes of the county.

The male prisoners in this place have been recently put to hard labour in getting and breaking stone at the adjacent rock for the use of the turnpike roads and highways in the neighbourhood. A small sum has been expended in providing necessary tools for them and a person has been employed at 15s a week to guard and keep them at work and each labouring prisoner has been allowed 4d a day besides the county allowance of bread. Six prisoners, being about the average number in confinement for hard labour, will get and break about 900 tons of rock in the year which is about the average consumption of the neighbourhood and that quantity will, it is believed, defray all the extra expenses. We are satisfied that this kind of hard labour will have a salutary effect and we recommend a continuance and that a fair trial of it will be made.

The gaol being in general nearly full we recommend that an order be made for the clerk of the peace to write to all the justices in the county requesting them to commit in all cases of misdemeanours, bastardy and for hard labour to the house of correction that the parties may be employed. 15 October 1818. Devereux Mytton, John Davies.

Examinations-theft. [1819M111] mislocated at 1818T – calendared here

13 July 1818. Examination of James Burrows of Leeds in Yorkshire taken before George Gould and W. Jones. Says that he came to Welshpool to purchase a horse for a gentleman, John Williams of Leeds, and has purchased one horse for which he gave six guineas. That the said horse he purchased in the open market in Welshpool. That he is a licensed hawkers but has no goods in this town for sale. That he had goods in Salop but has sent them home. He has no business in Welshpool but to purchase a horse. Sent some goods by the coach from Shrewsbury last Friday to Chester directed to John Williams to be left till called for to go to the Bull and sent to Chester. Now he says John Williams name was set to it. Mark of James. Burrows.

14 July 1818. Information of James Burrows. Says that the information he gave yesterday was wholly false. That the horse he has with him he hired at Montford's Coach Office in Salop. That his business in Welshpool was to receive money from one Thomas Jones, licensed hawkers, who he expected to meet there. That he did not send any goods from Salop to Chester. That he had goods in Wolverhampton on Thursday last and there sold silk and cotton handkerchiefs and that his father took the remainder of his goods to Macclesfield. That he left Wolverhampton on Saturday and reached Salop on Sunday night and came to Welshpool at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning, from Montford in Salop where he slept the Saturday night. The mark of James Burrows.

13 July 1818. Examination of Edward Davies of Woodmore in pa. Chirbury, co. Salop. Says that about three o'clock this afternoon he saw the person who calls himself James Burrows make two attempts at putting his hand into the pocket of some woman and at the same time another person who examinant supposes of the party of the said John Burrows push up against the woman to prevent her going on. The woman told examinant she felt somebody push up against her and immediately put her hand to her pocket to prevent anything being stolen from it.

Examination of John Griffiths of Welshpool, labourer. Says that coming up street a short time ago he saw near the Britannia four men of whom James Burrows was one pushing up against a woman and they followed her up the street for nine yards further when three of the men got round the woman the other stood by the chancelstep by watching as he supposes upon Mr Davies speaking to the woman they all went off. John Griffiths*. At the foot: The magistrates will have the goodness to excuse this.

Examinations-theft. [1819H12, 16] xx all. Try again at home!!!

17 November 1818. Examinations of William Williams of the town of Welshpool, shopkeeper, and of Ann Arthur of pa. Castell Caereinion, widow.

The said William Williams says that on Saturday night last 21 November he locked up in a dressing table drawer in his bedroom £5 in notes and about twenty shillings in silver and that there was one £2 note and three £1 and informant believes they were local notes but of this he is not certain. That when he had so locked the table he gave the key which was fastened with a ring of other keys to his wife who usually kept them. That about 8 o'clock on Monday morning he discovered that the top of the dressing table had been forced open and £3 taken away, viz. the £2 note and a £1 note and some silver. That he suspected that some person must have got into his house when he and his family were at church on the Sunday preceding as no one was left in the house. That suspicions having fallen on Jane Davies the prisoner who was apprehended and confessed to examinant that she had got into the house when the family were in church and forced open the table and stolen the £3 and 1s 6d?

That the notes so stolen were a £2 and a £1. That she purchased a gown at Mrs Davies Pontysuccoed neat Castell and there changed the £2 note to pay for it. That the remainder of the money she put in a purse which she hid in a hedge but when she afterwards went to look for her purse she could not find it. William Williams*.

The said Ann Arthur that on Monday night Jane Davies the prisoner came to her house and asked her to make a gown for her the prisoner as she wished to go to Meifod wake. That witness at first refused as it was late and she had then no candle. That having afterwards received some candles she agreed to make the gown and with the assistance of the prisoner the gown was finished that night. The following day the prisoner went from her house being previously told that the material had been purchased by her the prisoner at the shop of Mr Davies a mercer of Welshpool. That she left witness's house about 12 o'clock at noon and witness could see her present in the lane below the house as if looking for something which had been left but witness did not go down to her. The mark of Ann Arthur.

Examinations-theft. [1819H35]

16 November 1818. Examinations of witnesses taken before David Pugh and John Jones, J.P.s. touching some butter and cheese stolen from Hugh Parry in tp. Trederwen.

