B/EP/34 Glasbury Parish Records (All Saints)

Diocese of Swansea and Brecon

In 1882 the parish of Glasbury was divided into two separate parishes, All Saints (Radnorshire part) and St Peter's (Breconshire). These records relate to the Radnorshire part of the parish but for ease of reference they have been catalogued with the Breconshire parish records collection.

The earlier records relating to the parish of Glasbury are listed with the records of Glasbury St Peter (B/EP/33), as this was the original parish church.

B/EP/71 Llywel Parish Records

Diocese of Swansea and Brecon

The parish church of Llywel is dedicated to St David. The ancient parish of Llywel has been subject to several boundary changes, divisions and groupings, and is presently part of the benefice of Blaenwysg. For records relevant to this parish also consult records for Traean-glas, Defynnog and Rhidybriw. The original list of parochial records incorporated both the records of St David's church, Llywel with the records of St Mary's, Traean-glas. In 2002, a decision was made to list the records for Traean-glas separately.