Hugh Parry says that on Thursday last about the middle of the day he left from his milkhouse part of his dwelling house at Trederwen about 10 lbs of butter out of a stean, a small cheese and a half a loaf of bread and having suspicion of his neighbour Margaret Foulkes he obtained a search warrant and went with Richard Richards the constable and searched her house and found a stean of butter but did not find the bread or cheese. The stean did not appear then so full of butter as it now is by half an inch to the present height. She said her butter was white. Examinant said this is yellow. She said I have made a mistake we have scalded some of our butter. Witness then sent his wife to look at the stean of butter. The mark of Hugh Parry.

Mary, the wife of Hugh Parry, says that upon being ordered by her husband to go to Peggy Foulkes to look at the butter, she went, and Peggy showed her the stean of butter. When she saw it she was ready to drop down, the butter was in such a greazy manner and slovenly put in the stean. That she had no doubt and now is certain according to the best of her belief that part of the butter contained in the stean is the property of her husband Hugh Parry. All she could see in the stean except what appears to have been put on the top of it was her butter. That Margaret Foulkes ran after examinant and said (with some butter on the point of a knife) is this your butter no it cannot be mine is is more salty than yours. The mark of Mary Parry.

Richard Richards, constable, says that on Saturday last Hugh Parry brought him a warrant to search Margaret Foulkes's house for some butter, cheese and bread he had lost. That upon searching they found a stean of butter and Hugh Parry not being confident it was his property examinant did not seize it. Upon Hugh Parry coming again to him saying his wife would swear to the butter he went to Margaret Foulkes's house again and seized the stean of butter which then appeared not quite in the same state as it was before some fingers having been drawn over it as if some butter had been put on the top and examinant believes that the stean of butter now produced is some little more in quantity than when he at first saw it. Richard Richards*.

Certificate of conviction-abandoning child [1819H36]

23 December 1818. Edward Evans an overseer of the poor of pa. Llanfyllin came before me, David Hughes, J.P., and gave me to understand that Evan Humphreys of pa. Llanfyllin, spinner, did run away and leave one of his children by Elizabeth his wife chargeable to pa. Llanfyllin and prays judgement in the premises and that Evan Humphreys may be convicted of the same. And the said Evan Humphreys afterwards, on 28 December 1818 at Newtown had notice of the said information and of the offence therein charged upon him and was apprehended by virtue of my warrant in order to make his defence. And whereupon afterwards, on 30 December 1818 at Llanfyllin he is brought before me and is asked by me if he ha anything to say why he should not be convicted. He said that he was not guilty of the offence. I then proceed to examine the truth of the complaint. It appears to me that he is guilty. He is accordingly convicted an that he be committed to the house of correction until the next Q.S. when he can be dealt with according to law.

Order-removal. [1818H37]

13 December 1818. To the churchwardens and overseers of pa. Guilsfield and of Meifod. Upon the complaint of pa. Guilsfield unto us, two J.P.s, and one of us of the quorum that Elizabeth Jones widow has come to inhabit not having gained a settlement there nor produced any certificate owning them to be settled elsewhere and is become chargeable to your parish, we have examined Elizabeth Jones adjudge that her lawful settlement is in pa. Examination-rogue and vagabond. [1819H39]

30 December 1818. Examination of Evan Humphreys a rogue and vagabond apprehended and brought before David Hughes, J.P., being charged with having run away and leaving one of his children by Elizabeth his wife chargeable to pa. Llanfyllin. Says that he is about thirty-four years of age and was born in pa.

Llanfyllin. That when he was about eighteen years of age he hired with Evan Price of the same parish for three years to learn the trade of spinner, carder and slubber for the wages of £2 for the first year, £3 for the second year, and £5 for the third year. That he served the nearly two first years but did not serve the third as he fell out with his master and left his service and deponent further says that he has a wife and two children and has not done any act to gain a settlement. Evan Humphreys*.

Motions-road. [1819H44]

Tp. Cilmachallt in pa. Llanidloes were sometime ago presented for not repairing roads there. The inhabitants appeared and pleaded guilty at Trinity Q.S. and an order was obtained for £30 which fine was raised and paid to David Davies who was then appointed treasurer. That fine was expended towards he repair of the road and at the last Michaelmas Q.S. a further sum of £20 was ordered to be raised but the high constable has not yet been able to collect the money, and only about £35 has yet been paid into the treasurer's hands. David Davies attends to prove the above statement with the account of what he has laid out on the repair of the roads. These roads are nearly completed and will be in complete repair in the course of a month or six weeks at the farthest. The usual certificate of two magistrates will be obtained before next Q.S. Please to move that the treasurer be examined and that the issues be respited till next Q.S. T. E. Marsh. 14 January 1819. Move to increase the fine an additional £20. E. Edye for Mr Marsh.

The prisoner, Griffith Parry, says he is a native of Plasdulas in Llanelian in Anglesey and has been in Denbighshire, Flintshire, Staffordshire and Shropshire. That he is a husbandry labourer and he worked last for Mr Wilson of Yeaton near Bridgnorth last and left him about a month ago and has been in Anglesey since at a home called Tre'r drew near Caernarfon in which his brother who is called there John Edwards lives. He came to Oswestry fair and to Shrewsbury fair to try to buy something. He was at the Dun Cow in Shrewsbury kept by one Bullock. He went from Shrewsbury to Glasley near Bridgnorth where Mr William Dalla, a miller, lives and left Glasley on Monday morning and was going for Wolverhampton when he met a man going to Newtown fair to buy pigs and after some talk they tossed up for a tramp up hill or down hill and the came up hill to Newtown where he (the man but whose name he does not know) bought some pigs (12) and examinant bought three cattle of two persons but he does not know the name of either. He gave £29 for them and paid toll for them (9d).

Upon searching Parry, £3 in Newtown pound notes and 1s 6d in silver and a promissory note for £40 from John Edwards found in his pockets.

A memorandum of purchase of two heifers in calf bought from William Gittins of near Llanfair for £20 about a month ago.

Another of a brown colt for £11 11s from Samuel Wilkes of somewhere about Wellington.

David Morgan says that he keeps the Cock Inn in Forden and that he has part of a stack of hay in his field adjoining his garden and the turnpike road to Welshpool. That last night about 6 or 7 p.m. the prisoner Griffith Parry came to his house and with other persons ordered supper and the all supped together between 8 and 9 p.m., and before supper the prisoner went out of the house once if not more. That he examinant went to bed soon after 10 p.m. and left the prisoner and others in the little room adjoining the kitchen and very soon after he was called up and informed that a man was stealing hay from the stack. That he went to the common behind his neighbour Joseph Bedward's house and opposite his haystack and there found three cows eating hay and the prisoner was standing against Mr Bedward's shop and Mr Bedward was by him. That he told Parry that he had stolen his hay and told him he must come with him and took him to his house and William Jacks one of his boys gathered up the hay from before the cows and bought it and the cows to his fold. That upon questioning the prisoner as to the cows he said he had driven them from Newtown for a man of the name of Jones but he afterwards said the cows were his and that he had bought them in Newtown fair. That he has examined the hay that was before the cows and has no doubt of it being his. The mark of David Morgan. Taken before M.E. Lloyd. 17 December 1818.

Joseph Bedward of Forden, blacksmith, says that last night about 10 p.m. he went out at his door before he went to bed and heard a hedge crack and believing it to be somebody coming out of Mr Morgan's garden or stackyard went to the outside his penthouse adjoining the road and there saw a man come from over the hedge into and across the road and as he came off the road upon the common he met the person and asked who was there and the prisoner answered he was giving a little hay to his cattle out of the fold when examinant saw his cows behind the penthouse and after some observations as to where the prisoner was going examinant asked him who gave him the hay but the prisoner would give him no answer and examinant said he would go and tell the landlord when the prisoner ran after him and offered him a shilling to make it up with him but he refused and went on and informed Mrs Morgan and soon after returned with Mr Morgan and found the prisoner at the end of his penthouse and his cows still there. That at the time he first saw the prisoner he had a bundle of hay under his left arm which he put down before his cows at which time there was other hay before them. The mark of Joseph Bedward.

Examination-theft. [1819H101]

17 December 1818. Examination of Maria wife of Thomas Woolley of Newtown, hatter, taken before G.A. Evors. She says that on Saturday 12 December 1818 she took two new hats from her husband's manufactory at Newtown to Llanidloes fair to sell. That late in the evening she found that there were two hats stolen from her standing and after she returned she informed her husband who on Wednesday 1816th informed examinant that he had found one of the hats on the prisoner's head and which hat now produced to her is one of the hats that she so lost at Llanidloes fair. Mari Woolley*.

Thomas Woolley says that upon Saturday 12th he wife took hats to Llanidloes fair to sell and when she returned she informed him that she had lost two which must have been stolen from her, in consequence whereof examinant made some enquiry and received information which induced him to search for the prisoner Griffith Jones who he found on Newtown street on the 1816th with one of the hats on his head and which is one of the hats which his wife took and lost at Llanidloes. The mark of Thomas Woolley.

Examination-wages. [1819E24]

2 April 1819. Whereas information and complaint has been made unto us, John Edwards and Jenkin Lloyd Jones, J.P.s, upon the oath of Jane Hugh of the town of Machynlleth that she was duly hired by Elinor, wife of Hugh Williams of the town of Machynlleth to be the said Hugh Williams' servant in husbandry for the term of one year from May 1815 to May 1816 for the wages of £4 14s 6d. That she duly performed the said service and that at May 1816 she was again hired in the capacity aforesaid until May 1817 for the same wages. That she has duly performed the second year's service also, yet nevertheless that the said Hugh Williams did refuse to pay her the balance of wages justly due for such service aforesaid. And whereas the said Hugh Williams having appeared before us in pursuance of our summons for that purpose has not proved to us that the said wages have been paid to the said Jane Hugh nor has showed any just cause why the said wages should not be paid. We therefore having duly examined into the truth and nature of the said complaint and upon due consideration had thereof do hereby adjudge determine and order that the said Hugh Williams upon due notice hereof do pay or cause to be paid to her the said Jane Hugh as and for her wages as aforesaid the sum of £4 19s which appears to us to be just and reasonable. At the foot: Granted. Examinations-theft. [1819T8]

12 July 1819. Examination of John Morris taken before William Pugh and Deverux Mytton. That a week last Wednesday this deponent was at work weaving when John Williams came to him and told him he Morris must come out of the room they would make him the crowd then came in and began to abuse deponent and John Turner said he would make deponent come out deponent went on weaving till John Williams came and took hold of the shuttle and endeavoured to give it to another deponent caught at the shuttle and got it again – heard Thomas Bennett say that unless deponent came out he should suffer for it with his life when he came to town. That someone said deponent was lame of one leg and they would make him lame of the other.

Examination of Edward Astley before William Pugh and Deverux Mytton. That on Wednesday week he saw John Williams come into his shop the very first man and above fifty men followed him. Before the men entered the shop deponent heard them say the men should come out they would force them and they actually did prevail upon Nathan Griffiths to go out of the shop. Saw Williams go round to John Morris's loom. Heard Bennett say that the men had better come out and they should come out that they had money and would support them.

Examination of Ann Phillips before William Pugh and G.A. Evors. Saw a great many men in the street between 11 and 12 o'clock last Saturday night. When they came opposite deponent's door heard them hooting when by the Crown heard John Beadles say "keep up the gang". Deponent also saw John Beadles in the crowd. That windows were broke on Saturday evening. The mark of Ann Phillips.

Examination of John Williams before William Pugh and G.A. Evors. A week last Wednesday there was a large mob in the street saw John Beadles in the mob heard him address them and dismiss them. Examination-theft. [1819T17]

30 June 1819. Examination of Edward Turner of Talwrn in pa. Mochdre taken before Evan Jones, J.P. Says that he was employed by Thomas Owen of Faenor to thresh wheat at Talwrn and on Wednesday evening 23 June about 7 o'clock in the afternoon he made up four heaps of wheat threshed on the floor and when he left his work he bolted one door and locked the other and upon going to the barn in the morning about six o'clock he found by opening the door which he had locked the preceding night that some grain had been taken from three of the heaps. He thereupon examined the barn and found that a board between the stable and barn which his master had nailed up fast about three weeks ago had been taken down and just put so as to stick on again and two of the nails taken out of it and left in the post. Examinant thereupon sent his daughter down to his master to inform him of the above. The mark of Edward Turner.

Examination-theft. [1819T20]

7 June 1819. Examination of Richard Mills of the town of Llanidloes, innkeeper, taken before George Meares. Says that on Tuesday morning 1 June instant he was informed by his son Hugh Mills that three links and a hook of a chain belonging to the plough which were left on the field belonging to Pinfold Farm in pa. Llanidloes had been stolen. And also that on Thursday morning last his said son came and asked him whether he had lent the spoking chain to any person. Examinant said he had not. He then said that he had been using it on the Friday before and that he had left it on the field where the plough was and that on the following evening he could not find it, and that one John Lewis had informed him that one Lewis Owen of Gigfran had told him that he saw a man from pa. Darowen offering a chain for sale to the blacksmith who lives at Rhiwdefaidty. That in consequence hereof he made further enquiry who the person was that had offered the chain for sale and applied it to a magistrate for a search warrant. That the chain now produced is his property. Richard Mills*.

Examination-theft. [1819T21]

7 June 1819. Examination of Richard Huthes of Rhiwdefaidty in pa. Trefeglwys, blacksmith, taken before George Meares. Says that on Saturday 29 May last a person called to him on the road and said he had a chain in the cart which he had bought for a shilling and about sixpennarth of bread of a man and woman that happened to overtake him on the road, and asked him if he wanted one. Examinant said he should have known of whom he had bought it, for things of that kind were not to be bought of strangers. He said that he repented that he had bought it but the persons he bought it from said that they had found it on the ground between Llanidloes and Rhayadr. Hear him calling out something more after he had gone further on the road, but could not distinguish what he said because he was shoeing. Examinant did not see the chain. That he is certain the person now in custody is the same who offered him the chain. That he has seen him passing several times before from Machynlleth to Llanidloes. Richard Hughes*.

Examination-theft. [1819T22]

7 June 1819. The voluntary confession of Evan Davies of Ty Newydd in pa. Penegoes, taken before George Meares. That on Saturday 29 May last he was returning from Llanidloes with his father's cart. He was overtaken by a man and woman on the turnpike road between Eblid and Gwairte?. The man had a chain tied up in a handkerchief and asked him if he should put the handkerchief and chain in the cart. He said that he might. That going down to the river called Bacho near Staylittle the man asked him if he would buy the chain. That they made a bargain for the chain, for 1s and a piece of bread, and the chain now produced is the chain that he so purchased from the man. That he took the chain in the cart to the blacksmith who lives at Rhiwdefaidty and to whom he offered it for sale. He did not put any price on it. The blacksmith having said that he never bought anything on the road. That he then went home with the chain in his cart and that his father took the chain out of the cart and saw him take it into the house and put it under the stairs where it remained until the constable came here, and to whom he produced and delivered it to him. Evan Davies*.

Examination-theft. [1819T23]

7 June 1819. Examination of David Jones of pa. Llanidloes, taken before George Meares. Says that in pursuance of a search warrant obtained by Richard Mills in consequence of a spoking chain having been lost he in company with David Lloyd went to search the house of Hugh Davies of Ty Newydd in pa. Penegoes. That upon the fold he asked Evan, son of the said Hugh Davies, if he could produce the persons from whom he had bought a chain, and where the chain then was, as he knew it, he should see it. Hugh Davies then said it was in the house under the stairs and desired his son would go and fetch it. Examinant and the said Evan Davies went into the house and Evan Davies went under the stairs, brought the chain out and threw it on the floor. He said he had bought it of some man (accompanied by a woman) on the turnpike road near Staylittie. That he had given a shilling and a piece of a loaf of bread for it. That the chain now produced is the same, as was found by him in Hugh Davies's house. The mark of David Jones.

Certificate-rogue and vagabond. [1819T24]

27 April 1819. To the keeper of the house of correction at Montgomery and to all constables whom it may concern to receive and convey and to the churchwardens and overseers of the town of Penzance, co. Cornwall. Whereas John Warin was apprehended in Montgomery as a rogue and vagabond and is duly convicted before me, M.E. Lloyd, J.P. and that he did wander abroad and lodge in the said town. Upon examination of the said John Warin it appears that her last legal settlement was in pa. Penzance, co. Cornwall. These are therefore to require you the said constable to convey him to Bishops Castle that being the first town in the next precinct through which he ought to pass on his direct way to the said Penzance, co. Cornwall, to be delivered there together with this pass and a copy of the examination. And you the said churchwardens and overseers to receive him. And I do hereby certify that the said John Warin has been actually confined in the house of correction in Montgomery for the space of seven days last past.

Order-removal. [1819T25]

10 July 1819. Pa. Llanidloes, appellants, and pa. Llangurig, respondents, touching the removal of Richard Evans,, Elizabeth his wife, Richard, William and Mary their children. Whereas it was agreed between the appellants and respondents that all matters in difference between them touching this appeal should be referred to the arbitration and award of George Meares and that all costs and expenses therein incurred and of the reference and award should be in the discretion of the said George Meares. And whereas I, George Meares, having taken upon myself the said arbitrations and award and having heard and examined the respective witnesses produced before me touching the settlement of the said Richard Hughes and his family, do make this my award in manner following. I do find that the settlement of the said Richard Hughes and his family is not in pa. Llanidloes. And I award and direct that the respondents shall at the next Q.S. consent that the order for their removal from pa. Llangurig to pa. Llanidloes be reversed. And I also award that the respondents shall on 12 August next pay to the said appellants all such sum or sums of money as they the said appellants have laid out and expended on the support and maintenance of the said family. And I do further award that the said respondents shall also pay to the appellants on 12 August a moiety of the said appellants' costs of the said appeal and also a moiety of the appellants costs of the reference and this is my award, such costs to be taxed by the clerk of the peace

Examinations-theft. [1819T26]

29 June 1819. Examination of Susan Griffiths wife of Edward Griffiths of Congley in pa. Mochdre taken before Evan Jones. Says that the wheat which she took to John Watkin's mill upon Saturday 26 instant amounting to about a strike was brought to her husband's house upon Wednesday night 23rd instant after it was dark by Richard Jones who lived last year at Evan Kinsey's, their work in Llandinam, and now lives at Littleton Williams's of Tyn-y-groes, for whom she used to wash but cannot say how much he owes her for washing – she supposes that he brought it on account of the washing but he said nothing of it but went away immediately. The wheat was threshed and not in the chaff. The mark of Susan Griffiths.

Examination of the said Edward Griffiths. That on Wednesday night 23rd instant just after it was dark some person came to the door and asked to be let in for that he had brought what he had promised. Examinant the supposing from the voice that it was the above named Richard Jones called his little boy Jack to open the door who did so, and Richard Jones came into the kitchen and put down a bag with about a strike of wheat in and told examinant not to say where he had it, and continued by the chamber door where examinant and his wife were in bed talking with them for about two minutes and then went away and examinant's son Jack having continued up with Richard Jones during the time he remained there bolted the door after he went away. Examinant saw the said Richard Jones last Sunday and asked him where he had the wheat and he told him that he examinant need not tell where he had it or of whom he had it. The mark of Edward Griffiths. Examination of Oliver Owen, miller at John Watkin's mill. Says that upon Friday 25th Thomas Owen of Faenor came to his house and stated to examinant's sister-in-law that he had lost a quantity of wheat out of his barn and left with her a sample of it as she informed examinant. And upon Saturday afternoon Susan Griffiths above examined and her son Jack brought about a strike of wheat in two bags to his mill to be ground and examinant ground it and kept the toll by itself and after it was ground he told her it was very good flour and asked her where she had the wheat and she said that she bought it and some man brought it to the house. That upon Sunday morning last Mr Thomas Owen came to examinant's house and at the time he came in the toll out of the wheat ground for Susan Griffiths being in a peck measure upon the table took some of it into his hand and said this is part of my wheat and examinant told him out of whose grain he had it. The mark of Oliver Owen.

Examination-theft. [1819T27]

29 June 1819. Examination of John Griffiths son of said Edward Griffiths taken before Evan Jones. Says that agreeable to an appointment made at his father and mother's house where Richard Jones was when examinant returned from keeping sheep upon the hill about eight o'clock in the evening. His father, mother, two sisters and his brother being he supposes present. Richard Jones appointed him and his brother to meet at a short time afterwards upon the road near the Talwrn. That they soon after went and that Richard Jones and he delivered to them a quantity of wheat out of one bag into two bags which examinant and his brother took with them and Jones then left them and they took the wheat home. That Jones was at the place appointed before examinant and his brother and that Jones was in his father and mother's house about six o'clock the next morning being 24th June 1819. The mark of John Griffiths.

Recognizance-assault. [1819T28]

Letter. [1819T33]

John Thomas to ...

I am going to Ynysmaengwyn and should have been very happy to have seen you, but you had unluckily just gone out. I thought I had brought you all Kenrick deeds but I find there are only the settlements made upon his father and mother's marriage and the recovery deed. His brother and his sisters portions are paid and I will send you the releases first opportunity and whatever other deeds I have. I believe I have all that are included in the abstract I knew I had them.

I have an appeal at the Q.S. and four prosecutions permit me to trouble you to enter it and to the recognizances and examinations entered or that accompany least I should be too late but I do mean to be here again tomorrow night and to be at Montgomery the following. I am very well having come from home today. John Thomas, Monday afternoon.

Order-bridge. [1819T41]

28 July 1819. At a meeting of the undersigned magistrates held at the house of John Jehu in the village of Meifod. We, having a compliance of an order of the Q.S. 14 July instant examined the fence in the land of

C. W. W. Wynn near Broniarth bridge and the situation of the weir and having also taken the evidence of Messrs Georg Watson Brick and Thomas Penson, engineers, and of William Davies and John Davies, labourers, as to the same and having also examined divers vouchers and papers produced before us do hereby declare: That the said weir is the cause of the injury done to the adjoining lands of the said C.W.W. Wynn and that a proper fence be made under the management and direction of the said Thomas Penson for effectually protecting and preserving the said land from the river. That the hundreds liable for the repair of the said bridge have at all times heretofore repaired the said fence and are also liable to repair and keep in repair the fence without hitherto made and to be made for preserving the said land, and in consequence thereof we do hereby order and direct that the treasurer for the time being of Broniarth ridge to pay the expense of making and preserving the said fence out of the monies received and to be raised by him on account of that bridge. That the same gentlemen named as the committee in the said order or any two of them be a committee for superintending the making of such fences and to whom the said Thomas Penson is to apply for directions should the same be necessary.

We also in further obedience to the said order, make and declare these resolutions as our report as the committee named in the said order. M. Williams, L. Parry, Robert Jones, D. Hughes, Devereux Mytton.

Document 94 mislocated here. Calendared at 1818T85Order-removal. [1819T95]

5 May 1819. Pa. Llanwnnog, appellants, and pa. Newtown, respondents, touching the removal of Jane Jones widow of Evan Jones and Ann their daughter. Whereas it was agreed on 14 April last between the appellants and respondents that all matters in difference between them touching this appeal should be referred to the arbitration and award of William Pugh, George Meares and John Jenkins or any two of them so that they made their award in writing on or before 1 June next, and that all proceedings in the meantime should be stayed. And it was also agreed that all costs then incurred and of the reference and award should be in the discretion of the arbitrators. And whereas we, George Meares and William Pugh, having heard and examined the respective witnesses produced before us as well by the appellants and as by the respondents touching the settlement of the said Jane and Ann Jones, do make this our award in manner following. We do find that the settlement of the said Jane and Ann Jones and his family is not in pa. Llanwnnog. And we award and direct that the respondents shall at the next Q.S. consent that the order for their removal from pa. Newtown to pa. Llanwnnog be reversed. And we also award that the respondents shall on 31 July next pay to the said appellants all such sum or sums of money as they the said appellants have laid out and expended on the support and maintenance of the said family. And we do further award that the said respondents shall also pay to the appellants on 12 August a moiety of the said appellants' costs of the said appeal and also a moiety of the appellants costs of the reference and this is my award, such costs to be taxed by the clerk of the peace

Examination-theft. [1819T96]

7 June 1819. Examination of Hugh Mills of the town of Llanidloes taken before George Meares. Says that on Saturday evening 29 May last a spoking chain which was left on the field near Pinfold together with other chains on the evening before was taken away. That on Tuesday 1 June he lost three links and a hook of the chain belonging to the plough which were left in the same field. He informed his father that the three links and hook had been stolen, but said nothing that day concerning the spoking chain imagining that some neighbour had borrowed it. That on the Thursday following he asked his father whether he had lent the spoking chain to any person. That he left it on the field the Friday before and that on the Saturday evening he could not find it. His father said he had not lent it to anybody, then somebody must have stolen it. That John Jervis had informed this examinant that Llewys Owen of Gifron had told him that he saw a man from pa. Darowen offering a chain for sale (similar to that they had lost) to the blacksmith who lives at Rhiwdefaidty. That he is certain that the chain now produced is his father's property, that he knows the same by several crooked links and a turn made near one end. The mark of Hugh Mills.

14 June 1819. Notice is hereby given that on 14 June instant an order was signed by John Davies and Maurice Jones, J.P.s, for turning diverting and stopping up a certain part of a certain public highway lying between Argoed and Cann house in pa. Churchstoke commencing at Offa's Dyke and leading by Cwm house to the turnpike road from the Cann house over the Bishops Moat to Bishops Castle and containing in length 721 yard, reserving a right of passage as heretofore for the respective owners and occupiers for the time being of the pieces of land in tp. Mellington lately purchased by John Edwards, esq., from John Cotes, esq., (except through the fields called Upper and Lower Cwm Meadows Long Leasow Round Meadow and Broomy Leasow). And Also for the owners and occupiers of the fields of Lewis Griffiths esq lying between the Cann and Mellington house. And also for stopping up an useless and unnecessary public bridleway leading from the said highway over the lands of Mellington estate to the turnpike road from the Court house over the Bishops Moat towards Bishops Castle of the length of 692 yards. And also for turning diverting and stopping up a certain part of a certain public footway lying between Brompton and the Bishops Moat in pa. Churchstoke of the length of 1069 yards commencing at Offa's Dyke and leading over the lands of Mellington estate by Mellington house to the said turnpike road from the Cann house towards Bishops Castle. And also for turning diverting and stopping up a certain part of another certain public footway lying between Argoed and the Cann house in pa. Churchstoke of the length of 1226 yards commencing at Offa's Dyke adjoining the road from Argoed and leading over the lands of Mellington estate unto and across the said highway and the said other footway and along the said public bridleway to the turnpike road from the Court house over the Bishops Moat towards Bishops Castle. And that the said order will be lodged with the clerk of the peace at the Q.S. on 15 July next. And also that the said order will at the said Q.S. be confirmed and inrolled unless upon an appeal against the same to be then made it to be otherwise determined.

Order-road diversion. [1819M20]

14 June 1819. We, John Davies and Maurice Jones, J.P.s, at a special Q.S. held at Mellington on 14 June 1819 having upon view found that a certain part of a certain public highway between Argoed and the Cann house in pa. Churchstoke for the length of 721 yards and particularly described in the plan hereunto annexed may be diverted and turned so as to make the same nearer and more commodious to the public and having viewed a course prepared for the new highway in lieu thereof through the lands and grounds of John Cotes, esq, John Edwards, esq, and Mr Evan Jones of the length of 497 yards and of the breadth of fifteen feet and having received evidence of the consent of the said owners to the said new highway being made through their respective lands by writing do hereby order that the said highway be diverted and turned through the said lands. And the said justices being satisfied upon our view that the said new highway is completed and put in good condition and repair and proper made and fit for travellers do hereby order the said old highway to be stopped up and the land and soil thereof to be sold and conveyed to the said John Edwards. Reserving nevertheless to the said John Edwards and the owners and occupiers for the time being of the pieces of land in tp. Mellington lately purchased by the said John Edwards from the said John Cotes a free passage for persons horse cattle and carriages and such right of road and way to and from the same lands respectively as heretofore and prior to the purchase thereof by the said John Edwards was used and enjoyed by the said John Cotes and his tenants thereof except through and over the several parcels of land of the said John Cotes lying on the south side of the said new road called Upper and Lower Cwm Meadows Long Leaseow Round Meadow and Broomy Leasow. And reserving to Lewis Griffithes of the Meadows, esq., and to the owners and occupiers for the time being of his fields between the Cann and Mellington House a free passage for persons horses cattle and carriages and such right of road and way to and from the said fields as is now used and enjoyed. And we the said justices being satisfied upon our view that the public bridleway described in the said plan heretofore annexed and leading from the said old highway over the lands of Mellington Estate to the turnpike road from the Court House over the Bishops Moat towards Bishops Castle of the length of 692 yards and of the breadth of six feet upon a medium is unnecessary do hereby order the unnecessary bridleway to be stopped up and the land and soli thereof to be sold and conveyed to the said John Edwards. And we the said justices having also upon our view found that a certain part of a certain public footway lying between Brompton and the Bishops Moat in pa. Churchstoke for the length of 1069 yards and particularly describe in the plan hereto annexed may be diverted and turned so as to make the same more commodious to the public and having viewed a course proposed for the new footway in lieu thereof through the lands and grounds of the said John Edwards Lewis Griffithes and Evan Jones of the length of 1120 yards and of the breadth of four feet particularly described in the plan hereto annexed and having viewed evidence of the consent of the said John Edwards Lewis Griffithes and Evan Jones to the said new footway being made through their said lands by writing do hereby order that the said footway be diverted and turned through the lands aforesaid. And we the said justices being satisfied upon our view that the said new footway is completed and put in good condition and repair and properly made for the reception of travellers do hereby order the said old footway to be stopped up. And we the said justices having also upon our view found that a certain part of another public footway lying between Argoed and the Court House in pa. Churchstoke for the length of 1226 yards particularly described in the plan hereto annexed may be diverted and turned so as to make the same more commodious to the public and having viewed a course proposed for the new footway in lieu thereof through the lands of the said John Cotes, John Edwards Lewis Griffithes and Evan Jones for the length of 1142 yards and of the breadth of four feet and particularly described in the said plan hereto annexed and having received evidence of their consent by writing do hereby order that the said last mentioned footway be so diverted and turned. And we being satisfied upon our view that the said last mentioned new footway is completed and put in good condition and repair and properly made for the reception of travellers do hereby order the said old footway to be stopped up.

Consent-road diversion. [1819M21]

29 July 1819. We, John Cotes of Hoodcote in co. Salop, esq., John Edwards of Machynlleth, esq., and Evan Jones of the Cann, maltster, being respectively owners of the lands described in the plan hereunto annexed through which part of a certain highway lying between Argoed and Cann House in pa Churchstoke intended to be diverted and turned in consideration of the said old highway being invested in me the said John Edwards and also in consideration of the said John Edwards fencing forming and making fit for the passage of travellers the intended new highway do hereby severally consent to the making and continuing such new highway through our said respective lands; the said John Edwards reserving nevertheless to himself and the owners and occupiers for the time being of the pieces of land in tp. Mellington lately purchased by the said John Edwards from the said John Cotes such right of road and way to and from the said lands respectively as heretofore and prior to the purchase thereof by the said John Edwards was used and enjoyed by the said John Cotes and his tenants thereof except through and over the several parcels of land of the said John Cotes on the south side of the said new road called Upper and Lower Cwm Meadows Long Leaseow Round Meadow and Broomy Leasow. And reserving to Lewis Griffithes of the Meadows esq., and to the owners and occupiers for the time being of his fields between the Cann and Mellington House such right of road and way to and from the said fields as is now used and enjoyed. And we the said John Edwards Lewis Griffithes and Evan Jones being respectively owners of the lands described in the said plan hereunto annexed through which part of a certain public highway between Brompton and the Bishops Moat in pa. Churchstoke is intended to be diverted and turned in consideration of the old footway being vested in me the said John Edwards. And we the said John Cotes, John Edwards Lewis Griffithes and Evan Jones being also respective owners of the lands described in the said plan hereunto annexed which part of another certain public footway between Argoed and the Court House in said pa. Churchstoke is intended to be diverted and turned in consideration of the said old highway being vested in me the said John Edwards. Do hereby severally consent to the making and continuing such two new footways through all and respective lands. John Cotes*, John Edwards*, Evan Jones*, Lewis Griffithes.

Report-gaol. [1819M34]

16 October 1819. The visiting magistrates of the gaol and house of correction have at the termination of their year, to report that they have caused the different wards in both prisons to be fitted up with proper iron bedsteads, cut straw beds and suitable bed clothes whereby the rooms and cells are rendered more cleanly and consequently more wholesome; and although the expense of this alteration has been somewhat considerable yet the future saving in straw and in lodging money heretofore paid to the gaoler for poor debtors will soon repay the present expenditure.

We have great satisfaction and pleasure in informing the bench that the number of prisoners both criminal and debtor have decreased considerably during the year and that by causing the convicts to be regularly removed for transportation the gaol has afforded ample room and accommodation for all prisoners as is evident from the health they have enjoyed.

The gaol is in a proper state of repair and appears sufficiently spacious in times like the present for the purposes of the county, but a building for a coal house and lumber room appears to us to be wanting. This can be erected at a small expense in the garden adjoining the stable and we recommend its being done. The house of correction is now tolerably complete, but a cell for confinement of the refractory appears to be wanting and we recommend one being erected in the garden adjoining the court wall or the end of the house. The male prisoners in the house of correction have been regularly employed in getting and breaking rock for the roads and, with few exceptions, have behaved well, particularly since we removed heir first superintendent and issued strict regulations in their management and conduct. The beneficial consequences to the prisoners both in health and morals in being kept constantly employed is self-evident, and the plan of retaining a portion of their allowance till they are discharged has been found useful and proper.

It appears that the account of profit or loss to the county by the present mode of employment from the commencement of 15 September 1818 to the present time is as follows:

Paid the superintendents				33	2	6
Paid the prisoners				37	12	4
Paid for tools, powder etc				37	15	0
				108	9	10
Received for rock	35	8	9
Remaining in hand 736 ton at 1s 6d	55	4	0
Work on the Churchstoke road	4	4	0
				95	16	9
				12	13	1

So that the county has hitherto sustained a loss of £12 13s 1d against which the tools etc are valued at £12 9s, leaving an ultimate deficiency of only 4s 1d, and we have every reason to believe by some late improvements in the system that in a short time the balance will be found to be in favour of the prisoners and therefore we have no hesitation in recommending a continuance and perseverance in the present mode of employment to the consideration of our successors.

We have lately taken into our consideration the increased duties of the keeper of the house of correction and recommend that his salary be advanced from £20 to 25 guineas a year to commence from this time.

Devereux Mytton, Panton Corbett, John Davies, Maurice Jones
